The Kaiser's Talk to Hell.
The Kaiser called the Devil up
On the telephone one day.
The girl at central listened to
All they had to say.
Hello, she heard the Kaiser's voice,
Is the old man Satan home?
Just tell him that it is Kaiser Bill
That wants him on the phone.
The Devil said, Hell, to Bill,
And Bill said, How are you?
I am running here a hell on earth,
So tell me what to do.
What can I do? the Devil said;
My dear old Kaiser Bill.
If there is a thing that I can do
To help you I sure will.
The Kaiser said, Now listen
And I will try to tell
The way that I am running
On earth a modern Hell.
I've saved for this many years
And I've started out to kill
That it will be a modern job
You leave to Kaiser Bill.
My army went thru Belgium
Shooting women and children down
We tore up all her country
And blowed up all her towns.
My Zepps dropped bombs on cities,
Killing both the old and young.
And them the Zeppelin didn't get
Were taken out and hung.
I started out for Paris
With the aid of poisonous gas.
The Belgians, darn them, stopped us
And would not let us pass.
My submarines are devils,

Why, you should see them fight.
They go sneaking thru the seas
And will sink a ship on sight.
I was running things to suit me
Till a year or so ago,
When a man called Woodrow Wilson
Wrote me to go more slow.
He says to me, dear William,
We don't want to make you sore,
So be sure to tell your U-boats
Not to sink our ships no more.
We have told you for the last time
So, dear Bill, it is up to you.
And if you do not stop it
You have got to fight us too.
I did not listen to him
And he's coming after me
With a million Yankee soldiers
From their homes across the sea.
Now that's why I've called you Satan
For I want advice from you.
I knew that you would tell me
Just what I ought to do.
My dear old Kaiser William,
There's not much for me to tell.
For the Yanks will make it hotter
Than I can for you in Hell.
I've been a mean old Devil,
But not half as mean as you,
And the minute that you get here
I will give my job to you.
I'll be ready for your coming,
And I'll keep the fires all bright
And I'll have your room all ready
When the Yanks begin to fight.
For the boys in Blue will get you
I have nothing more to tell,
Hang up the phone and get your hat
And meet me here in Hell.

Hon. R. A. Pierce has returned from Washington, after a few days in the capital looking after some business interests. Mr. Pierce sees some wonderful changes in Washington City. First of all are the new Government buildings and then since the declaration of war the city is overrun with emergency employees. The whole city is alive and crowded as it never was before. Mr. Pierce with his twenty years in Congress never saw anything like it in Washington.

RUB-MY-TISM—Antiseptic, Relieves Rheumatism, Sprains, Neuralgia, etc.

Mr. Hugh Ed Curlin, one of the boys leaving last Saturday for Camp Jackson, has been employed for some time as traveling salesman for the Union City Manufacturing Co., a short time with the National Waterproofing Co. He sold goods in Mississippi and had splendid success. Mr. Curlin was chosen captain of the company for the period ensuing before the boys were assigned to regular command. He is every way fitted for such a responsible position, in ability, temperament, physical and moral courage, and when the time comes for more responsible work will be able to give an account of himself. Mr. Curlin has lots of friends back home who are sincerely interested in his military achievements.

Mr. Baker is Coming.

Rev. E. S. Baker, of Dyersburg, is coming to begin a series of meetings with the First Christian Church next Sunday. Rev. Mr. Baker is the minister of the Christian Church at Dyersburg and is an excellent preacher. He preached for the Christian Church in Jackson for ten years. He has conducted meetings in the largest of our Tennessee cities and for many of our best churches. He has been very successful as an evangelist in other States as well as in Tennessee.

The services will begin at 8 p. m. each evening. They will be brief, bright and brotherly. The good old songs that mother used to sing will be used largely during this meeting. Everyone who is a Christian is invited to come and help in this meeting.

Church Notice.

Rev. W. E. Powell will preach at the Presbyterian Church, North First street, next Sabbath, 5th inst. Public cordially invited.

Card of Thanks.

We desire that our neighbors and friends who were so kind during the illness of Mrs. Luna Hicks to know how deeply we appreciate their kindness. We are truly thankful, and may heaven bless you.—W. H. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Carter, Wilford Carter, Lillie Carter, J. F. Carter.

Woman.

A wonderful thing is a woman, in some ways superhuman. She wears her hat with a rakish air And yet preserves her baby stare. A marvelous thing is woman.

In Loving Memory.

Our Lord in his infinite wisdom saw fit to call from earth to glory the spirit of A. B. London on Sunday morning, April 7, 1918, making an end of pain and affliction which he had borne with cheerfulness and without complaint for the last two years. Of course he had a desire to live longer with his dear companion and little children, but had expressed himself several times as willing and ready to go if it was the Lord's will. As life was almost gone, with feeble voice, he repeated Paul's words, "I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness."

His body was laid to rest in Martin Cemetery.

Barry, as we say, was born near Crystal in Obion County, Tenn., on April 28, 1862, making him 45 years, 11 months and 11 days. When a young man he married Miss Sue Russell, of near Union City. He professed faith in Christ early in manhood and joined the Missionary Baptist Church. A few years ago he felt impressed that the Lord had called him to preach the Gospel. He was ordained as a minister at Bethel Church. Very soon he moved his family to Martin, Tenn., for the purpose of preparing himself more fully to preach the gospel and be more useful in leading sinners to Christ. This seemed his greatest desire to be used by the Lord. His health soon failed him, which kept him from preaching as he desired, but he did much personal work which we feel did much and lasting good. We will ever cherish with sacred thoughts the memories of his being in our home so often, the happy and cheerful disposition he possessed, full of Christian religious influence. His whole conversation being on the Bible. How he gave so many passages of scripture so beneficial to the Christian in every day life. Also the earnest prayers he prayed with us in our family circle, all these are more evidences of his faith in God.

He leaves a devoted wife who stood by him in every ill, three boys and three girls, one sister and three brothers, with many friends and relatives to mourn his going away. It seems hard for dear Sue and little children, yet we must say God's will be done. But we who believe in God know that while the home on earth is sad, a soul is rejoicing in heaven. We believe he is not dead but has only taken possession of a real life, life everlasting. We must not sorrow because he is gone from us, but rejoice in the thought of the bright crown all furnished for him, the mansion made ready, the white robe prepared for him, there is eternal glory for him. God is able to do much and lasting good from this noble Christian life he has lived, with the many earnest prayers he has lifted to our Lord. We pray that his loving Christian influence toward God may bear much fruit in years to come thru the lives of his dear children. And may God be rich in blessings to the dear wife and children. Just a few more troubles, just a few more days till we'll clasp his hand in a brighter home where there be no more good-bye.
