

CLASSIFIED ADS

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms. Call 513J. 26tf

FOUND—Gray Norfolk overcoat. Owner can get same by calling 585 and paying for this ad. 27-1t

FOR SALE CHEAP—A nice 7-room residence on Exchange street.—R. L. Cummings. 13tf

WANTED—To rent seven-room residence with modern improvements close in. Call 554J. 26-2t

LOST—A brown Cameo brooch on Church street Thursday. Return to Mrs. E. H. Lannom, Local Board, and receive reward. 27-2t

FOR RENT—Two or three rooms just north of the main public school buildings. Address Mrs. Melvin Spain, Union City, Tenn. 27tf

FOR RENT—Four-room house, first house north of Stroud's, newly papered and painted. For particulars call 2202, W. A. Forester. 27tf

SALES LADY WANTED—Good opening for young lady with some experience in merchandise and office work.—W. G. Claggett Co. 27-1t

WANTED—We buy and pay cash for country sides, shoulders and hams.—Cash Grocery Co., Union City. 23-1t

WANTED—To buy 100 hogs weighing 80 to 100 pounds. Highest market price paid.—Wallace W. or Felix W. Moore. 26-2t

Having sold my garage, I want to rent my high, feed and livery barn; also have four 1917 model Ford Touring cars in good shape, for sale.—Reece Alexander. 25-4t

GOOD HOME FOR RENT—Five-room house with water and lights. Big lot and garden, good out houses and stable. Located on Cheatham street, known as the Taylor place. Apply to Z. W. Corum. 27tf

LOST—This week a lady's hand pocketbook, containing a ten-dollar bill and some change. Finder will be liberally rewarded for return of property.—Miss Laura Lancaster, Shatz Bros. Store. 27-1t

STRAYED—White bull dog, wore collar with brass trimmings, 1 year old, scar on rear leg, spot on tail, last seen near Terrell last Saturday. Reward for his return or information.—Albert Gardner, at Union City Post Office. 27-1t

Farm for Sale or Rent.

I will sell my farm of 100 acres at a bargain if sold at once. Part cash, balance on good terms. If rented the applicant must give reference. Would like to rent so as to have 35 acres sown to clover and grass and 35 acres planted to corn. Good 5-room house, fences, water, etc. Write for further information. J. H. STOVER, Elbridge, Tenn. 26tf

Liberal Reward.

Will be paid for the return or any information that will lead to the recovery of gentleman's traveling bag lost out of car between Cadis, Ky., and Newbern, Tenn., via Murray and Fulton, Ky. Bag contained light gray suit of clothes, shirts, collars and handkerchiefs marked J. W. M., also new 38 Police Positive Colt pistol. JOHN W. MANN, Maryanna, Ark. 24-4t

WANTED

Motormen and Conductors. Experienced or unexperienced, permanent, no labor trouble, wages 33 to 37 cents per hour, free lodging first month. Men who have worked one month or more now making from $3 to $4.25 per day. $72 per month guaranteed, whether you are assigned to work or not. Splendid opportunity of securing a permanent situation that will be very desirable after the war, when you will be high on seniority list. 24-tf

MOBILE LIGHT and RAILROAD CO., Mobile, Ala.

HOG SERUM FOR SALE.

Prices on Application. G. C. CLOYS SERUM COMPANY UNION CITY, TENN.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for the kindness shown us during the sickness and death of our dear daughter, sister, and mother. We pray God's richest blessings may rest on each one of them, and also Dr. Parks.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe James, Mr. and Mrs. Watt James, Mr. and Mrs. Green James, Mr. and Mrs. Dock James, Mr. and Mrs. Bethel James, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pool, Will James, Richard James, Jappi Pool.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

L. H. Lockhart is with Shatz Bros. as salesman.

Vernon Flanagan, of Clayton, was here Wednesday.

Floyd Wyatt, of Protemus, was in the city Wednesday.

Eat at Forrester's.

Mrs. Hubbard, of Hickman, was a shopper here Wednesday.

Mrs. W. McMahan is a visitor this week in Morrison, Tenn.

Mr. John Noah visited his mother here the first of the week.

All style Grates and Grate Baskets, Tile and Fire Brick at WEHMAN'S.

Mr. Jess Averitt is a business visitor in Paducah this week.

Mrs. Acey Elks, of Clayton, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Miss Bessie Rice is with the Shatz Bros. store as saleswoman.

Heating Stoves to suit every home, from a laundry stove to the best heater made. Ask WEHMAN.

Mrs. Jess Averitt left Tuesday to attend the fair at Memphis.

Miss Lula Flanagan was the guest of Mrs. J. T. Williams Sunday.

Glad to report Mrs. Bud Noah improving after a long spell of illness.

If not, why not? Boss Air-tight Heater holds fire day and night. You will find them at WEHMAN'S.

Mrs. Manda Tansil, of Harris, is Mrs. J. F. Gregory's guest this week.

Miss Altie Osborn, of Number Seven, was here visiting relatives Tuesday.

Mrs. Ada Henderson visited relatives near Harris Saturday and Sunday.

Nice line candy, fruits and cigars at Forrester's.

Mr. and Mrs. Pink Marshall went to Memphis to attend the Tri-State Fair.

Mr. Homer Scott, bank examiner, was here this week visiting homefolks.

Mrs. F. C. Redditt will visit in Obion next week with relatives and friends.

You had better have one of those Good Oil Heaters at WEHMAN'S.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Culberston, of Troy, were in the city Wednesday as visitors.

Mrs. Parks, of Newbern, is a visitor in the home of her son, Mr. Harris Parks.

Mrs. T. E. Marshall is a visitor this week in Memphis at the Tri-State Fair.

Where do you eat and drink? After all Forrester's place is the best.

Mrs. J. E. Atkins is a visitor this week in Selmer, Tenn., with relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. C. Curlin is a visitor this week at Harris with relatives and friends.

Miss Virgie Butler is now with P. Hyman in the store as assistant saleswoman.

We can polish and mount your heating stove now. Call WEHMAN'S.

W. G. Claggett, for the W. G. Claggett Co., is in St. Louis this week buying goods.

Miss Mary Kate McDaniel was in Memphis this week attending the Tri-State Fair.

Mrs. Avrie Coble is a visitor this week in Memphis with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pardue.

Some of the most beautiful new styles in autumn hats are now being received at Miss Flinary's.

Mrs. Bettie Pickering, of Fulton, was in the city this week visiting Mrs. C. S. Talley.

Mrs. H. H. Cutler, of Tams, Ill., was here this week to see her mother, Mrs. Bud Noah.

Mrs. Ann Howell is in Louisville this week visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howell.

Oil Heater makes these chilly mornings pleasant. Find them at WEHMAN'S.

Miss Mary Morris, of Troy, was the guest of Miss Trixie Morris and Mrs. Milton Moore last week.

Messrs. Geo. Moody, Josh Adams and W. M. Dismukes are in Memphis attending the Tri-State Fair.

Mrs. Pearl Dudley, mother of Mrs. Jasper Woodard, has been ill this week from the injuries of a fall.

Mrs. John Marshall Martin is a visitor here for a few days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Martin.

Mrs. Fannie Williams and daughters visited Mrs. Williams' son, J. T. Williams, near Old Republican Sunday.

Buy the best Oil Heater made for these chilly nights. WEHMAN has the right price.

Miss Clatie Andrews, accompanied by her parents, went to Nashville this week for treatment for appendicitis.

Mrs. Bud Jackson, of Elbridge, was in the city the first of the week visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. McCorkle.

Mr. Bob Milner has purchased the Gardner home on Fifth street, one of the old-time beautiful residences of the city.

We have 50 dozen of men's overalls at $1.50 a pair. Come and get a pair while they last, at Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store. Buy Liberty Bonds.

Miss Mildred Matheny was transferred this week to Nashville in the service of the N. C. & St. L. Ry. as train dispatcher.

Miss Lizzie Tams is a visitor this week in Memphis in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Scates, while attending the Tri-State Fair.

Miss Sara Taylor was at Nailling's Hospital for an operation this week, but is recovering after a considerable illness, and her many friends are grateful.

Save half your coal bill with the best Air-tight Heater made. Ask WEHMAN.

F. L. Cloar, of Number Three, one of the staunch friends and readers of the paper and a mighty good citizen, was here and a pleasant caller Monday.

Mr. Paine Bransford, traveling for one of the principal building material houses out of St. Louis, was here this week visiting his family and friends.

Six cases of heavy outing. We must sell it. Best grade at 25c per yard; also 35c canton flannel at 25c per yard at Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store. Buy Liberty Bonds.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Wade, of the vicinity south of Union City, and Miss Martha Wade, of Pleasant Hill, are in Memphis this week attending the Tri-State Fair.

Miss Estelle White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. White, is now one of the faculty of teachers in the City Schools of Union City, beginning work this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Briggs are arranging to move to Nashville, and have just returned home from that place, where they have been looking for suitable location.

Miss Flinary takes pleasure in announcing that she has an exceptionally beautiful line of autumn hats.

In material, style and effect they are indeed very popular and you are cordially invited to call and see them.

Dr. J. D. Carlton received yesterday from the War Department his commission as first lieutenant in the U. S. Army Medical Department. He will be ready to report when called.

Miss Mary Swiggart is scheduled to leave within the next two weeks for overseas Red Cross service. She and Miss Ruth Crenshaw have passports and are waiting for further orders.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance, of Mississippi, have rented the bungalow residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Scates on Home street, and Mr. Vance will be prescriptionist at Oliver's Drug Store, on First street.

Coal Vases, Fire Sets, Andirons, Coal Hods, all to be had at WEHMAN'S.

A. J. Scates, representing the Childs Specialty House, will leave this week for Mississippi and Louisiana to solicit spring orders. Mr. Scates will stop at his farm in Mississippi for a few days to look after some business.

Put up and repair your old stove now before the cold weather. You will find the right man for the job at WEHMAN'S.

Mrs. John Moores, of Protemus, Messrs. J. A. Wright and Somers Garrett, of Rives, were in the city Tuesday with Mr. Wright's son, Will J., who was here having his questionnaire filled out. Mrs. Moores tells us that Mr. Moores was quite sick this week.

Do you want the Huns to win? Be in line to-morrow and order your bond. Duty places the ladies in charge and they will be there all day. It is your duty to stop just two minutes and close the transaction. It will save a lot of trouble. Every man must do his duty.

Rev. Dixon Williams, now associated with the Council of National Defense as speaker, was a visitor in Union City this week. The people of Union City, especially the older residents, remember Rev. Williams, the evangelist, and who probably conducted the greatest revival ever held in Union City. He is an orator and a man of fine abilities. He had a warm reception here.

PREPARE!

For the 4th Liberty Loan

by buying your fall and winter supply of anything you wear from Shatz Bros.

STORE

Where You Pay Cash and Pay Less.

REMEMBER, We Carry Everything You Wear.

Mrs. Abe Jolley, Mrs. C. B. Roach and Mrs. L. C. Browder, of Fulton, were in the city Monday attending the Liberty Loan meeting.

Mrs. Martha Burns, who has been visiting the home of her brother, J. C. Burdick, in Union City, left yesterday returning to her home in Davenport, Iowa.

The Howell Grain & Feed Co. have opened a retail department to their business in the old Adams stand in the Kroger block on Main street. W. D. Williams will have charge and will be prepared to supply the retail trade with all kinds of feedstuff.

Messrs. I. W. and S. M. Stone went to Goodlettsville, Tenn., to attend the burial of an aunt, aged 92 years April 18, 1918. The funeral was held last Sunday morning, in the presence of a large crowd, where the deceased had lived many years, loved and honored as one of the good women of that community.

We have just received 4 cases of dark ginghams, which we are selling at 25c per yard. We also have yard-wide domestic at 20c per yard at Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store. Buy Liberty Bonds.

Mrs. Bessie Scates Curlin and family, formerly of Hickman, have arranged to locate in Union City. Mrs. Curlin is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Scates and exceptionally popular here, as she was also with the people of Hickman. The friends and neighbors will be delighted indeed to know that she is to be with us again.

The Red Cross rooms will be open again next week in the Elks Home and all those who have autos are asked to kindly take the ladies to their work downtown on all occasions when practicable. The ladies have asked us to remind the men and boys who drive cars that they should not forget this duty. If you see a lady doing Red Cross work offer her your car or a seat in the car to get to the rooms for work. This is a small favor but it should not be overlooked.

You will find your union suits and all kinds of underwear at Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store. We have 25 dozen of men's union suits at $1.25; that is last year's price, so come to Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store and lay in a supply. Buy Liberty Bonds.

W. E. Hudgins, this city, who received a call some weeks ago for the Y-overseas service, has been expecting to receive orders to report for duty, but was this week notified that no man of any class under thirty-seven years of age on Sept. 12, 1918, will be accepted for service in the Y. M. C. A. branch unless disqualified for military duty by obvious physical defects. Mr. Hudgins cannot meet the requirements and hence wishes to announce for the benefit of his friends and clients that he will remain in Union City for the present at his law office for business. A notice that he was to be in Y service on the last page of the paper is therefore recalled. Mr. Hudgins will therefore take care of his practice here until further notice.

Ladies' coats and coat suits at cut prices. You will find our coats and suits of the best styles and cheaper in price but high in quality, so don't fail to come and look them over at Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store. Buy Liberty Bonds.

Shoppers and visitors this week are: Mrs. F. T. Hays, Mr. Reuben Clark, Kenton; Mrs. Henry Roberts and daughter, Miss Annie Lee, Tfo; J. E. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wirt, Mrs. Joe Hurt, Mrs. Ollie Crane and Miss Willie Raines, Elder and Mrs. S. Lovitt and Mr. Charley Edwards, Mason Hall; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thompson and children, Miss Ada Dozier, Mr. H. Headen, Trimble; Mrs. J. T. Smith, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Maiden, Greenfield; Mrs. Bettie Thompson, Jackson; Mrs. John Board, Mrs. Clyde Higgs, Miss Mary Hawkins, Mrs. Chas. Graham, Obion; Mrs. Robt. Moss, Mrs. A. Burchard, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ryan, Martin; Mrs. W. J. Caldwell, Mrs. T. A. Cummings, Rives; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. and Mr. and Mrs. Arch McMurry and Mrs. McMurry, Mount Zion; Mrs. Fannie Montgomery and Mrs. Price, Hickman; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jones, Mrs. N. D. Logan and Mrs. Porter Glidewell, Woodland Mills.

Men's Misfit Tailored Clothing.

We have a shipment of misfit clothing for men of the all-wool kind at the old price, so come and get your suit, at Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store, where you can save more. Buy Liberty Bonds.

W. W. Moody is in Nashville as a visitor.

Mr. Clark Houser went to Memphis to attend the Tri-State Fair.

Mrs. E. M. Long and children were in Obion this week visiting the home of Dr. Sharp.

Miss Blanche Roberts, late of Fulton, is here this week visiting homefolks and friends.

Mrs. Sam Hopper has returned home after a few weeks stay in Nashville with her husband.

Mr. Dixie Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Williams, now stationed in military camp, Camp Sherrod, Montgomery, Ala., is here this week on a furlough visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Conrad Dahnke and Mr. Conrad Wuench went to Troy, Ill., last week to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Wuench, whose death occurred on Saturday, Sept. 21. Friends here tender kindest sympathy to Mrs. Dahnke and Mr. Wuench.

Notice.

Parties are at Liberty to use their cars on Sunday, Sept. 29 only to attend a Liberty Loan meeting, provided their cars are so marked. After that no one but a Liberty Loan worker, and he only with the consent of the county chairman. This does not apply to people living in a town where the Liberty Loan meeting is held. H. O. HEAD, JR., County Chairman.

Ladies' Hats at Cut Prices.

Phil Hyman's millinery department is complete, with a big line of ladies' hats of all descriptions, so come and get your hat at Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store, where you can save. Buy Liberty Bonds.

Volunteers Will—Others Must.

Mrs. R. M. Whipple, chairman, asks us to state that the ladies will have the booths open on the streets all day Saturday. It is Volunteer Day, and the good ladies are arranging every convenience for the people to procure bonds. Buy bonds and buy the first day. Don't wait for the salesman to call. It's your duty and you know it. Stop at the booth and leave your order. We want to buy them. We must buy them. Let's do it the first day—Volunteer Day.