FAMOUS BAND AND GRAND OPERA STAR

Musical Pageant "War, Victory, and Peace" On 1919 Chautauqua.

Kryl and his famous band, a musical pageant entitled "War, Victory and Peace," a grand opera star, a debate on government ownership—these are but a few of the attractions of the 1919 Redpath Chautauqua scheduled to appear here. The entire seven days' program is replete with features of compelling interest and timeliness.

"The League of Nations," "The Freedom of the Seas," and other down-to-the-minute topics, each finds a place in the discussions of the week, thus keeping up the reputation of the Chautauqua as a powerful factor for enlightenment on public problems.

The Orchestral Sextette will be the attraction on the first afternoon. While the ensemble work of the Sextette is a delightful part of the program the work of the artist as solos, duets, trios and quartets is equally notable.

"Getting Together" will be the title of the lecture on the opening night by Miss Ada Ward, dynamic, eloquent English-woman, who arrived in America from France and Germany with a wonderful story of present-day conditions in Europe, just in time to begin her Chautauqua tour. Incidentally Miss Ward will tell some of her experiences entertaining the "Tommys" at the front.

An eloquent plea for friendship between America and France and a study of world problems is presented at night on the second day by Capt. Perigord of the French Army. Capt. Perigord is one of the 1500 survivors of the 6,000 French heroes who made the last stand at Verdun. He was several times wounded and five times decorated for gallantry.

In the afternoon of the second day Marie Rose Laufer, young French-woman, who was captured by the Germans in Belgium, escaped, was recaptured and finally released, will speak on "The Spirit of the Women of France."

Both afternoon and night of the second day the Harvesters, a company of three, presenting costumed sketches, will give a thirty minute prelude. Their programs comprise a pleasing variety of classical and popular vocal and instrumental music and readings.

The Culp String Quartet, which will be heard on the third day, has established itself as an important factor in the musical life of the Middle West. The organization is noted for that spontaneity and freedom of interpretation which the distinguishing feature of chamber music at its best.

Mme. Augusta Lenska, prima donna contralto, will appear with the Culp Quartet at night in the third day. She has scored notable success in New York, Chicago and European musical centers and is not only a highly esteemed grand opera singer but has received highest praise as a concert and oratorio singer.

A debate by noted men on "Government Ownership of Railroads" will be a feature of the fourth day program. This is a subject concerning which every American should be informed and the Redpath management has selected as debaters men who possess comprehensive expert information in the question and are also masters of forensic oratory. The debate will take place at night and in the afternoon. Charles Zeublin, who will take the affirmative side on "The Great Highway," touching on the freedom of the seas and other vital themes. Mr. Zeublin has spent his life studying national and international problems.

Twice before Bohumir Kryl has made a tour with his band of the big seven day Redpath Chautauqua circuit. Both tours were so wonderfully successful that ever since there have been repeated requests for Mr. Kryl and his band again to go over the circuit. This year the Redpath is happy to announce the engagement of Mr. Kryl and his band. Inasmuch as so many Chautauqua patrons know the high quality of music to be expected from the Kryl Band there is no question but what band day, the fifth day of the Chautauqua, will be one of the big days of the entire week.

The musical pageant "War, Victory and Peace" will be a feature of the night program given by Kryl and his band. The strife and stress of war, the advent of victory and the joys of peace are all set forth in a sketch made notable by a rare combination of music and costuming. Uncle Sam and the allies, Columbia, the soldiers, sailors and marines all have their appropriate place on the program. "War, Victory and Peace" was produced by Sandor Radanovite and Bohumir Kryl working in conjunction. Mr. Kryl will personally direct the pageant.

"The League of Nations" is discussed in a great lecture by R. E. P. Kline on the sixth afternoon. "The New Competition" is the title of the address and the law of the high cost of hate and the profitableness of just dealing is vividly portrayed. The relations between labor and capital are also comprehensively discussed.

Pure entertainment features have their rightful place on the program. Among the entertainers is Noah Bell-
