

It is a worry and a waste of time, which means a waste of money, not to have always on hand a kit of first grade tools. The steel in our tools is properly tempered—not so soft that it loses its edge. Not so brittle that it nicks. We shave the price down low on our tools and everything we sell. Come in.

More men have been added to our force, and more will have to be added yet. Miscellaneous Shower.

Miss Minnie Beck entertained at her home on Ury street last Thursday afternoon by a shower for one of Union City's most popular brides-to-be, Miss Ruth Griffin.

The receiving rooms were effectively decorated with cut flowers in yellow and white. The program was started by Miss Louise Harris singing "Absent." Mrs. J. D. Carlton then sang, "Just a-Wearyin' for You." Miss Beulah Allen acted as accompanist for both. Miss Elizabeth Scates then favored the guests with readings. The guests then tried to convey their thoughts to the absent honoree by means of tiny letters to be sent with the gifts. The favors, in which the color scheme was evident, were cunningly arranged booklets depicting "The Romance of Ruth."

The many lovely gifts were then opened by the honoree's sister, Mrs. Ella Howse, after which a delicious salad course was served. The only thing to mar the pleasure of the hosts of friends present was the absence of Miss Griffin. Miss Beck was assisted in entertaining by her sisters, Mrs. Walker Tanner and Miss Bess Beck.

Mrs. Phebus Complimented.

On Tuesday of last week, Miss Martha McAllister was hostess at her beautiful suburban home to one of the most delightful affairs of the season when she gave a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Leonard Phebus, nee Miss Esther Moore, one of the best loved young matrons of the younger set.

On entering, the guests were served delicious frappe by Miss Edna Lois McAllister. They then gave Mrs. Phebus much interesting advice in the form of a hand-painted book of "Dos and Don'ts for the Bride."

The crowning event of the afternoon was when little Master McCord entered in a huge pink and white auto laden with gifts for the honoree, the number and quality of which attested her popularity.

The serving of a delicious ice course with tiny corsages of sweet peas as favors concluded the afternoon's entertainment.

Matinee Music Club.

An interesting meeting of the club with Mrs. J. D. Carlton was a Wednesday afternoon feature. It being the close of the active club season the meeting was largely of a social nature, however, suggestions for the coming season's work were in lift being the harmonious note emphasized in the general discussion. A splendidly arranged outline of the Course of Study for the year was presented by the Chairman of the Program Committee, Mrs. Thad Lee, and received the enthusiastic approval of the club-body. This outline, together with the entire club calendar of musical activities of the organization will be published at a later date.

The musical program given at the close of the social hour was composed of skillfully rendered numbers—dainty, gossamer-like in character and tunefully suggestive of the dancing sunbeams and wandering breezes of summer:

Piano—"Valse Arabesque" (Lack), Mrs. Cunninghamham.

Voice—"If Happy Fortune"—Faust (Gounod), Mrs. Lee.

Piano—"Sunbeams" (Lieurance), Mrs. Long.

Voice—"Are you from Heaven" (Friedland), Miss Marshall.

Piano—"Valse" (Chopin), Miss Woodrow.

Voice—"Mavis" (Clayton), Miss Quinn.

Piano—"Chimney Swallows" (Bond), Miss Clemmons.

A pleasing conclusion to the meeting was an ice course served by the hostess, Mrs. Carlton.

Popular Tulsa Girl Marries.

Dan Cupid added to his fast increasing roll Friday afternoon when he journeyed to Sapulpa and united in marriage Miss Joe Miller, 1435 East Second, and Jack Sowell, of Union City, Tenn. The young couple were married by Rev. H. M. Woods. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scargill, of this city, acted as the witnesses to the occasion. The "newlyweds" will be at home to their friends at 1435 East Second.—Tulsa (Okla.) World.
