Winn-Palmer.

In a very imposing ceremony by Bishop Winchester, in the Episcopal Church of Little Rock, Ark., the 17th Inst., 5:30 p. m., Miss Frances Clare Winn, accomplished and beautiful daughter of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Walter E. Winn, 301 North Palm street, Pulaski Heights, became the bride of Ensign K. W. Palmer, U. S. N., son of Dr. and Mrs. T. P. Palmer, of Rives, now commissioned to the destroyer Hatfield, with headquarters New York City.

The bride, charmingly gowned in travelling costume of brown duvyn, carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, was given away by her father, with her sister, Miss Elizabeth Winn, an attendant of honor, while Mr. Carroll Short, of Little Rock, was best man to the groom. Miss Winn wore pink chapeau and carried sunburst roses.

After the wedding quite a few guests were entertained in the bride's home at Pulaski Heights. The wedding gift of Bishop Winchester, a marriage register, was signed by those present. The huge wedding cake was cut and while being generally discussed Ensign Palmer and bride effected an escape by the rear door to take the 7:30 train for St. Louis. However, their motor gave them away, and a number of the guests rushed out in time to bid them goodbye. Later, after partaking of salad and ice courses, they followed to the depot in time to throw the usual amount of rice and confetti.

Friday evening the bride and groom arrived in Rives, were met by a bevy of young people and escorted to the parental roof of Ensign Palmer.

Ensign Palmer and wife left over the I. C. Sabbath morning for New York City. The bride and groom were very splendidly remembered with various gifts of beauty and usefulness.

Kentuckians Wed.

Two promising young men of Kevlis, Ky., and two beautiful young women of LaCenter, Ky., came to Union City Wednesday and were united in marriage in the County Judge's office, Rev. W. B. Cunningham, of the C. P. Church, officiating. They were Mr. Albert Davis and Miss Eunice Moss, Mr. Freeman Norman and Miss Annie Gee.
