Man, Woman, Marriage, an Allen Holubar production.—I honestly believe I had more favorable comments on Man, Woman, Marriage than I ever received on any picture. My mistake was I should have run it two days. I packed the house both matinee and night and it pleased 100 per cent. The name will draw and the picture pleased. Book it and clean up.—W. E. Elkin, Temple Theatre,

Notice.

Do you know that you pay more for your electric current when you buy CHEAP light globes. A word to the wise is sufficient.
AVERITT ELECTRIC.

Birthday Dinner.

Mrs. J. W. Latta and Mrs. Chas.
Everett surprised Mrs. M. P. Godwin at the home of the latter in Union City on Jan. 29 with a birthday dinner, the 84th anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Godwin. The occasion was greatly enjoyed by all present.
A beautiful luncheon was served and those who were prevented from being present by illness were remembered with portions of the feast. After spending a pleasant day all left wishing Mrs. Godwin many happy birthdays to come.

with Mrs. T. C. Callicott, has safely reached her destination, San Diego, California.

We have had unusual in weather to have the exit of January like a lamb and February's entrance on same status.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Caldwell, Mrs.
T. J. Bonner and Mrs. McAdoo Harris attended the Robt. E. Lee program over in the county seat.

Mrs. Johnny Ellis, social visitor the past three weeks from Nashville with Mrs. Jas. Scoggins, is en route home thru Princeton, Ky., to visit kinspeople.

and Mrs. Frank Vaden were over near Clayton the first of the week for the obsequies of Mrs. Andrew Wheeler, daughter of T. J. Vaden. Nine years, more or less, have passed since Mrs. Wheeler left here the bride of Mr. Wheeler. Friends here deeply regret the passing away of so lovable a character.

PLEASANT HILL.

This month has started with a rain; wonder how it will end?
