Concerning Price Reductions.

Retailers are frequently charged with not reducing prices as fast as they should.

This, we believe, is not in accord with the facts. Competition compels the retailer to keep his prices as low as possible, otherwise he loses business. True, some prices are still high, but manufacturers in many lines say they have not been able to effect reductions in the cost of production. In our own case, we have reduced prices just as fast as manufacturers' prices are reduced, regardless of the cost of stock on hand. As a result, most lines are priced quite a little under last year's figures. The following comparison between peak prices and today's on 20 articles of hardware shows a decided decline.

	Peak Price	Now	Peak Price	Now
1 Keg 8-penny Nails	$ 7.50	$ 4.50	Smooth Darling Range	$85.00 $67.50
30x3 Federal Auto Casings	14.05	9.63	1 set White Cups and Saucers	1.50 .75
1 Gal. Mastic Paint	5.00	3.25	1 set Gold Band Cups and Saucers	1.75 1.00
100 lbs. Grass Rope	35.00	25.00	1 gallon Turpentine	3.00 1.50
No. 3 heavy Galv. Tub	1.85	1.00	1 gallon Pure Linseed Oil	3.00 1.15
12 qt. heavy Galv. Bucket	.60	.35	5-bar heavy Brass Wash Board	1.35 .85
1 Sq. heavy Galv. Roofing	11.00	6.50	Keen Kutter Hatchet	2.00 1.50
1 Rod 9 wire Field Fence	.80	.64	24x36 Window Glass	3.00 2.00
1 Rod 10 wire Field Fence	.90	.72	8-inch Black Diamond File	.30 .25
1 Rod 38-in. heavy Garden Fence	1.00	.75
4-burner Perfection Oil Cook Stove	32.50	26.50
				$211.10 $155.34

You see $155.34 will now buy as many goods as $211.10 would buy six months ago. A decline of $55.76, and yet we are told almost daily that retail prices have not declined.

We are doing our part to get conditions back to normal, selling dependable goods at the lowest possible prices—prices always as low, and in many instances lower than any catalog prices. COMMERCIALIZE PATRIOTISM

Memphis, Tenn.—In a signed communication to the Memphis Press former Governor M. B. Patterson, candidate for the Democratic Senatorial nomination, expresses his opposition to the soldiers' bonus bill. In his communication he gave two reasons why he should be supported for the nomination, as follows: "First—I am the only candidate from Memphis or elsewhere, so far as I know, who opposes the soldier bonus bill. My position—often expressed—is that every soldier who was wounded, whose health was impaired, or who was in any way incapacitated in any branch of the service, whether overseas or in this country, should be liberally and generously aided by the government, and that no soldier is entitled to a bonus who came out of the war sound mentally and physically. "Aside from the tremendous burden of taxation which such a bonus would impose upon an already over-taxed people, it is wrong in principle, being the first attempt in all American history to commercialize patriotism. There are thousands of ex-soldiers—men who regard a bonus as a reflection upon their ideals and sacrifices, which should not and cannot be measured in dollars, and there are thousands more who, when they think seriously of the proposal, will understand that in peace and war the debt is first of all to the country's welfare. "Second—I shall direct my appeal to both men and women solely on their intelligence as American citizens. I have requested no one to sign petitions on my behalf, and I want to leave the decision of the voters absolutely unhampered by pledges of any sort. This course is the only fair one to the voters, and the only one I care to pursue in seeking a great and definite office.

RAT BITE IS CAUSE OF

Beneath the hot midsummer sun
 The men had marched all day,
 And now beside a rippling stream
 Upon the grass they lay.
 Tired of games and idle jest
 As swept the hours along,
 They cried to one who mused apart,
 "Come, friend, give us a song."
 "I fear I cannot please," he said;
 "The only songs I know
 Are those my mother used to sing
 For me long years ago."
 "Sing one of those," a rough voice
 cried,
 "There's none but trueness here;
 To every mother's son of us
 A mother's songs are dear."
 Then rose the singer's voice
 Amid unwonted calm;
 "Am I a soldier of the Cross,
 A follower of the Lamb?
 And shall I fear to own His cause?"
 The very stream was stilled,
 And hearts that never throbb'd with fear,
 With tender thoughts were filled.
 Ended the song, the singer said,
 As to his feet he rose,
 "Thanks to you all, my friends; good
 night,
 God grant us sweet repose."
 "Sing us one more," the captain begged.
 The soldier bent his head,
 Then glancing round, with smiling
 lips,
 "You'll join with me," he said.
 "We'll sing that old familiar air,
 Sweet as the bugle call,
 'All hail the power of Jesus' name!'
 'Let angels prostrate fall.'
 Ah, wondrous was the old tune's spell,
 As on the soldiers sang;
 Man after man fell into line,
 And loud the voices rang.

The songs are done, the camp is still,
 Naught but the stream is heard;
 But ah! the depths of every soul
 By those old hymns are stirred.
 And up from many a bearded lip
 In whispers soft and low,
 Rises the prayer that mother taught
 Her boy long ago.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the Mucous Surfaces. ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE. All Druggists & Co. Circulars free. P. J. Chesney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

THE MAN WHO LOOKS VIGOROUS

Good Red Blood Is the Only Sure Foundation of Permanent Health and Vigor.

Good color, bright eyes, solid flesh erect bearing are dependent upon rich red blood. If your blood is not up to the mark your general health can not be. Gude's Pepto-Mangan taken regularly for a while gives the blood that richness and redness that produces bounding health and vigor. It is a simple, natural way to get well and strong.
