"The Little Clodhopper."

Have you heard of "The Little Clodhopper," who will make her appearance at Dixie High School Saturday night, March 18. Should it be raining then, she will come the following Monday night.

"The Little Clodhopper" is a play full of bright comedy and laughable situations. Judy, the little clodhopper from the poorhouse, who finds happiness at last after many trials and troubles, is a great part, played by Miss Sadie Stovall.

Septimus Agent, a dashing, talkative young book agent, who disguises in the third act as an old ranchman, is acted by Robert Caudle. The country boob, Okey Gump, always hungry but able to make love to the girls, especially Juliette, furnishes plenty of side-splitting fun. Okey in real life is Mr. Chas. Cloar. George Chigger-son, played by Heron Myers, is a typical city dude, who knows how to knit but doesn't like to have girls kiss him. It is well worth the entire price of the play to see the comedy old maid played by Mrs. Otis Green.

Mrs. W. B. Forrester as the scheming society woman and Miss Opal Clark as a young moving picture actress, assist in making a full evening of solid fun relieved with touches of pathos and dramatic act-endings.

The public is most cordially invited to see this play. The characters have worked hard to get it up and want you to see it. COME.

Death of Colored Man.

Arn King, one of the old and respected colored citizens, died Monday morning. He was about 75 years old and was employed by the N., C. & St. L. Ry., for 53 years. He was retired and given the long-service pension about one year ago.

Marriage Licenses.

Menzen M. Albright and Mattie Lou Puckett.

Tom Orear and Ollie Couch. Harrel Baker and Mabel Murray. Vernon F. Bugg and Martha Cissell.

Smith Heathcock and Pauline Robertson.

Herbert A. Yates and Mary Austin.

Raymond Owen and Nell Brown. COLORED.

Sidney Howard and Lorina Clay. Houston Lillard and Addie Peoples.

Will Crews and Ella Landrum. Tom Lovejoy and Dessie Johnson. Helnia Hughes and Irene Love.

Service Station.

T. R. Reynolds is having a service station erected on his corner in front of the shop on First and Main streets. Mr. Reynolds will have a fine location and no doubt will have a liberal share of the public patronage. Good man.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends, neighbors and the nurse for the many kind deeds shown us during the sickness and death of our loved one. Also we thank the Post Office boys of Union City and the Masonic Lodge at Hickman especially for the beautiful flowers they sent.—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilson and Family.
