PAINT PAINT

TAGG'S PAINT

Paint is the outside clothing of the home. If you wish your home to appear well, give it good clothes, and remember that the best clothes wear longest.

Tagg's Paint lasts and its quality never changes. It is always the best that money can buy. It is doubly guaranteed to you by the maker and by the exclusive distributor.

DON'T buy paint containing Calcium Carbonate, Silica, Silicates and water. They are only fillers that reduce the quality of paint. When looking for 100 per cent pure paint compare formulas. You will find Tagg's Paint strictly pure Lead, Zinc and Oil, the same that you get when you mix keg White Lead.

SENIOR SOCIAL ACTIVITIES.

Junior Party.

The Junior class entertained the Seniors Friday evening, May 12, with a lawn party at the home of Miss Elizabeth Bransford on South Third street. Games were enjoyed throughout the evening and at a late hour delightful refreshments, carrying out the class colors, were served. On leaving everyone declared the Juniors to be very charming and entertaining hosts.

Senior-Junior Reception.

The annual reception for the Juniors and faculty was given by the Senior class Saturday evening, May 13, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Blanton. The reception hall was decorated in lavender and white flowers as was the dining room where refreshments in the class colors were served. The very stately and dignified air of the Seniors aided in making this one of the most striking affairs of the closing school year.

Dancing Party.

Mr. Levi White Jordan entertained with an informal porch dance Monday evening after the class night exercises.

Gypsy Tea.

In striking contrast to the very formal Senior reception and parties was the gypsy tea given at the country home of Miss Gay Cloar Tuesday evening. After an enthusiastic game of tag and a chase over the woods-lot, in which all the dignified Seniors forgot the cares and worries that usually go with exams, graduation, etc., a delicious lunch and ice cream cones were served. At a late hour the Seniors departed, each one declaring that the evening had been a very delightful one.

Tea.

Betsy Spradlin entertained the faculty and Senior class Wednesday afternoon with a five-o'clock tea. The class colors were carried out in the decorations and refreshments. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her mother and Miss Mary Jenks.

Picture Show Party.

Wednesday evening the class was entertained with a picture show party at Jimmie's Playhouse by Mr. Lyle Boyd. After the show the class was invited to an ice cream party in the balcony at Cobb's Corner by the Oliver-Cobb Drug Co.

Ice Cream Party.

On Thursday evening after the graduation exercises the class was honored by the Clagett Co. and Jimmie's.

The class wishes to express their enjoyment and appreciation of the attention shown them by these firms.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Penick Complimented.

Mrs. Nettie Penick was hostess to guests at 19 tables of Bridge Thursday afternoon at the Elks Club rooms to compliment Mrs. Daniel Easley Penick, of Chicago, who is her house-guest.

The rooms were lovely with a profusion of cut and potted plants.

At the conclusion of the games Miss Clare Parks was winner of high score, a Japanese bag; Mrs. John Waddell won as second prize a lovely pair of pillow cases; as third in score Mrs. John D. Killion received a hand made card table cover; Mrs. Aubrey Whipple cut consolation.

Mrs. Penick presented the honoree with a lovely hand made vanity set. The score keepers, Mesdames Thad Lee, Clifford Jones, W. W. Heathcock and Ben Dietzel, were the recipients of lovely powder puffs. Individual angel food cakes and brick cream with salted nuts comprised the delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Jim' Arnn left last week for Paducah, Ky., after a visit here with her sister, Mrs. Nettie Penick.

Mrs. Goode has returned to her home in Trenton after a visit here with her aunt, Mrs. Nettie Penick.

Mrs. Cecil Moss spent Friday and Saturday in Paducah.

Wednesday Night Club.

Mrs. Fletcher Tate was hostess to the Wednesday night Bridge Club last Wednesday. Mrs. Marvin Blanton won as high score a lovely silver vanity case, and Mr. Arthur Tittsworth won gentlemen's prize, a pair of silk Sox. Mrs. Clarence Beck cut consolation.

Mrs. Tate graciously presented Mrs. D. E. Penick, of Chicago, a pair of lingerie pins.

A most delectable salad course was served.

Miss Allen's Recital.

Bess Beulah Allen presented her pupils last Friday at the Methodist Church for class recital. Only a limited number were included, the younger pupils, fourteen and under, taking part. This is mentioned in order to explain the absence of the older pupils.

Miss Allen's classes and music are always interesting. She is a woman of fine musical tastes and accomplishments and her pupils are fortunate in the opportunity they enjoy under her training. Miss Allen's work in Union City, in church and class, is one of progress in music. She is known as a church organist of rare ability, having charge of the organ and directing the music of the Methodist Church in Union City. The recital was enjoyed by the patrons and friends of the class.

Special Attraction.

The American Legion takes pleasure in presenting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Householder of Jackson, Tenn., in a special program at Reynolds Theatre next Tuesday night, May 30. Mr. Householder is in charge of the Veterans Bureau at Jackson. He and his wife are both accomplished as entertainers and the people here are promised a rare treat. The program on the occasion will be the following as near as possible:

Solo: (a) Spring's a Lovable Lady (Elliott).

(b) The Prayer Perfect (Riley).

Reading: (a) The Bear Story (Riley).

(b) The Coons Lullaby.

Solo: (a) Melisande in the Wood (Goetz).

Reading (a) Romeo and Juliet.—

Act II, Scene 4 and 5.

(b) Modern Romance.

Solo: Danny Boy (Weatherby).

Rose in the Bud (Foster).

Today's Call, address by Capt. Householder.

Mrs. Householder, soprano and reader.

Mrs. Brown, accompanist.

Fishing Party.

A fishing party composed of Supt. Ranck, Dr. Niles, Edward Ranck, Profs. Thomas, Sheeley and Cox, left early Saturday morning for a day's fishing on Reelfoot Lake. The day was warm and clear, in fact, it was rather hot on the lake, especially if one had to row any distance and the water was calm, but the fish would not bite. Those in the party could not give any reason for it but the old fishermen around the lake said the water was too cold. In the afternoon they fished in Indian Creek and had a little more luck but not enough to justify the trip had fishing been the only object, but the principal object was recreation and a day's outing and all can report a pleasant time. They'll go after the fish when it gets warmer.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Futrell, of Memphis, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Woodfin.

Misses Ru'h and Marie Brown, of St. Louis, were visitors of Mary Louise Woodfin last week.

Mr. Larry Jordan has accepted a position as assistant bookkeeper at the Farmers Exchange Bank.

Mrs. Hugh Luck, of Memphis, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Woodfin.

Dr. Sam Cory, of Cairo, is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. W. A. Nailling, who has been very ill.

—666 cures Bilious Fever.

Mr. Eugene Woodfin, of Memphis, who was visiting his father, Mr. W. M. Woodfin, has returned home.

Dr. T. N. Sullivan, of Memphis, was here this week as a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Oliver.

H. M. Finley, of Humboldt, was in town Tuesday and sold Mrs. J. C. Davis a handsome granite monument.

Hons. W. W. Craig and Flins J. Garrett, candidates for Congress, were here Monday mingling with the people.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ledbetter, after a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Woodfin, have returned to their home in Memphis.

Judge P. W. Maddox came over Tuesday from Huntingdon and presided at a meeting of the creditors of the Dahnke-Walker Milling Co., bankrupt. Trustee Stanfield submitted a report of the creditors who have been working on the books of said company for some weeks, which indicates the creditors owe the government nothing, but that too much tax has been paid and Hon. F. P. Bond, of Nashville, thinks the creditors have a good healthy refund due them.
