

CHANCERY COURT.

Judge Holmes Is Now in Midst of Busy Term.

Judge H. P. Holmes opened the October term of Obion County Chancery Court in this city last Monday morning. Geo. A. Gibbs, Clerk and Master, N. F. Marshall, D. C. & M., and Sheriff Watt Cherry were at their posts. The Judge, as usual in Chancery Courts, transacts an immense amount of business in a remarkably short time. Something like fifty suits had been disposed of yesterday noon. Various decrees for dismissals, continuances, judgments, and various orders had been entered upon the docket.

An unusual proceeding in Chancery, a jury trial, was being heard when The Commercial went to press yesterday noon.

The term will probably last through the present week.

THE CITY BOARD.

Mayor and Aldermen Hold Short Session.

Tuesday evening was the regular time of meeting for the City Board. The work was mostly confined to hearing reports from important committees and routine business.

The best item recorded and the one receiving the most attention just now was the report that gravel for street work had commenced to arrive, after a six weeks lull on account of the strikes. A few cars came in yesterday and men are now at work applying the finishing touches to First street at the extreme northern end. Adjourned early to attend revival.

Assistant Cashier Elected.

At a special meeting of the directors of the Farmers Exchange Bank held Tuesday, Mr. W. V. Hollomon was elected assistant cashier in place of Mr. Edwards Parks, resigned. Mr. Hollomon was associated with the bank before making a trip to California. He is a very capable man and the officials of the bank are pleased to have him return.

Mr. Parks' services at the bank were very satisfactory indeed and the officers expressed regret when the resignation was presented. He will devote his entire time to private business and business interests of his father, Mr. L. S. Park.

Endorse Public Health Nurse.

We, the Parent-Teachers Association of Central Public School, submit the following resolutions:

- 1. We realize the importance and broad field of the work of the Public Health Nurse.
- 2. We wish to pledge our support and co-operation to Miss Brown in the work that she has so ably undertaken.
- 3. That a copy of these resolutions be sent Miss Brown and one to each of the local papers, also that a copy be recorded in the minutes of the association.

MISS MINNIE LEE BEELER.
MRS. HUNT ROPER.
MRS. JNO. A. WADDELL.

Quiet Marriage.

At the Christian Church parsonage last Sunday evening Miss Delsia Lipscomb and Mr. Arthur J. Walden were married, Rev. Baker saying the ceremony pronouncing them husband and wife. The contracting parties lived in Union City years ago and for the past few years have been residents of Blytheville, Ark., where Mr. Walden was connected with a picture show as operator. They are receiving congratulations of old-time friends.

C. E. LIVE WIRE SHOCKS.

Rev. Baker held the Expert Endeavor examination Tuesday night, September 26, at the Church. All who took this examination passed and all grades were above 90. These were the students who completed the course with this examination and are now C. E. Experts. Nellie Barlow, Imogene Jones, Leo Park, Erwin Matchette and "Shorty." Another examination will be held for those who failed to take this one.

Miss Imogene Jones, the President of the Society, appointed Miss Leo Park, as Corresponding Secretary, to take the place of Miss Thelma Nolen, who is now in Milligan College. Miss Park is in Chicago now for a few weeks' visit.

We had an awfully fine meeting last Sunday evening, under the leadership of Miss Gladys Jones, assisted by Mrs. Ellis Taylor. The subject for discussion was "Work." What we need in Union City is more "CHRISTIAN WORK."

You have a chance to do Christian Work now, in the Union Revival at the C. P. Church every day, at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. We feel that you will be well repaid for the time spent in any of these meetings. Dr. Hill is a fine speaker who will delight you with his sermons. Mr. and Mrs. Scott, in their singing, cause you to want to attend every service to hear them. Your part in this revival cannot be filled by anyone else, and if you are not there, there will be a vacant place. BETHERE. BOOST IT. TALK IT.

Remember young people, there is a special prayer circle for YOUNG PEOPLE of this town, every night before the meeting, in the class room at the rear of the C. P. Church. Please attend all of these services; they will benefit you and the meeting and you will feel better after taking part in them.

The State C. E. Convention begins October 12, in Knoxville. Will you be there?

Cotton Continues to Come.

Seven cents is the price being paid for seed cotton by the Union City Gin Co., and eighty to one hundred thousand pounds of the fleecy staple rolls in every day. The manager, Mr. Siler, is pleased with the business and the farmers are pleased with Mr. Siler's prices.

Hudson Reduces Prices.

Messrs. Forrester and Darnell, local dealers, announce heavy reductions in the prices of Hudson and Essex cars. One of the very prettiest of the high grade lines. Speed? Well, I should say so. That Hudson super-six "sho do git away from here." Read the ad in this issue.

NUMBER SEVEN.

Several from this community were in Union City first Monday.

Mr. S. F. Howard has returned from a few days' stay in Jackson, Tenn.

Mrs. Will Halley, who has been ill for several weeks, died at her home in Number Seven Friday night. Funeral services were conducted at Cane Creek, Mr. White, undertaker, in charge. Interment at Cane Creek. A husband and four children survive.

Mrs. Braden, of Kenton, was a Sunday visitor with her daughter, Mrs. Leonard Stovall.

Entertaining? Yes. Where? Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bowers'. Who? A nice young girl. Arrived when? Last Sunday night. Her name? Mary Lucetta Bowers.

Several around here attended the singing convention at New Home Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Bob Jackson, of St. Louis, was here Saturday for the burial of his sister, Mrs. Will Halley.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hall and son, Brody, were Sunday visitors in Fulton with their daughter, Mrs. Stubblefield.

Several of the young people around here enjoyed an opossum hunt Tuesday night.

The Union City Campaign.

I shall not soon forget my very happy eight days assisting the popular new pastor, Brother D. F. Marlin, at Union City. The congregations overtaxed the house many times, and I believe one result of the meeting will be laying the plans for a new building which will likely be built in the center of the town, and will be kept open every day. 24 were received into the fellowship of the church. I have never preached to more appreciative people, and I feel I am stronger and a better man because of the eight days at Union City. We were greatly pleased on Friday night at the coming of 50 members of Central Baptist Church of Martin. They were given a very cordial welcome, and the Union City saints decided there and then to have a big delegation some night at the Martin meeting which commences October 15th.

The singing at Union City was unusually good under the efficient leadership of Dr. J. D. Carlton and his estimable wife, who is an accomplished pianist.

The prospects there strikes me as being very bright, as they seem willing to give the right sort of co-operation to their spiritual and enthusiastic pastor. One of the most pleasant experiences there was speaking to about 800 pupils in four different public schools.—Ben Cox in Weekly County Press.

In Memory of R. T. Maupin.

Mr. Editor: I was requested long ago to write something about this good citizen and great soldier, but I have seen nothing; hence this scribble. I am now in my 84th year, almost blind, and my hand is shaky. About 83 or 84 years ago, God gave to this country, and to this people, R. T. (Bob) Maupin to serve it in its highest and best interest, and after he had proven himself faithful and true, he died. He was a good citizen, he was a good neighbor, he was a good soldier. He was a hero. He was a man. But now he is sleeping in the arms of his mother, and the turf is smooth above him. The rain will moisten its roots and summon back the perishing life of its green blades grass, and the crushed flower will lift its head again, smiling unto heaven. His form is now before me, with no trace of death in its fine lineaments, and there is faint crimson on his faded old face. I can feel the last grip of his hand, and hear his last "Goodbye, Tom," distinctly, like a living, breathing thing, even when I know he is with the dead and the damp earth hides him. I would not think of him otherwise. His image lives within my memory as he seemed before he rested nobly, with weariness and trials of life, smiling on while poison mingled with his springs of life, and wearing a calm brow, while in his heart anguish was resting like a hand of fire, until at last the agony of thought grew unbearable and the sufferer died. Let him rest; let him sleep; and oh, may the clouds lie lightly on him.

Card of Thanks.

In the darkest hours of our life, when it seemed that our hearts were bursting with pain, when it seemed that our little girl had been murdered, then it was that our many friends came to us with their hearts full of love, seeking in every way possible to help us. And if it had not been for those loving hearts, we feel that our burdens would have been unbearable. Friends and loved ones, we cannot in any way find the words to express the love we have for you. We cannot find the words to tell you how much we appreciate the many kind deeds and the beautiful floral offerings. May God bless you all, and when we are called to that Great Beyond, may we all be able to meet our loved ones there.
