

AUCTION SALE OF HIGH CLASS MULES
Saturday, Dec. 2, 1922 at Union City,
Tenn.

Sale begins at one o'clock p.m. at Herman Dietzel's barn. Having heard from quite a number of farmers and stock raisers near Union City who could not attend our sale two weeks ago that they would like to have some good young mules, we have decided to make one more shipment to your county this fall, and this shipment we are selecting with much care and are buying the best young mules that can be purchased in the mule counties of Missouri.

Fourteen of these mules are coming three and four years old and will weigh 1100 pounds, with class and are well broken. There will be twenty head of top weaning mules as good as those of the best mule counties of the United States.

Now don't let rain or cold keep you away, for you will miss something good. Sale will be held regardless of weather.

Do not forget the date.

EDUCATIONAL.

Temperance and Scientific Temperance Instruction Work.

We are glad to announce that Miss Nina Wilson of the Troy High School has consented to serve as county superintendent of this department, and will be glad to co-operate with any public school teacher in this important work.

Rules and subjects for essay contests can be had of National W. C. T. U. Publishing House, Evanston, Ill., at 2 cents each or 50 cents per 100. Appropriate leaflets are same price. Our own State now has a booklet, "Effects of Alcohol and Tobacco on the System," which every teacher should have—costs only ten cents. Order from Mrs. E. D. Collins, Winchester, Tenn.

While the W. C. T. U. takes pride in having been able to assist in a small way perhaps in making the S. T. I. law as well as its companion law Temperance or Frances Willard day effective in the public schools, these both apply to all the people of the State and should be observed by every teacher whether or not there is an organization of the W. C. T. U. near.

Since there were sufficient Frances Willard Day programs furnished the county for every teacher to have on, we trust they reached you on time and that you devoted some part of one day to this subject. Please report to Miss Nina Wilson, Troy, Tenn.

Only ten schools reported last year. Surely you are going beyond that this year. We are counting on you and shall be disappointed if you fail us.

MRS. W. J. CALDWELL,
Pres. County W. C. T. U.

REYNOLDS PACKING CO.
TO ENLARGE PLANT

Double Capacity and Cold Storage Rooms and Facilities.

Preparations are being made by the Reynolds Packing Company to enlarge the packing house plant in the southern borders of Union City.

We are informed that the cold storage rooms will be enlarged to twice the present proportions, with enlarged slaughter and transfer apparatus for the carcasses. There will be larger warehouse rooms and the sausage and meat cutting quarters and facilities will be doubled.

Mr. Reynolds, the president, has reported a very flattering increase in business. A forty-three percent gain in the business for the first ten months is the record this year, all of which speaks well for this splendid enterprise.

A meeting of the stockholders was held yesterday at the plant and visitors were invited to visit the plant in the forenoon.

Union City has a great many fine enterprises and this is one in which we take a great deal of pride.

A continuation of increased business is anticipated.

Lost or Strayed.

Liberal reward and no questions asked for information or return of any AGOGA to the Baptist Sunday school next Sunday.

Great reunion and homecoming! Why not?

Agitate yourselves, all you noble youths. Brandish the quirt; twirl the lasso; stick the AGOGA branding iron to the quivering flank of the prodigal calves and round them all up in the annex corral next Sunday.

RIVES NEWS.

A Thanksgiving program will be given at the chapel hour Wednesday morning. Friends and patrons cordially invited.

The vicinity regrets the loss to Mr. John Coates, a farmer just east of town, of his commodious home Wednesday night of the past week. It burned at two o'clock in the night with a brisk wind that defied saving anything but out-buildings. Only a small amount of contents saved. Partially covered by insurance. Mr. Coates is setting up housekeeping in the Bud Vaughn house known as the Eliza Wallace farm. A very generous shower was tendered by this and adjoining communities.

The Senior High School girls appear Wednesday evening in a unique play, "A Southern Cinderella." Miss Rickman has arrangement of musical numbers between acts. Something splendid, we are told. Program begins at seven o'clock. Don't forget. Popular prices of 15 and 25 cents.

A ten-pound boy is reported in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Manee.

Rev. J. H. Thomas will be here from Dyer Sunday in regular appointment with the C. P. Congregation.

While at church Sunday night the sad news of the sudden death of Mr. Jas. Brown at Mountain Grove, Mo., was received. By marriage Mr. Brown is a son of Mrs. Jane Wade, his wife being Miss Ellie Wade. For a number of years Mr. Brown was so afflicted with rheumatism as to be practically an invalid. His wife and only child, Miss Margaret, form the immediate family. The remains were interred at Mountain Grove.

ROUTE THREE.

Dr. P. W. Prather has returned home, to the delight of his many patients.

Virgil Mosier, of the Mount Manuel vicinity, was a visitor on Route Three Thursday.

Mr. Milton Ferguson is quite sick this week.

Mrs. Mattie Ferguson was right sick the first of this week, though better at this writing.

The ladies of the Woodland Church Aid Society met at Mrs. Edgar Bramham's Tuesday and spent the afternoon in quilting.

School opened Monday at the new consolidated school building at Crystal, with Prof. Frank Caldwell and Miss Thomas as teachers. The opening of this school has been delayed owing to the house not being finished.

Rev. Manzie, of Jackson, filled his appointments at Woodland Church Sunday and Sunday night. He brought his wife along this trip and introduced her to his congregation. From current reports, I think his people are as delighted with their pastor's wife as they are with their pastor.

WOODLAND ITEMS.

Mr. F. B. Preuett, who happened to a very serious accident some time ago, is improving slowly. In trying to catch a loose mule he was thrown to the ground and was very badly hurt, almost breaking the hip joint.

Little Cecil Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Roberts, is very low at this writing with typhoid fever.

Mr. Milton Ferguson is very sick—we didn't learn the malady. Hope he will be better soon.

The poultry men have started their wagons gathering up turkeys for Thanksgiving, the price opening at 30 cents.

Most of the farmers are through sowing wheat and gathering corn. We have had a few mornings that made us think of hog killing as the frost looked like a young snow.

Mr. Brown, of the Gibbs vicinity, is killing hogs today.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ferguson are on the sick list this week.

Mrs. C. F. Fowler had the misfortune to lose her pocket book last Sunday night on the way to church at Woodland. Hope she will find it.

The little baby which Mr. and Mrs. Clnor Ferguson have taken to raise has been very sick for a month but is up again.

Rev. Manley and wife were visitors in the home of Mrs. Rena Preuett last Sunday.

VALENTINO IN SUPERB PICTURE

"The Young Rajah" Affords Star Two Excellent Roles.

One of the strongest stellar vehicles for Rodolph Valentino yet selected is "The Young Rajah," a new Paramount picture in which that popular star will be seen at Jimmie's Playhouse next Monday and Tuesday.

Three other notable features make this picture one of the strongest in which Mr. Valentino has yet appeared, under Paramount auspices. The story is the famous novel, "Amos Judd," by J. A. Mitchell, which proved one of the most successful American works of fiction. It was adapted to the screen by June Mathis, the adapter of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," "Blood and Sand" and other Valentino pictures. The cast is unusually large and includes many prominent and popular players, including Wanda Hawley, Bertram Grassby, Charles Ogle, Pat Moore, George Periolat, Fannie Midgely, George Ford, Edwin Stevens, Robert Ober, Jack Gidding, J. Farrell MacDonald and several others.

STORY IS DRAMATIC.

The story, which is laid in America and India, introduces Amos Judd, first as a young Hindu prince—a child brought to this country for political reasons and placed in the care of Joshua and Sarah Judd, kindly New England farmers, together with an immense fortune. As the child grows up he demonstrates a remarkable gift of foretelling events, and his predictions always come true. As a man, he goes to Harvard and wins signal honors, but incurs the bitter enmity of Bennett, who believes him responsible for the accident which causes the death of Slade, Bennett's friend. Amos and Bennett fall in love with the same girl—Mally Cabot.

Incidents follow in dramatic and startling succession and the play ends gloriously.

The number of miles to the gallon depends largely on the conscience of the man at the filling station.

Plenty of Winter Eggs

DO your hens "board" all winter without laying enough eggs to pay the cost of their feed? Don't blame it all on the cold weather—proper feeding will produce eggs even in winter. If hens aren't getting a complete egg ration, they can't lay.

Purina Poultry Chows will make your hens lay more eggs when eggs are worth more. You can prove it on a money back guarantee. Start feeding Purina Hen Chow and Chicken Chowder now.

Wig Wag.

Bilkens showed up with a set of hand-carved fixtures that resembled the field after Chateau-Thierry.

"Pete's sake!" gasped a friend.

"What happened to your face? Been in an accident?"

"Nope," returned Bilkens sadly. "A deaf and dumb barber shaved me and he was feeling chatty."
