The many friends of the minister and family, both in and outside of the congregation will welcome Rev. and Mrs. Mathis returning from conference with a commission for the pastor to remain with the Methodist Episcopal Church in Union City. There are very few people, if any, in Union City who do not know Brother Mathis personally, and he is universally and kindly esteemed. He has been doing a fine work in the church, and there are numbers who will attest to his good offices and his generous contributions to every worthy effort and enterprise. Welcome home is extended to the family. They will also welcome the Presiding Elder, Rev. Pickens, and his good wife.
