

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Ruby Caldwell was a visitor this week in Fulton.

Miss Jessie Callicott, of Rives, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

—Rub-My-Tism, a pain killer.

L. P. Ellison, of Memphis, was a business visitor in the city last week.

Obion River has been over the banks and rabbits and ducks are plentiful.

—666 quickly relieves a cold.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Carnell, of Greenfield, Tenn., were in the city Tuesday shopping.

Mr. Walter Harpor, of Hauser Valley, visited his sister, Mrs. W. S. Long, Sunday last.

—Call 150 for Bon Air.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. McVay and little daughter, of Chicago, were in the city this week visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Nailling.

Methodist Ladies' bazaar, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 2 and 3. Beautiful Christmas gifts for very little money. At Harpole-Walker Furniture Store.

—Fresh Oysters at Burdicks. Phone 185.

Mrs. J. M. Caldwell was a patient of the Nailling Hospital this week, having an operation which involved removing local infection above the upper teeth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ruffin and Miss Pearl Pettus have returned to Linden, Tenn., since the funeral of Mr. Pettus Ruffin. Mr. Ruffin is the principal of the Linden school.

—The Devil is coming to Union City. Watch for date.

After a pleasant Thanksgiving with their relatives, Mrs. Otis Bogle and Wilson Sharp, Dr. Sharp and Mrs. Rome Jackson have returned to Union City.

Miss Gertrude Shatz, of Kenton, and Misses Herwitz, Byrock and Mr. Levy, of Paducah, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Byer for the Elks Thanksgiving dance.

—Santa has just unloaded his pack of Useful Gifts and Toys at Wehman's. Shop Early.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell Greer are very much interested in the visit of a young man who arrived this week by way of Storkland. He was a heavy-weight—twelve pounds without his mits.

Mr. Warren Reeves, we learn is now located at San Diego, Cal., with the Southern Trust and Commerce Bank, in the clearing house department. Mr. Reeves' friends here tender kind wishes.

—Our sale prices are lower than the present wholesale costs.—Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store.

A party of Troy people was here last week on some estate business for a citizen of Number Six: Messrs. R. W. Mahon, P. W. Moffatt, J. C. McCaw, J. L. Forrester, E. A. McAdoo, Thel Taylor, Jas. W. Pressly, G. H. Muse, J. L. Owens.

—Christmas Gifts for everybody at Wehman's. Bring your shopping list and buy your gifts early.

Mr. G. A. Warren, one of our good friends of the vicinity of Mount Pelia, has a new residence about completed—a nice seven-room bungalow with modern conveniences and comforts. Mr. Warren was here last week doing some trading.

—Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," starring John Barrymore, coming soon. Playhouse.

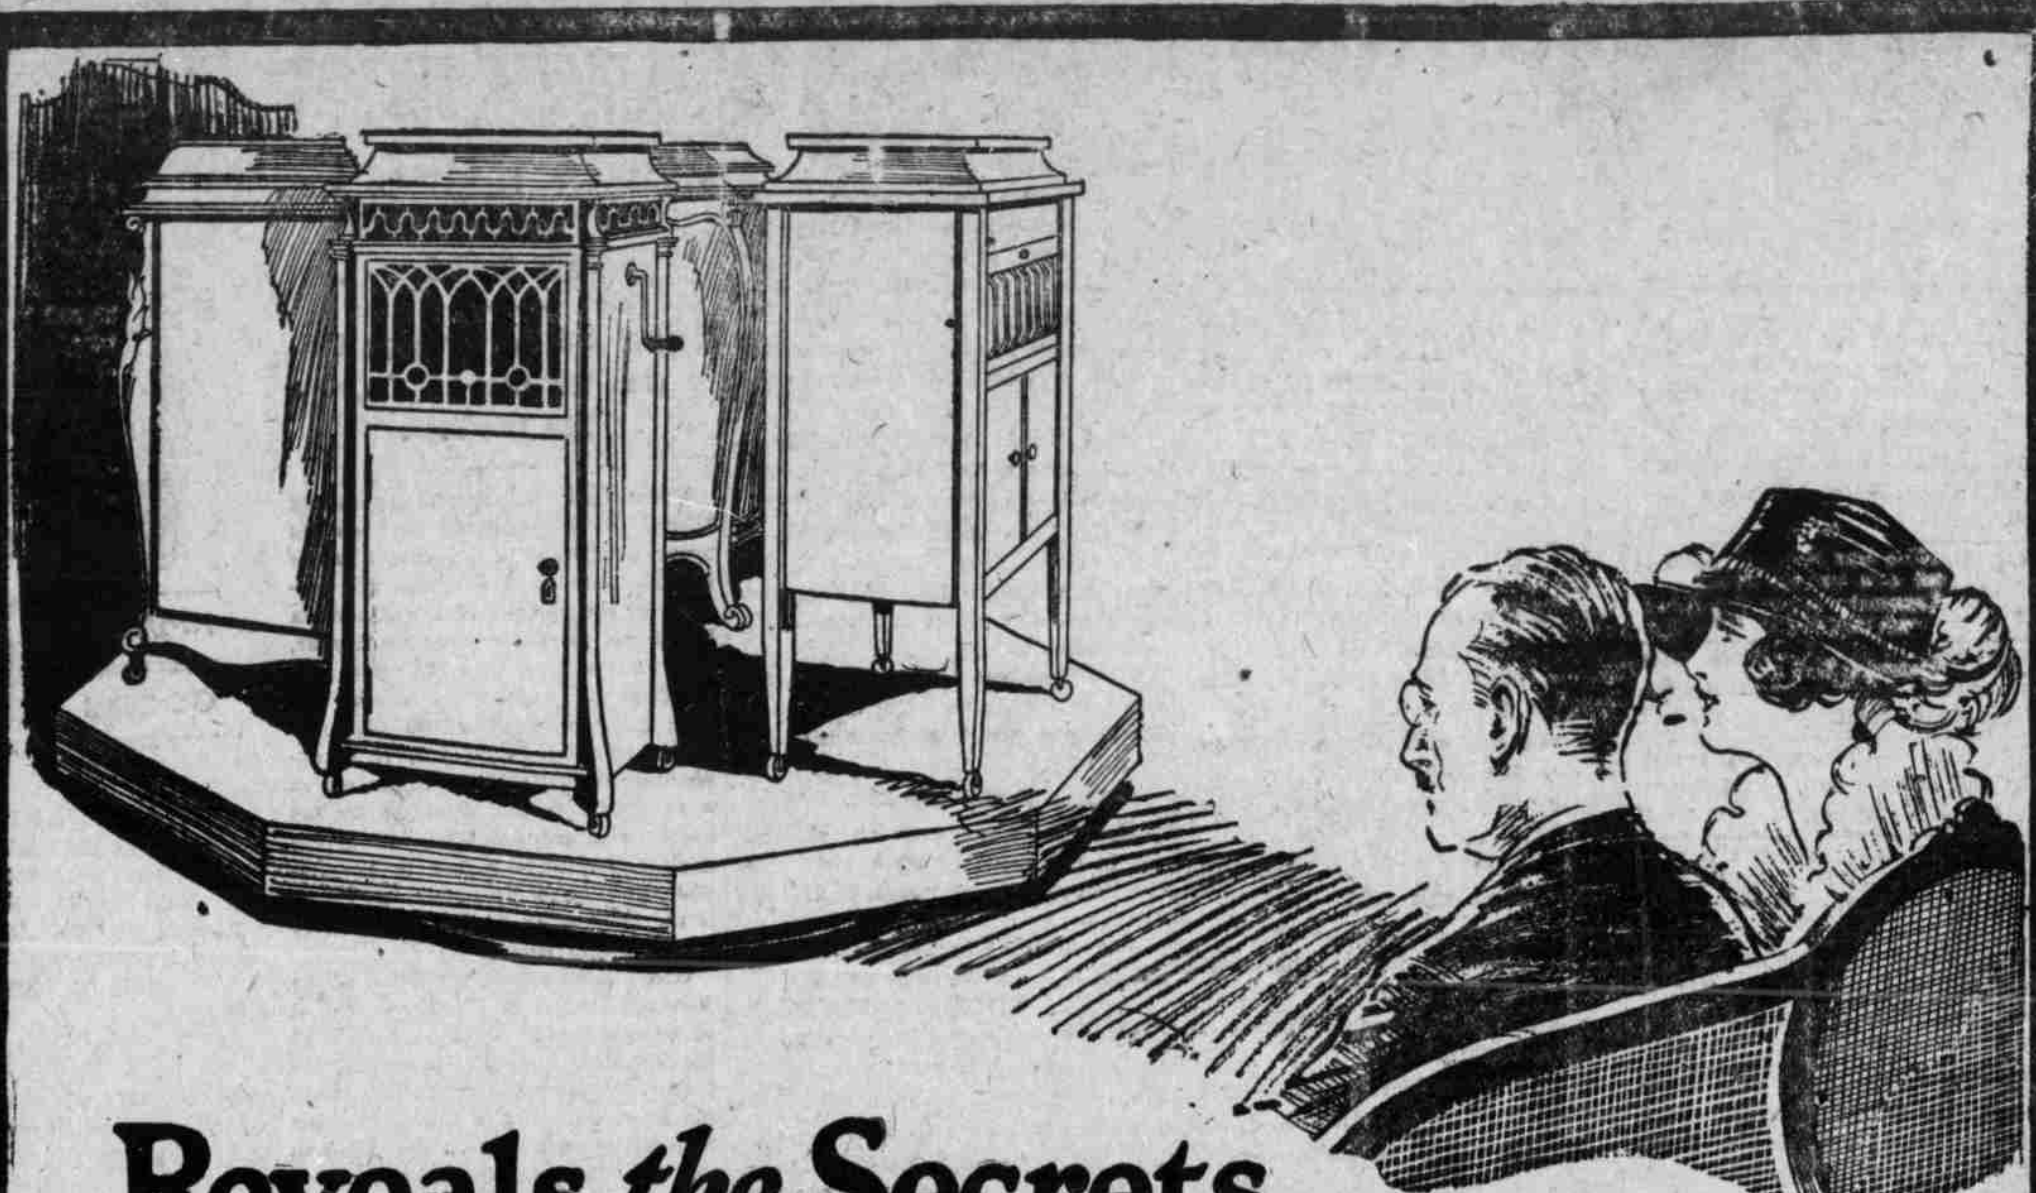

Mr. Lon Lancaster received a message this week from St. Louis, notifying him of the illness of his son, Vardry, who is in service of the American Railway Express Co. The young man was reported to have pneumonia, but not seriously ill.

J. S. O'Sullivan received his commission this week as ambassador of the Al Chymia Temple, Memphis, Tenn., for the Union City district. Mr. O'Sullivan's commission was issued by Potentate E. A. Rome. Now, if you are a candidate seeking admission to the temple see Mr. O'Sullivan at once and have him arrange for your pilgrimage.

—Our store is crowded always. People know where to go for bargains.—Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store.

Mr. Lewis McAdoo, of Rives, was a business visitor here Tuesday. Mr. McAdoo was somewhat crippled from an accident at Gleason. He was there for the McAdoo Construction Co. putting up a bridge and a foot adz accidentally struck his ankle and made a considerable flesh wound. The bone was slightly injured, but Mr. McAdoo is up and out again.

—Don't forget that we are selling men's and young men's suits at $12.50 and $15.00, so get your Xmas suit at Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store.

Reveals the Secrets only Experts have known

Every Christmas shopper should hear this astounding Turn-Table Comparison between four well known phonographs

DECIDED and remarkable progress has been recently made in the phonograph field.

These new developments have changed the entire phonograph situation.

The facts have been known for some time to music experts and to many music-lovers. Now they can be revealed to every one who has ears to hear,—by the Turn-Table Comparison.

Are you trying to discover which phonograph is best for classic numbers, which for popular songs and dances? Which for human voices, and which for instrumental music? Which brings you most of the enjoyments and benefits that lie in music?

The Turn-Table Comparison will enable you to choose that phonograph with unerring accuracy.

It consists of a revolving platform. On the platform, are the four leading makes of phonographs. You hear each in the same room, from the same position, playing recordings by the same artists. A real scientific comparison.

That is why these new facts—of the phonographs as they are today—come out with such startling clearness.

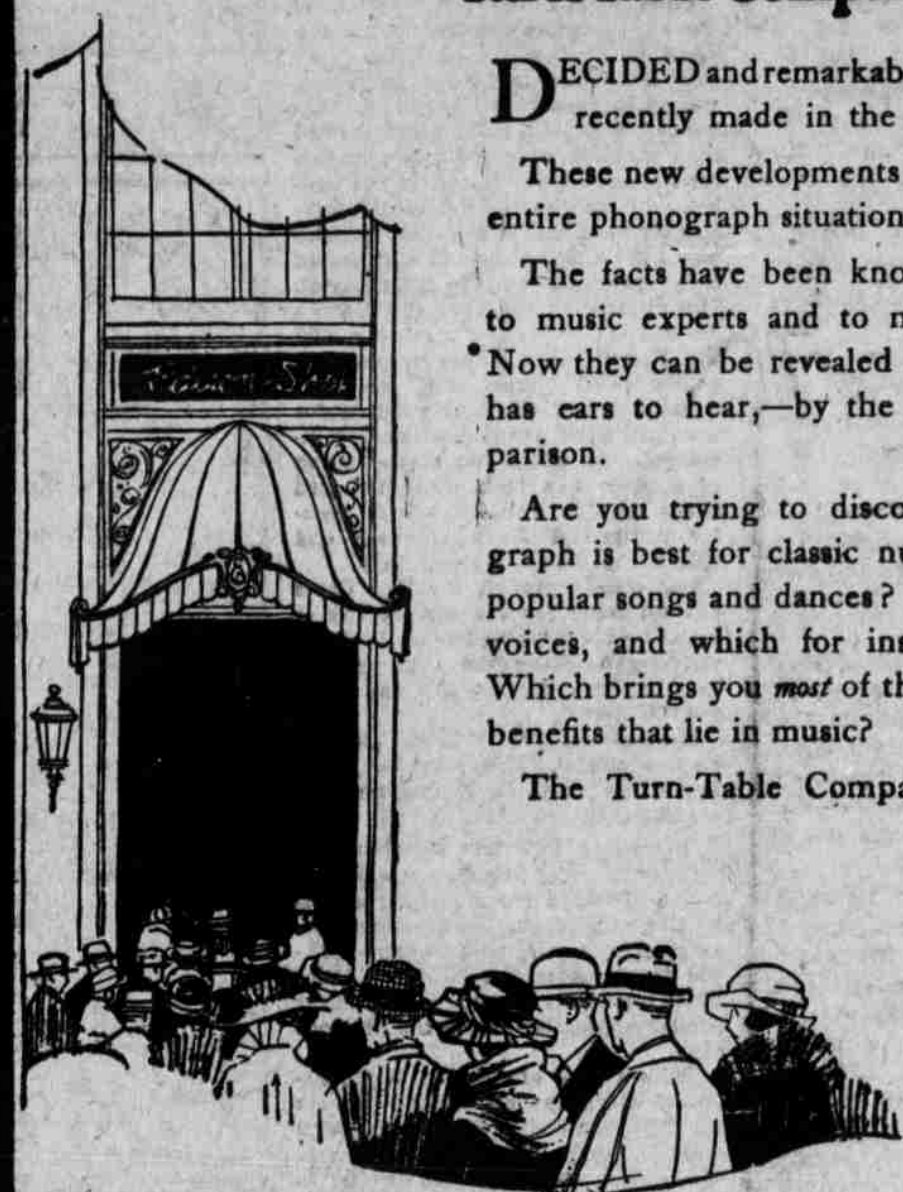

Before you decide on your Christmas phonograph, be sure and hear what the Turn-Table Comparison has to tell you. It is conducted apart from our sales-floor, purely as a service. So, don't hesitate to come in and ask to hear it.

CHAS. DIETZEL, Jeweler
Union City, Tenn.

Notice to Manufacturers

The talking machines used in these tests are kept by us in the best possible condition. Manufacturers of such machines or their representatives, are invited to inspect them, or to substitute other machines of the same make, of their own selection, of equal or greater value, at any time during business hours.

Ask definitely to hear the Turn-Table Comparison
— because it is given only on request —

Notwithstanding the unpleasant day and steady downpour of rain many homes in Union City were made thankful places. Entertainment was generous and pleasant. Among the number was the dinner given by Mrs. Annie Holloway to a few of her friends. Those present were Mrs. Vaught, who recently moved to this city, Mrs. Alma Nagle and little daughter, Bettie, Mrs. Ruth Stone, Misses Nellie and Adele Strother, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Long and David Holloway.

Sunday Afternoon Service.
Service was conducted last Sunday afternoon at Jimmie's Playhouse with Pastor Baker as speaker. The attendance was very liberal and attention and interest very encouraging.

Announcement.
I have opened up a boarding house at my home north of courthouse, and would appreciate a share of public patronage. Meals 35c. Regular boarders special price. 33-4t
MRS. MARVIN CHAPEL.

Seriously Injured.
News was received here last week of a serious accident in McNairy County. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Roland, who reside in the vicinity north of Union City, were notified that their son, Ovie, who was in the county visiting relatives, had been seriously injured. He was reported to have fallen on an axe which cut his body about the hip or joint between the leg and the body well toward the front, penetrating vital parts.

Death in Number Nine.
Mr. Ira B. Marshall, who is located in Nashville, was here last week on his way to Number Nine to attend his mother's funeral. Mrs. Marshall died on the 25th ult., after a short illness. Mrs. V. A. Marshall was the widow of the late Jas. A. Marshall and an aged christian woman.

Cotton Report.
Mr. Wallace R. Nolen makes his weekly cotton report as follows: Bales ginned in Obion County for 1921 up to and including November 14, 1921, 2,228; for the same period in 1920, 1,980.

—Billie Burke in "Sadie Love" and Charlie Chaplin in "One A. M." Saturday, Dec. 3, Jimmie's Playhouse.

Mr. Pettus Ruffin.
Mr. Pettus Ruffin, who died at the Government Hospital at Osteen, N. C., on the 22d of November, was buried here at East View Cemetery, November 25. Services were held at the residence on Home and Vine streets at 10 o'clock a.m., conducted by Rev. W. B. Cunningham.

The young man was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ruffin. He was 22 years of age last July. He contracted pneumonia while a student at Peabody College, serving the Government in the S. A. T. C. during the war. The attack involved the lungs and he never recovered. But all thru his illness and in fact his whole life he has exhibited the finest traits of character and manliness. He had been a student of the Agricultural College of Arkansas and of the Draughton Business College in Nashville. He was moved by the finest impulses and had a desire to achieve noble things. He inherited a good name and it was his highest ambition to honor that name with all that God had given him. He was a boy of exceedingly kind and courteous manner. He was devoted to his parents. He was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and a christian—in all he was a clean, wholesome product of human character—honorable, loyal and true to every obligation and affiliation. His passing is a distinct loss and the family have the kindest condolences of a host of friends.

—Phil Hyman Cuts the price and his store is full of wonderful bargains.—Phil Hyman's Cut Price Store.