Current events from the Union Signal.

Tom Morris was today appointed chief clerk to Commissioner of Agriculture Bryson. Mr. Morris is the assistant Cashier of the First National Bank of Camden and a citizen of that place. He was chief clerk to Commissioner of Agriculture John Thompson for two and a half years, and resigned to devote himself to his private business, being succeeded by James B. Tolliver of Lebanon. Mr. Morris will assume his duties next Monday, succeeding T. G. Settle, who has filled the position for four years under Commissioner Peck. —Nashville Banner.

Elsewhere in this issue of The Chronicle will be found an article from the Paris Business Men's Club sent to Mayor T. J. Lowry in regard to the organization of cooperative rural credit associations, a State-wide movement. We would like to have comments from some of our leading citizens on the proposition suggested.

No. 666 will cure malaria or bilious fever. It kills the germs.
