IN SOCIETY.

Church Workers Reception.

The reception given by the Church Workers of the First Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon was quite successful. There was a good attendance, notwithstanding the inclement weather, and the Session Room was the scene of quite a congenial and pleasant little gathering.

Mrs. C. A. Parker gave a beautiful whist party Friday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. William Moses, of Louisville. White and pink carnations were the chosen flowers and they added greatly to the already bright and cozy appearance of the apartments.

Organ Recital.

Mrs. R. C. Gant gave a very pleasant whist party yesterday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Moseley, of Louisville, Ky. Three tables were used. Those present were: Mrs. Robt. Pillow, Mrs. E. C. Church, Mrs. Will Morgan, Mrs. J. A. Andrews, Miss Daisy Witherspoon, Mrs. Joe Hutton, Mrs. A. D. Wharton, Mrs. C. A. Parker, Mrs. Rebecca McLemore, Mrs. W. M. Chaffin, Mrs. Ulnor Foster, Mrs. W. M. Moseley. An elegant three course luncheon was served.

Miss Carrie Alexander entertained a few friends very pleasantly Friday night at her home on the Pulaski pike. The hall, parlors and dining room were artistically decorated with cut flowers and palms and presented a beautiful appearance. Music and conversation were the features of the evening and at a late hour, a simple, though delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. Hattie Jones entertained a small party of friends very beautifully Friday evening at euchre, with Mrs. Norman Kirkman, as honoree. The following ladies were present: Mrs. Kirkman, Mrs. Meade Frierson, Mrs. J. W. Howard, Mrs. C. A. Forgy, Mrs. Annie Bowen, Mrs. Tyree Rhodes and Miss Camille Herndon. A delightful luncheon was served at the close of the game.
