

Athens, Friday, June 5, 1874.

A Case of Constrained Cremation.

A passenger who came down on the Tellico Narrow Gauge a few days ago tells a story almost too horrible for belief. It seems that an illicit distiller named Jones, who lived with his family near the lower bench of the Big Smokey mountain, had been annoyed a good deal by the revenue rangers last fall and determined to change his location and business to a more secluded spot. To carry out this purpose he selected the head of a deep gorge some four miles distant, walled in with cliffs, where, during the winter, assisted by some friends, he erected a small log building. As soon as the cold weather was over and spring fairly opened, the still and other things necessary were moved to the place, and the work of violating the revenue laws was resumed. Several "runs" were made, and Jones began to congratulate himself that he had at last found a haven of safety, a refuge beyond the prying eyes of the government hirelings, where he could pursue his avocation in peace, with none to molest or make him afraid. But, alas! how little we know even of the immediate future, and how often do the very steps which the transgressor takes to insure concealment and safety, lead to his swift and certain destruction! The still house being some distance from where his family lived, Jones rarely visited them more than once a fortnight, generally selecting Saturday night for that purpose. Everything went on well enough until about four weeks ago, when he failed to appear at the accustomed time. Nothing was thought of this for a day or two, but when another week elapsed without the return of Jones the family became alarmed, and thought perhaps he had been captured by the revenue jayhawks and carried to Knoxville, or some other place, where violators of the law are occasionally convicted and punished. The alarm was given among the sparsely settled neighborhood. A small number of men gathered, and accompanied by Mrs. Jones and her son, a youth ten or twelve years of age, they started up the gorge in the direction of the still house. On reaching the building they found the door closed and fastened, and no sign of Jones or any one else could be seen. Mrs. J. called the name of her husband several times; no response, however, came back to relieve her anxiety. The stillness of death pervaded the gloomy spot. But upon attempting to force an entrance they were greeted with those peculiar notes of warning which the ear of the East Tennessee mountaineer never fails to recognize. The door was at once broken down, and a sight met them that caused all to start with fright and horror. The form of the distiller lay upon the floor, with eyes starting from their sockets, the features horribly distorted, and body swollen to twice its usual proportions, while the whole interior of the building was alive with rattlesnakes—some in coil and ready for battle, but the larger proportion stupid and inert as though they had been imbibing liberally of the illicit fruit of the still. The mother and son fled horror-stricken from the place. A consultation was had, and as it was impossible to rescue the body of poor Jones without incurring fearful risk, it was determined to re-locate the entrance, and other apertures, and fire the building; which was done. The party stayed until the house was entirely consumed and nothing remained but the now useless still and the calcined bones of the miserable distiller. It is supposed that Jones had built his manufactory close upon a den of the deadly reptiles in the overhanging cliff, and that, attracted by the heat, or possibly the fumes of the whiskey, they found their way into the building in large numbers after he had closed the door and laid down to sleep. His horrible fate has created a profound sensation among the people of the hill country, and it is likely to be some time before another illicit rum-mill is erected in that range. We tell the story substantially as it was told to us. Our informant, notwithstanding he had an odor of "bilied corn" about him fragrant as the real dew of the mountain, looked like a candid and truthful man, and closed with the suggestive and sententious remark that "whiskey is a mighty dangerous thing to fool with in any way."

Bethlehem.

A telegraph office for the dispatch of messages in the Turkish and other languages has recently been established at Bethlehem. Nearly two thousand years ago a message was received at Bethlehem, and from thence was sent to the uttermost parts of the earth without money and without price—a message which thrilled the world: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace and good will to men."

The receipts of Cotton at all United States ports from September 1, 1873, to May 15, 1874 were 3,622,145 bales, against 3,331,704 bales the corresponding period of 1872-3.

A pickpocket, aged 14, and a drunkard, aged 13, were among the prisoners brought up on a recent morning before one of the Police Judges in New York.

The Ojibway's Revenge.

Twenty years ago, on a level plain in Minnesota, there stood a cabin, rudely built of logs and plastered with clay, which was inhabited by three as villainous creatures as ever disgraced the human race.

The names of these men were Nick Atkins, Bill Hardy, and Frank Mercer. They lived by trapping, and selling the skins of such animals as they could capture at the next trading post, generally for whiskey.

The cabin was frequently the scene of orgies which might rival the sports of the inhabitants of the infernal regions. Shouts, whoops, yells and curses sounded out, until, overcome by the fumes of the liquor, the inmates would sink into the deep sleep of drunkenness.

Not far from this spot were the lodges of the Ojibway Indians, ruled by a chief who bore the name of Red Knife. The red men looked with horror upon the conduct of the three drunken trappers, and kept as far aloof from them as was possible.

One lovely morning, the three men sallied out to examine their traps. The beautiful landscape spread out before them might have softened the heart of the most hardened villain, but they had no thought for the glorious prospect. Half-erazed by the vile stuff which they had been drinking, they marched along, intermingling their conversation with a continued stream of oaths and obscenity.

Every trap was visited, but in no one of them was any game found. Cursing their ill-luck, they set out to follow the course of a small stream near at hand, and, on turning a sharp bend, came suddenly upon the lodges of Red Knife and his followers.

But the chief and his braves were nowhere visible. Only a few squaws and children were seated in front of the camp, who glanced up for a moment, and then resumed their work with the characteristic Indian indifference.

"Boys," said Bill Hardy, "Red Knife has gone off with his men, and he must have left some furs round here somewhere; suppose we help ourselves to a few, to make up for our bad luck today."

"Agreed," said the other two ruffians, in a breath, and Nick Atkins, stepping up to the wife of the chief, said: "Look here, old woman, show us where the chief keeps his furs, and be quick about it, too."

The squaw only answered by a shake of the head.

"Well, if you can't tell us, we can find out for ourselves," said Atkins, preparing to enter the principal lodge.

In an instant the squaw sprang to her feet, and administered a push which sent the trapper reeling from the spot. Crazed with drunken rage the ruffian leveled his rifle, and pulled the trigger, and with a wild cry the squaw fell dead, while the other women fled panic-stricken from the spot.

As coolly as though it was a dog that they had shot, the trappers entered the lodge. A valuable store of furs rewarded their search, and after plundering the camp they departed, loaded with spoils.

Long and loud were the revels at the log cabin that night. But at last the trappers lay in a stupid sleep of intoxication.

They awoke to find themselves firmly bound, while around them stood fifty grim and silent warriors, headed by Red Knife.

Fierce eyes glared at them, and many of the braves seemed to wish to destroy them on the spot, but the warning gesture of the stern chief restrained them. All day they were kept closely confined, but when evening came they were carried out, still firmly bound, and left lying upon the open prairie.

All around them were heard the howling of the hungry wolves, and the wretched men saw but two plainly the awful fate that was in store for them.

At midnight, wild screams, despairing prayers, moans and frantic curses were heard upon the prairie. Then followed a silence broken only by the growls of the wolves, as they quarreled over their prey.

When morning dawned nothing remained of the unfortunate men save their bones, and thus fearfully did the Ojibway satiate his revenge.

Preserving Butter.

The farmers of Aberdeen, Scotland, practise the following method for curing butter, which gives it great superiority over that of their neighbors:

Take two quarts of the best common salt, one ounce of sugar, and one ounce saltpetre; take one ounce of this composition for one pound of butter, work well in the mass and close up for use. The butter cured with this mixture appears of a rich, marrow substance and fine color, and acquires a little darkness. Dr. Anderson says: I have eaten the butter cured with the above composition that has been kept for four years, and it was as sweet as it was at first. It must be noted however, that butter that is thus cured requires to stand three weeks or a month before it is used. If it is sooner opened, the salt is not sufficiently blended with it, and sometimes the coarseness of the nitre will be perceived, which totally disappears afterwards.

A noted broker, who hesitates in his speech lately gave an excellent advice about investment. A friend said to him: "I've just mortgaged my house, and have a few thousand to spare. Can't you tell me of something good and safe to go into, where I can make a neat thing and be perfectly secure?" "Yeve-yes, I k-k-know a-a-a first-r-rate thing f-f-for you."

"What is it?" "B-b-b-buy that mort-mort-gage!"

BARRETT'S HOTEL, Charleston, Tennessee.

THE ABOVE HOUSE IS NOW OPEN for the reception of the travelling public. Good accommodations and moderate charges. A liberal share of patronage is respectfully solicited. S. S. BARRETT, Charleston, Tenn., May 1, 1874-ly-335

WILLIAMS & CO.

ARE JUST IN RECEIPT OF A LARGE lot of Coffee, Sugar, Soda and Nails of best quality which they offer cheap for Cash or Barter. [Cantrell's X Roads, March 7, 1874. SPRING. 1874.

COWAN, MCCLUNG & CO., IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS, KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE.

ARE NOW OPENING FULL ASSORTMENTS of everything new and desirable in the following departments, which they offer to the trade at popular prices:

DRY GOODS, Small Wares AND NOTIONS, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CLOTHING, HARDWARE & CUTLERY.

THEY WOULD RESPECTFULLY SUGGEST to Merchants heretofore going East, to examine their Stock this season, feeling assured that the advantages offered will induce them to go no further.

Knoxville, Feb. 27, 1874-225

NO SUSPENSION! OCTOBER, 1873. WE ARE PREPARED TO MEET ALL DEMANDS for anything in the SATISFACTION DRY GOODS LINE, as we have a complete stock of ALPACAS, DEAINES, SHAWLS, FLANNELS, DOMESTICS, PRINTS, JEANS, SATINETS, CASSIMERS, Also, a full stock of Boots & Shoes, HATS, Queensware, GROCERIES, ETC., ETC.

Prices to suit the times. All Goods as represented. Call and be convinced. HENDERSON & DEMENT, Agents for Russell's Celebrated Family Flour, Oct. 31, 1873-ly-253

DR. J. C. GRANT DENTIST, ATHENS, TENNESSEE. OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—MAIN ST.—East end of town. Athens, Tenn., Jan. 28, 1870-ly-113

Valuable Property for Sale. THE SUBSCRIBER OFFERS FOR SALE the large store-house and dwelling combined in the town of Riceville, formerly owned by M. N. McKinney. Riceville is a flourishing place, situated on the line of Railroad, 7 miles south-west of Athens, and the property is new and in excellent condition. Also, a lot adjoining the above, on which is a desirable office building, and known as the Dr. John A. Parkinson office and lot. Terms will be low and accommodating. Apply to Capt. J. L. McKinney, Riceville, or to the subscriber, Athens, Tennessee. M. A. HELM, Athens, Tenn., March, 20, 1874-ly-529

SEED POTATOES. A LARGE LOT GENUINE PINK EYE and Russet Potatoes to sell at TURLEY'S, March 20, 1874-ly-1

THE BEST

THE KELLER DRILL DRILLS ALL KINDS OF GRAIN Seed and Fertilizers in the desired quantity to the acre. DOES ITS WORK PERFECTLY, and measures the ground.

THE BEST HAY AND GRAIN HORSE RAKE.

ALSO THE "Star" Hay, Straw, and Corn Stalk CUTTING BOXES.

Manufactured by the Hagerstown Agricultural Implement Manufacturing Company, Hagerstown, Md. For circulars or information, address or apply to J. A. TURLEY, Coghill, Tenn. or J. MATTHEWS & CO., Athens, Tennessee. Agents for McMinn, Monroe, Meigs, Polk and Bradley counties. April 9, 1874-ly-531

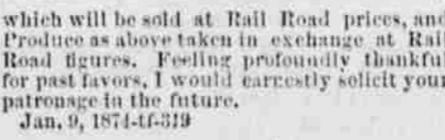

Jan. 1, '74. B. F. MARTIN, Jan. 1, '74, GENERAL DRY GOODS, COMMISSION and GROCERY MERCHANT, CALHOUN, TENNESSEE.

KEEPS ALWAYS ON HAND THE BEST of Goods, and at low prices as any retail house in East Tennessee; takes all kinds of Produce in exchange for Goods at the highest market price, or pays Cash when Goods are not wanted. Also keeps a SPLENDID STOCK OF GOODS

AISCARBROUGH'S MILLS, in Polk County, which will be sold at Rail Road prices, and Produce as above taken in exchange at Rail Road figures. Feeling profoundly thankful for past favors, I would earnestly solicit your patronage in the future. J. O. S. R. MITCHELL, Cashier. Jan. 9, 1874-ly-519

NEW LIVERY STABLE. THE SUBSCRIBER HAS OPENED A Livery Stable in Athens, and is prepared to convey people to and from the Springs, or anywhere else where good stock, safe vehicles, and careful drivers can be got. He is well supplied with Horses, Buggies, Carriages, Etc., all in good order and ready at a moment's notice. Charges moderate. Stable on Jackson street, opposite the Presbyterian Church. W. S. MCGAUGHEY, Athens, Aug. 8, 1874-ly-297

ATHENS FOUNDRY & MACHINE WORKS, MANUFACTURE TURBINE WATER WHEELS, CIRCULAR SAW MILLS and all kinds of Grist and Saw Mill Machinery G. W. WHELAND, Prop'r March 1, 1872-ly-222

Young Raven. THE THOROUGH-BRED TROTTER Stallion, YOUNG RAVEN, will stand the present season at his own stable in Athens, McMinn county, at Ten Dollars to insure a mare in foal—payable when the fact is ascertained or the property traded. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but no liability for any that may occur. YOUNG RAVEN comes of a pure strain, and has proved himself an excellent breeder, his colts being large and with fine style and action. He was sired by Washington, Jr.; he by old Washington, who was bred by Smith Barr, of Long Island, New York, and was sold at the age of 17 for $5,000. Old Washington was sired by Napoleon, he by Young Membrino, and he runs back to Imported Messenger, and has all of the best crosses. The 1st dam of RAVEN'S sire was by Imported Ashton, 2d dam by Imported Pop, 3d dam by Old Stockholder. RAVEN'S 1st dam was by Gen. Harden's Imported Child Harold, 2d dam by Dan Rice, 3d dam an Andrew Jackson mare. So it will be seen that YOUNG RAVEN is three-fourths thoroughbred and the other fourth of the very best trotting families. He is of kindly disposition, and performs splendidly in harness. J. M. CLEMENTSON, Athens, Tenn., March 27, 1874-ly-530

MONDAY HOUSE, CLEVELAND, TENNESSEE. PASSENGERS ARRIVING AT CLEVELAND, will remember this favorite Eating House, where they can always get a good breakfast for 50 CENTS. Passengers on the eastern bound train take breakfast here. Commercial Travelers will find it their interest to stop at the MONDAY HOUSE, where they can have baggage transferred to and from the cars free of charge. Give me a call and you will not go away dissatisfied. Jan. 19, 74-ly-1 J. M. C. MONDAY, Prop.

NEW STORE AND NEW GOODS!

Sehorn & Hornsby, AT THEIR OLD STAND, NORTH SIDE of the Public Square, Athens, Tennessee, have opened a general assortment of GOODS, WARES AND MERCHANDISE embracing almost everything that anybody wants, which they propose to sell CHEAP FOR CASH, or exchange for almost any kind of Produce the farmer has to sell. Their motto is LIVE AND LET LIVE. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere Athens, Oct. 31, 1873-ly-309

CHEAP FOR CASH, or exchange for almost any kind of Produce the farmer has to sell. Their motto is LIVE AND LET LIVE. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere Athens, Oct. 31, 1873-ly-309

ASK FOR TICKETS TO Memphis and the Southwest via CHATTANOOGA & MCKENZIE.

St. Louis and the Northwest via Nashville, and Columbus—all Rail; or Nashville and Hickman—Rail and River.

THE LOWEST SPECIAL RATES For Emigrants, with more Advantages, Quicker Time and Fewer Changes of Cars than any other Route.

Tickets for sale at Principal Ticket Offices in the South. J. W. THOMAS, Gen'l Supt. W. L. DANLEY, G. P. & T. Agent. THOS. J. DEMENT, Agent, Athens, Tenn. Feb. 20, 1874-ly-323

ATHENS DISTRICT FEMALE INSTITUTE, (Under Charge of the M. E. Church, South.) Sweetwater, Tennessee. THE FIRST SESSION OF THIS SCHOOL will open on the second Monday of February, 1874, under the supervision of Rev. Dr. J. H. Keith, and Mrs. H. M. Cooke.

Ample and comfortable provisions have been made for a full school. Instruction thorough, and terms more reasonable than any other first-class school in the country. Board in good families at $10 per month, with special care and oversight of the pupil's health and morals. Tuition per Term of 20 Weeks: 1st Class, $ 8.00 3d Class, $12.50 2d Class, 10.00 4th Class, 15.00 Instruction on Piano, 20.00 Instruction on Guitar, 12.50 Instruction in Drawing, Painting and Needle-work on reasonable terms. For particulars address, Dr. J. H. KEITH, Principal, or N. I. MAYES, Secretary Board, Jan. 23, 1874-ly-321

GO TO TEXAS VIA THE LONE STAR ROUTE! (International and Great Northern R. R.) PASSENGERS GOING TO TEXAS VIA Memphis and Little Rock, or via Shreveport, strike this line at Longview, the best route to Palestine, Hearne, Waco, Austin, Huntsville, Houston, Galveston and all points in Western, Central, Eastern and Southern Texas. Passengers via New Orleans will find it the best route to Tyler, Mineola, Dallas, Overton Crockett, Longview and all points in Eastern and Northern Texas. This line is well built, thoroughly equipped with every modern improvement, including New and Elegant Day Coaches, Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars, Westinghouse Air Brakes, Miller's Patent Safety Platforms and Couplers; and now here also can the passenger so completely depend on a speedy, safe and comfortable journey. The LONE STAR ROUTE has admirably answered the query: "How to go to Texas?" by the publication of an interesting and truthful document, containing a valuable and correct map, which can be obtained, free of charge by addressing the GENERAL TICKET AGENT, International and Great Northern Railroad, Houston, Texas. District E. March 6, 1874-ly-327

BUSSEY, SMITH & CO., Barnesville, Georgia. GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS, AND DEALERS IN Family Groceries, Provisions and Produce. Solicit consignments from lower East Tennessee, and promise prompt returns and good prices. REFER TO J. D. Williams, Cantrell's X Roads, J. A. Turley, Coghill, and every other person for whom they have done business. Jan. 30, 1874-ly-322

Sash and Blinds! HUGH L. FRY, MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN LUMBER, CEILING, FLOORING, WEATHERBOARDING Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Etc., SWEETWATER, TENNESSEE. I AM ALSO PREPARED TO MAKE, AT short notice, all kinds of work usually connected with this branch of business. HUGH L. FRY, March 13, 1874-ly-328

T. NIXON VAN DYKE, W. D. VAN DYKE, VAN DYKE, COOKE & VAN DYKE ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Athens, and Chattanooga, Tenn. WILL PRACTICE IN THE VARIOUS Courts in lower East Tennessee, and the Federal and Supreme Courts at Knoxville. Two of the firm can always be found at Chattanooga. Communications addressed to them at either office will receive prompt attention. Dec. 6, 1867-ly-1

Crow's Livery Stable. BUGGIES, HACKS, AND SADDLE HORSES can always be had at Crow's Livery stable, Athens, and at moderate charges—Handling of every description promptly done at all times. Stock left at the Stable will be well taken care of. Athens, Tenn., Dec. 5, 1873-ly-514

CARLOADS SAID JUST RECEIVED for sale by WILLIAMS & CO. Cantrell's X Roads, Dec. 15, 1873.

EARLY SPRING. JUST RECEIVED A LOT OF BEAUTIFUL Prints, Delains, &c., suited to latter part of Winter and early Spring. J. A. TURLEY, Coghill, Tenn., Feb. 15, 1874-ly-1

Fisk's Metallic Burial Cases FOR SALE BY BAKER & RIDER, ATHENS, TENNESSEE. Also, WOOD COFFINS of all kinds. Athens, April 19, 1872-3m-229

JOHN T. READ, PROPRIETOR OF THE READ HOUSE, FRONTING PASSENGER DEPOT, Chattanooga, - - Tennessee. W. G. GANT, Clerks, W. N. LEWIS, Jan. 16, 1874-ly-320

FARMERS. IMPROVE YOUR LANDS AND STYLE of farming by sowing more grass and clover. A good lot Seeds just received. Orchard Grass Seed, Kentucky Blue Grass Seed, Herd's Grass Seed. Also, a large lot of Landreth's Garden Seeds, all of which will be sold cheap. J. A. TURLEY, Coghill, Tenn., Feb. 23, 1874-ly-324

J. M. HORTON, WITH ADRAINCE, ROBBINS & CO., IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS IN DRY GOODS, NO. 335 BROADWAY, NEW YORK. James B. Adraince, William M. Robbins Joseph B. Lockwood, Edward B. Adraince Theodosius Strang. April 3, 1874-ly-531

HELMET. Price Reduced to $20.00, to put it in the reach of every one. BLOODED STOCK. THIS STALLION, HELMET, BAY Horse, 16 hands high, foaled in 1867, by Lexington, 1st dam Nubia, by Imported Albion; 2d dam Corsette, by Epsilon; 3d dam Imported Rustie, by Whalebone; 4th dam Old Trick, by Ouz; 5th dam Gray Duchess, by Pet; 6th dam Duchess, by Herod; 7th dam Gaudy by Blank; 8th dam Blossom by Crab; 9th dam by Childers; 10th dam Miss Selvoir, by Graham; 11th dam by Pagette Turk; 12th dam Betty Perceval, by Leedi's Arabian; 13th dam by Spanker. This Horse will make the season of 1874, ending June 29th, at the farm of Maj. S. Hambricht, of Bradley county, Tennessee, one and a half miles east of Charleston, at $20 the season; payable 1st of July, 1874—notes will be taken. Pasture for Mares on reasonable terms. All accidents and escapes at risk of owner. S. HAMBRICHT, J. O. S. A. MABRY, April 10, 1874-ly-530

W. W. ALEXANDER, M. D. OFFICE AND RESIDENCE ON WASHINGTON Street, Athens, Tennessee. January 9, 1874-ly-319

St. Louis, Memphis, Nashville and Chattanooga

RAIL ROAD LINE, CENTRAL SHORT ROUTE.

WITHOUT CHANGE OF CARS TO Nashville, McKenzie, Union City, Hickman, Columbus, Humboldt, Brownsville, and Memphis.

ONLY ONE CHANGE To Jackson, Tenn., Paducah, Ky., Little Rock, Cairo, and St. Louis.

More than 150 Miles Shorter to St. Louis. Than via Memphis or Louisville, and from 8 to 15 HOURS QUICKER Than via Corinth or Grand Junction.

ASK FOR TICKETS TO Memphis and the Southwest via CHATTANOOGA & MCKENZIE.

St. Louis and the Northwest via Nashville, and Columbus—all Rail; or Nashville and Hickman—Rail and River.

THE LOWEST SPECIAL RATES For Emigrants, with more Advantages, Quicker Time and Fewer Changes of Cars than any other Route.

Tickets for sale at Principal Ticket Offices in the South. J. W. THOMAS, Gen'l Supt. W. L. DANLEY, G. P. & T. Agent. THOS. J. DEMENT, Agent, Athens, Tenn. Feb. 20, 1874-ly-323

ATHENS DISTRICT FEMALE INSTITUTE, (Under Charge of the M. E. Church, South.) Sweetwater, Tennessee. THE FIRST SESSION OF THIS SCHOOL will open on the second Monday of February, 1874, under the supervision of Rev. Dr. J. H. Keith, and Mrs. H. M. Cooke.

Ample and comfortable provisions have been made for a full school. Instruction thorough, and terms more reasonable than any other first-class school in the country. Board in good families at $10 per month, with special care and oversight of the pupil's health and morals. Tuition per Term of 20 Weeks: 1st Class, $ 8.00 3d Class, $12.50 2d Class, 10.00 4th Class, 15.00 Instruction on Piano, 20.00 Instruction on Guitar, 12.50 Instruction in Drawing, Painting and Needle-work on reasonable terms. For particulars address, Dr. J. H. KEITH, Principal, or N. I. MAYES, Secretary Board, Jan. 23, 1874-ly-321

GO TO TEXAS VIA THE LONE STAR ROUTE! (International and Great Northern R. R.) PASSENGERS GOING TO TEXAS VIA Memphis and Little Rock, or via Shreveport, strike this line at Longview, the best route to Palestine, Hearne, Waco, Austin, Huntsville, Houston, Galveston and all points in Western, Central, Eastern and Southern Texas. Passengers via New Orleans will find it the best route to Tyler, Mineola, Dallas, Overton Crockett, Longview and all points in Eastern and Northern Texas. This line is well built, thoroughly equipped with every modern improvement, including New and Elegant Day Coaches, Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars, Westinghouse Air Brakes, Miller's Patent Safety Platforms and Couplers; and now here also can the passenger so completely depend on a speedy, safe and comfortable journey. The LONE STAR ROUTE has admirably answered the query: "How to go to Texas?" by the publication of an interesting and truthful document, containing a valuable and correct map, which can be obtained, free of charge by addressing the GENERAL TICKET AGENT, International and Great Northern Railroad, Houston, Texas. District E. March 6, 1874-ly-327

BUSSEY, SMITH & CO., Barnesville, Georgia. GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS, AND DEALERS IN Family Groceries, Provisions and Produce. Solicit consignments from lower East Tennessee, and promise prompt returns and good prices. REFER TO J. D. Williams, Cantrell's X Roads, J. A. Turley, Coghill, and every other person for whom they have done business. Jan. 30, 1874-ly-322

Sash and Blinds! HUGH L. FRY, MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN LUMBER, CEILING, FLOORING, WEATHERBOARDING Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Etc., SWEETWATER, TENNESSEE. I AM ALSO PREPARED TO MAKE, AT short notice, all kinds of work usually connected with this branch of business. HUGH L. FRY, March 13, 1874-ly-328

T. NIXON VAN DYKE, W. D. VAN DYKE, VAN DYKE, COOKE & VAN DYKE ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Athens, and Chattanooga, Tenn. WILL PRACTICE IN THE VARIOUS Courts in lower East Tennessee, and the Federal and Supreme Courts at Knoxville. Two of the firm can always be found at Chattanooga. Communications addressed to them at either office will receive prompt attention. Dec. 6, 1867-ly-1

Crow's Livery Stable. BUGGIES, HACKS, AND SADDLE HORSES can always be had at Crow's Livery stable, Athens, and at moderate charges—Handling of every description promptly done at all times. Stock left at the Stable will be well taken care of. Athens, Tenn., Dec. 5, 1873-ly-514

CARLOADS SAID JUST RECEIVED for sale by WILLIAMS & CO. Cantrell's X Roads, Dec. 15, 1873.

EARLY SPRING. JUST RECEIVED A LOT OF BEAUTIFUL Prints, Delains, &c., suited to latter part of Winter and early Spring. J. A. TURLEY, Coghill, Tenn., Feb. 15, 1874-ly-1