WEBSTER'S WORDS. The first and second generations of American statesmen were at once patriots and prophets.

Other misfortunes may be borne, or their effects overcome. If war should sweep our commerce from the ocean, another generation may renew it.

How solemnly these words sound today—how like an awful voice from another world they should strike the corrupt politicians of this mad hour.

Let us see. The story of the suffering of the people South of us is in every ear, and should affect every heart.

A PAINFUL REPORT. There is a report in circulation to the effect that the colored part of the audience that attended the speaking of Ethridge and Stokes at Chattanooga.

THE MOBILE TRIBUTE. The case of Judge Gayle, of Cahaba, Ala., charged with treason and conspiracy to assassinate Lincoln, was finally disposed of on Tuesday in the United States District Court, Montgomery.

FREEDMEN'S AMUSEMENTS. A party of freedmen, six in number, on the plantation of Mr. Zimmerman, in South Carolina, visited his store on the pretense of buying some articles.

MEETING OF SCOUTS. A meeting of General Bragg's scouts was recently held for the purpose of paying a tribute to the memory of three of their number.

NOT AFRAID OF ANY HONORABLE COMPETITION. A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette affirms that a distinguished Kentucky Senator boarded with a colored family while at Washington.

NOT TO BE UNDERSOLD BY ANYONE. A man in Boston, having experienced the sort of religion most in vogue there, smashed his marble copy of the Venus di Medici.
