A RICH DRAMATIC TREAT.—On Thursday we informed our play-goers that a rich dramatic treat was in store for them. They will have it on Tuesday night, when Mr. and Mrs. Watkins will appear at the Memphis Theater. A New Orleans paper thus speaks of the appearance of these superb artists at the Academy of Music in that city:

Rose and Harry Watkins commenced a brief engagement at this theater last evening, before a fine audience, and were received most enthusiastically. "Trodden Down, or, Under Two Flags," is about the best of the so-called sensational dramas, and infinitely superior to the myriad of Irish plays that have been foisted upon an indulgent public, ad nauseam. It has an excellent plot, arranged with rare skill, the interest gradually increasing through each act until it culminates in a thrillingly impressive denouement. The language is superior to what we have been accustomed to in this style of play, and rarely heard outside of the legitimate drama. The sentiment is healthy, for it touches the heart of refinement and finds a ready response in the breast of the most intelligent auditor, while the vein of comic humor which runs through the play is sparkling, caustic and witty.

Mr. Harry Watkins, as Fergus McCarthy, the patriot martyr, is deserving of the highest praise in the power of a critic to bestow. To fulfill all the requirements of this difficult character, the actor must possess more than ordinary talent, for it is of a serio-comic nature, and the alternations from comedy are so sudden, and so constantly recurring, that he must be a consummate artist who can carry his audience with him through all these different moods, and move the spectator to laughter or applause. All this Mr. Watkins does, and so successfully that the effort is never perceptible, it seems so natural. He is, undoubtedly, an actor of great originality.

Rose Watkins (Mrs. Charles Howard) is well known to our public as a very accomplished actress. Her versatility is wonderful, for she has won success in every role of the drama, though her greatest triumphs have been achieved in the higher walks of her art. In genteel comedy she is excellent, while as a singer she stands pre-eminent, being possessed of a fine contralto or mezzo-soprano voice, of good compass, which she uses with all the skill of an educated musician. In "Trodden Down" she sustains a double role, that of mother and daughter, and is equally successful in both characters.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.—A dispute arose between Mr. Cogswell, an old and respected citizen, and a Mr. Wilson, who rents a house on Pontotoc street from Mr. Cogswell, on Thursday, which resulted in a shooting affair last evening. It appears that while Cogswell was standing on the sidewalk talking to a friend Wilson came up behind and discharged a pistol at him, the ball from which entered Cogswell's left shoulder, inflicting a dangerous wound. Wilson was in the act of firing another shot when he was prevented by a bystander—a gentleman named J. F. Walsh—knocking him down. Mr. Cogswell was conveyed in a carriage to his home on Union street, when medical aid was immediately called in, and his wound properly attended to. Wilson was lodged in jail. There must be something wrong in the administration of law or in the morals of the community when men resort to weapons to settle little disputes.

PROGRESS.—We are glad to have some workingmen in the city who don't care a copper for politics, and are consequently flourishing in their own business. Messrs. John E. Randle & J. Wilson Heath, of the Chickasaw Foundry and Machine Shops, on the southeast corner of Second and Winchester streets, have just erected a splendid addition to their establishment, which now makes it one of the completest iron and brass workshops in the country. They are gentlemen of inventive as well as mechanical genius. Heath's patent well-borer is used all over the country with great success. Of their castings for buildings and steamboats and their agricultural machinery we will speak some other time. All we have room to say now is, let every man encourage home industry, and especially manufactures.

DEATH OF A PIONEER.—Our old citizens will regret the demise of Captain Morgan M. Bateman, which took place at three o'clock this morning at his residence, on Lauderdale street, near Hernando road. The Captain was among the first settlers on the Bluff; was a prominent river man; and a gallant soldier in the late conflict of arms. His funeral takes place to-morrow morning at ten o'clock from his late residence. Steamboatmen, old citizens and Confederate soldiers are invited to attend it.

DEATH OF JUDGE REEVES.—Hon. Geo. W. Reeves, Judge of the Fifteenth Judicial District, died at his residence in Somerville on Thursday evening from hemorrhage of the lungs. He was a native of North Carolina, but had resided in Fayette county for about thirty-five years. He was a kind-hearted man and an honest Judge.

MAY MAGAZINES for ladies and gentlemen, and pictorial and picture papers from everywhere, can be seen at Mansford's, corner of Second and Monroe. Also, the largest assortment of dime songsters in Memphis, wholesale and retail.

CHICKASAW IRON WORKS, 98 Second street, are making all kinds of brass and iron castings, general machine work, iron buildings and fronts, verandas, balconies, wrought and cast railings, pipe and sash weights, air and cellar gratings, brass castings, earth augurs, etc. 124

DISGUSTED.—A few days ago the Bench of Magistrates adjourned in disgust with the contested election cases; and yesterday the Quorum Court, disgusted with the development of frauds in the colored precincts at the last election, adjourned and continued the contested cases of the Magistrates of the Fourteenth Civil District until June.

PICNIC.—The picnic season is upon us. Let nobody forget that the St. Mary school picnic takes place at the Menken Place, on Brinkley avenue, on Monday. The proceeds are to be devoted to the purchase of a school library.

JOE LOCKE has just received the Clipper, Police News, New York Weekly, Saturday Night, Boston Pilot, Irish Citizen, Irish American, Appletons' Journal, and dailies from all the principal cities.

WANTED—A good white tonsorial artist immediately—best wages paid. Apply to H. G. Hampe, Overton Hotel barber shop. 49

FOR church books, religious books and stationery, call at Cleaves, Smithwick & Hatcher's. 51

THE ICE CREAM SEASON.—The warm, delightful weather has had the effect of opening the ice cream season, which was commenced in grand style at the establishment of our friend B. Rocco, on the corner of Main and Adams streets, today. Rocco has long had the reputation of being one of the best confectioners in the South, and the delicious ice cream and wholesome cake which he spread before his patrons fully confirmed the fact. His ice cream room is so centrally located that ladies from all parts of the city flock to it for the cooling beverage. It is tastefully carpeted and beautifully ornamented, so as to make it the popular resort of our most fashionable people. There are marble-top tables, mirrors, chandeliers, damask curtains, and all the pharaphernalia of a summer palace. Around the walls are hung the portraits (in oil colors) of General and Mrs. Washington, Generals Lee and Jackson, and nearly all the prominent Confederate Generals. In such a cool and cozy place ladies feel as if they were in paradise while eating the sweet cake and delicious ice cream manufactured by Rocco. His silver soda-water fountain is another grand feature. It is the prettiest thing of the kind we have seen for years. His wines are excellent; and, in fact, everything he keeps and makes is of the best quality. We recommend everybody who desires good ice cream to visit Rocco's little palace.

MEMPHIS THEATER.—There was a full attendance at the matinee to-day. This is the last night of the great Lingard, and those who have not seen him should go and see him. He will give his "Sketches" in grand style. Besides he will appear as Toby Twinkle, in the pretty drama of "All That Glitters is Not Gold," Miss Alice Dunning Lingard appearing as Martha Gibbs. Monday evening the celebrated Peak Family of Swiss Bell Ringers will give one of those charming concerts which have been so much admired by persons of musical taste in Europe and this country. Let Lingard have a bumper to-night. We know there will be a full and fashionable attendance on Monday evening.

WELL, WELL.—Our Christian and generous friend John Lilly, at 351 Main street, never forgets us. To-day he sent us a sample of his Scotch ale and Dublin porter, which the compositors of the LEDGER office, who are good judges, pronounced to be the best they ever drank. All who deal with John (and their number is beyond counting) know that he keeps the best groceries, wines, liquors and cigars always in his store. He is the most obliging man in the world to deal with. Hence his great popularity.

THE COMMERCIAL HOTEL.—There are many echoes in this world; but few voices. And so are there many who attempt the nice responsibility and large undertaking of "running a hotel;" but few succeed in the intricate enterprise. The proprietors of the well-known Commercial rank honorably with the latter. They know how to "keep a hotel," as is substantially affirmed by the skillful management of their house, which is complete in every appointment. We cheerfully commend the Commercial to all wayfarers in search of comfort. The hotel is conveniently located, and the terms are exceedingly moderate. daw

WE would call the attention of the ladies of Memphis to look out during next week for bargains in the way of dress goods, housekeeping goods, hosiery and fancy goods, at M. Kraus & Co.'s, 218 Main street, corner of Adams. For the past week this house has had an immense run of trade, and good bargains were obtained. We were told that this house sold goods low last week, and, as the old saying is, "what everybody says must be true." So convince yourselves the coming week, all that have not been there yet, and give the house a call.

ST. PETER'S SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—On Monday, the 2d of May, the children of St. Peter's Sunday School will hold a picnic in James' Park. Tickets of admission fifty cents. That this will be a grand and pleasant affair is certain. Thousands interested in the welfare and enjoyment of the little ones will be there. A number of new banners, designating the various classes, will be displayed on this occasion adding to the grandeur of the scene.

ST. GEORGE'S BALL.—The St. George's Benevolent Association will hold its fourth annual ball in this city at Cochran Hall on Monday evening next. That the sons of "Merrie England" will enjoy themselves in a jovial and becoming manner is beyond doubt. The ball will be a success beyond the anticipation of the members of the association.

SOCIAL PARTY.—We are informed the Philodemic and Social Club had a very agreeable entertainment at the residence of Mrs. Joe Bruce, on Union street, last evening. It gives us great pleasure to record the unions and reunions of our old and young folks.

WE have tried the "Automatic Steam Laundry," 221 Second street, and take pleasure in recommending it to the public for promptness and beauty of washing. Such an institution is a blessing.

EMMONS & SON, 10 Jefferson street and 63 Beal, have the magazines, weeklies and dailies from all quarters on hand.

CLEAVES, SMITHWICK & HATCHER have the finest assortment of gold pens in the city. 51

INFORMATION WANTED.—A short time ago a Mr. E. H. Lomas left his home in New York and went to Chicago on business. While there he met a person from Memphis who owned a plantation near this place. He induced Mr. Lomas to come with him to work the plantation on shares. It is now four weeks since his friends heard from him, and they fear he may be sick or lost. Any information of his whereabouts will be thankfully received by M. Cohen, Esq., in this city. 49

THE GREAT BENEFACTOR.—There is no doubt but Edward Wilder, the celebrated druggist and chemist of Louisville, is a great benefactor to the human race. His medicines have cured millions. His Sarsaparilla is said to be the most efficient of all the alteratives derived from the vegetable kingdom, and the Iodide of Potassium the most powerful of all those obtained from the mineral world. All who have had large clinical experience are satisfied that either of these substances increases and intensifies the power of the other. The Potash augments the activity of the Sarsaparilla, and this in its turn adds immensely to the virtues of the Potash. His Stomach Bitters invigorate the enfeebled stomach and revive the overwrought system. They add new power to the weakened heart, and sustain the overtaxed brain. Besides being greatly superior to, they are unlike all other bitters, in having for their base pure copper distilled Bourbon whisky. This fact alone has given them a character in the city where they are made, and must commend them to the lovers of the good and the genuine everywhere. His Extract of Wild Cherry has been pronounced by the Pharmaceutical Society of London and Berlin to possess more of the virtues of this invaluable tree than any other ever presented to them. To this extract is added other ingredients derived from the vegetable kingdom, which give an efficiency, activity and power to this remedy which justly entitles it to be called the destroyer of coughs, colds, catarrhs, laryngitis, asthma, influenza and croup. Not one of these affections can withstand it. They yield instantly to its magic power. His Chill Tonic is a certain, a speedy, a permanent cure for every disease arising from miasma or malaria. No form of intermittent or remittent fever can resist it. Quotidian, tertian, quartian, and twenty-one day chills are obliged to yield to it. It is the conqueror of every species of marsh or swamp fever. It is the complete master of brow ague, periodical headache, intermittent neuralgia, splenalgia, or pain in the side, and every variety and modification of intermittent and bilious fever. His Mothers' Worm Syrup is the one thing needed to secure the children against the insidious evils of the many worms which infest their intestinal tract. It is reliable. It is pleasant. It is salubrious. It is safe. It expels round worms, thread worms, and the huge tape worm. It cannot fail. It clears up the skin. It sweetens the temper of the little sufferers. It secures sleep. It brings back the appetite. It relieves the turmid belly. It advances the growth of the child. It restores the roses to its cheek. It saves its teeth. It guards against convulsions, spasms, and St. Vitus' dance. It is far superior to all other medicines for expelling worms. Now is the time to use these remedies.

Rev. J. P. Stuart, minister of the New Church, will preach at the U. S. Court-room to-morrow at 10½ o'clock. In the evening, at 7½ o'clock, he will lecture on the Atonement.

FOR Bibles, prayer-books, Sunday School books, maps, etc., call at Cleaves, Smithwick & Hatcher's. 51

ICE CREAM.—August Berton, the popular confectioner, at the corner of Fourth and Poplar streets, opens his saloon to-day. Berton's ice cream has won a reputation, and we advise all who want the pure article to patronize Berton. A word to the wise is sufficient. 49

CHARLIE HOWARD is crowded nightly. His ice cream, mead and soda water are in great demand. 57

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.—The large hall in Odd Fellows' Building, 252 Main street, so celebrated in lang syne as the place of places, will be opened on Monday, the 25th inst., for the season, as an ice cream saloon, where the elite will be sure to find everthing of the very best served up in style by those prince of confectioners, Podesta & Cazassa, and their efficient assistants. 50

RIVER, BUSINESS, MISCELLANEOUS.

The river has declined 2¼ inches since our last report, making a decline of 8 inches in all. At Cairo yesterday the river fell 18 inches and at St. Louis the decline was 8 inches. At the latter point on Thursday night the river was 24 feet 5 inches above low water mark of 1863, and 16 feet 6 inches below high water mark of 1844. The Missouri and Upper Mississippi with their tributaries are declining. The Ohio is rising at Louisville, with 16 feet 6 inches in the canal, and 13 feet 8 inches over the rapids. At Cincinnati the rise yesterday was 6½ feet, and there was 45 feet in the channel and but 47 feet under the suspension bridge for passing steamers. At Marietta and Pittsburg the river was stationary last night, but will decline to-day. Cumberland and Tennessee rivers are falling. White river is stationary. The Arkansas is falling as rapidly as it rose, and has about 4½ feet to Little Rock.

Weather sultry.

Business on the levee is flat—nothing doing either in receiving or shipments.

The Thos. H. Allen came in from the Arkansas with a moderate trip, and will on Monday return to that stream.

The R. P. Walt came in on one wheel, and will be repaired in time to leave on her next regular day.

The Des Arc takes the Walt's place to-day for White river, going through to Jacksonport, and makes connection at Devall's Bluff with the train for Little Rock and at Jacksonport with the Fairy Queen for all points on Black river. Capt. Riley Kinman goes out in command, and Messrs. Harbon and Hall as clerks.

Notwithstanding the high water the Geo. W. Cheek continues to make all the landings between here and Friar's Point. The Cheek is now at the levee, and will depart at 5 p.m. for the above points. Mark Cheek commands, and Parney Barinds assisted by Chas. Jackson are her secretaries.

Steamboating as a business is not so profitable as many are led to believe. Very few persons who make it a business through life get rich. This fact was illustrated at Nashville a few weeks since, when the widow of a well-known steamboat captain had occasion to swear that her husband "left no money at his death, except $600, and not even a home for herself and little children." Her husband was, up to the time of his death, always in command of the best steamers, and regarded by the public as a wealthy man.

New Orleans rates at Cincinnati were reduced to 40c. per hundred in consequence of the competion between the steamers Edinburg, Wannanita and Alice Dean, which boats are loading at that port for New Orleans.

An unknown woman attempted to drown herself at Cincinnati yesterday by jumping into the river from one of the boats laying at the levee. She was fished out, however, before accomplishing her purpose.

Southern rates at St. Louis remain in a demoralized condition. Flour is taken for New Orleans at from 20 to 25 cents per barrel, and pound freights from 12 to 18 cents per hundred, the former being the barge rates. Memphis rates are 30 cents per barrel for flour and pound freights in proportion. It is more than probable that several steamers will be laid up at that port within a few days, unless an arrangement can be made by the different steamboat lines and the Barge Company to advance rates to a living figure.

The Peninah left St. Louis Thursday for Fort Benton, with 248 tons, and drawing 3½ feet.

The John Kilgour has laid up at Portland.

Competition on the Lower Cumberland is lively. Tobacco is being freighted at $1 50 per hhd., and the boats pay back a rebate to the shipper of 50 cts., and carry the owner for nothing and furnish him with liquor and cigars.

On Wednesday a negro deck hand fell off the C. T. Dumont, while at Lawrenceburg, and was drowned.

Captain Dick Lightburne this morning received a telegram stating that the steamer Indiana would arrive here to-day and leave at 5 p.m. for Cairo and Louisville. The Indiana is well known as one of the finest boats afloat, and will make good time. Rube Neal commands and Charley Miller is her Secretary.

Clarksville papers contain an account of a queer freak of the steamer Bayard a few days since, when the pilot, either drunk, asleep, or absent from his post, let the boat wheel round and make directly for shore under full speed. The water was over the bank some four or five feet, and the Bayard passed over the spot where the bank is in low water, and made full headway for the woods, knocking over two good sized trees, and running between two larger ones was held fast until pulled out by another boat. She sustained little or no damage. The pilot received his salary for that month somewhat earlier than he had been accustomed to.

Captain Joseph M. Bennet, a well known Arkansas river steamboatman, died at St. Louis on Saturday morning last of pneumonia, in the fifty-fourth year of his age. Captain Bennett was engaged in the steamboat business on the Arkansas river as early as 1836. He owned three or four boats of his own, and the last one he run on that river was burned by the order of General Hindman, in the mouth of the Poteau river, in the fall of 1862, on General Blunt's raid into Van Buren.

The St. Louis Democrat says that the St. Louis, Arkansas and White River Packet Company will, in due course, locate wharfboats at all points where they are needed. If that company place wharfboats only at "points where they are needed," they will not contract this season for any more than they now own.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

True Economy

IS FOUND IN THE EUREKA BOOT!

THE FIRST PREMIUM AT THE GREAT St. Louis Fair for 1869 was awarded to the manufacturers of this beautiful boot. It combines all the utility of the sewed boot with the cheapness of the pegged boot. Its construction is in this wise: instead of pegs, a peculiar shaped brass screw is driven into the sole when damp, and smoothly and securely clinched, thus holding the soles and uppers together so tight that they can never rip or give way. They have all the smoothness and elasticity of the sewed boot, and none of the disadvantages attaching to the pegged boot. We sell them at a price but a trifle more than that of the pegged boots; thus we furnish you with something that is indeed economical. We have a fresh stock of all kinds of Boots and Shoes for ladies, gents, misses and children; also a fine line of shoe ornaments, which we will sell at wholesale and retail.
