PUBLIC LEDGER.
 Office: No. 13 Madison Street.

MEMPHIS:
 Friday Evening, Dec. 1, 1871.

FOR MAYOR:
JOHN JOHNSON.

MANY persons who take the PUBLIC LEDGER complain of the late hour at which it reaches them. We regret this, but find it difficult to find a remedy. We endeavor to get to press at two o'clock, but the late arrival of our dispatches renders that impracticable. At all events we will do the best we can, assuring our readers that the later the paper the more interesting it will be.

SNOWED UPON IT.
 Thanksgiving day and snow came together. As the Government at Washington has taken the weather in charge and manages zero generally, may it not have forecast the day the snow would fall, and popped Thanksgiving down on it? Or may not the elements have snowed upon so hollow a mockery as Thanksgiving in this latitude for the people? Perhaps the refugees of Carolina slept in the snow on Wednesday night, and had upon their uncovered heads yesterday the storm, while the baggies of their pursuers sounded in their ears. The "beautiful snow" is a good thing to look upon, but too much of it is not wholesome. Our poor outcasts from their families cannot help but think of the happy days when the laugh and the frolic went round and the sleigh bells rang so sweetly. Poor fellows! Those pleasant days with them are over. The wrath of a merciless government is pursuing them.

THE RADICAL WAY.
 An exchange says a "Union Soldier" writes from South Carolina to his uncle in New York that "a seedy merchant, who five years ago had not garments to protect him in a cooler climate, is now the State Treasurer, and stole $100,000 in one season from the fund to buy lands for the landless." It is not surprising to find that this "wretch" is now the owner of eighteen thousand acres of tillable land. In discussing the financial affairs of South Carolina, the New York Nation (Radical) says this State Treasurer (Niles G. Parker) kept a bar in Haverhill, Mass., before the war. He entered the army, settled as a carpet-bagger in Charleston, opened another grocery, "went into politics," was made an Alderman, cultivated the negro, failed in business, paid thirty cents on the dollar, rose rapidly in politics, became State Treasurer, and is now reputed to be worth a million, and has plenty of diamonds. Put behind such men the most corrupt and ignorant Legislature that ever caricatured free government in a civilized State, and we see why the finances of the State are in so embarrassed a condition as recent developments show.

THE STOKES CASE.
 It is wrong for the newspapers, that every one reads, to prejudice a case that is pending in a court of justice. But it is quite clear from the dispatches concerning the arraignment of Stokes for fraud on the Government, that he will have no easy road to travel. The evidence is strong, if not conclusive. If it be proved that he did things that the law prohibits; if it be proved that he defrauded the Government to the amount of sixty thousand dollars, why should he not be convicted like any other criminal? And this is the man who did not think that men who love their native land should vote nor hold office, because they had been engaged in a great war, or sympathized with its cause. This pattern of loyalty, this planned bird of the mountains, may come out through a whitewashing machine, but people will always think that such a man was the last one who should have been proscribed.

BLOODY CUBA.
 It is a serious offense in Havana to demolish a grave. Some time since some students, mere youths, demolished the grave of Gonzalo Castanon. They were arrested, tried by court-martial and condemned. Eight of them were recently shot, but the majority were sentenced to imprisonment. This Cuban government is a bloody spot in the civilization of the age. It is a nuisance among nations, and should be abolished. If we had a government that could elevate its mind above a gift, or a sore-talented colt, the thing would be done. The slaughter of the human race goes on rapidly enough among themselves. But when governments, for trivial offenses, commence the work, it is time to look for a remedy. Cuba, as now governed, is of no earthly use to the world. Humanity cries out against it when it murders school boys for some foolish pranks. But what does this government care?

WAR WITH SPAIN.
 The latest sensation in war with Spain. The result will be uncertain. But what effect will it have on the Cuban rebellion? We imagine that a new swarm of carpet-baggers are stuffing their bags for a trip to Cuba, in anticipation of its conquest, and the good stealing to be got there.

THE latest sensation in war with Spain. The result will be uncertain. But what effect will it have on the Cuban rebellion? We imagine that a new swarm of carpet-baggers are stuffing their bags for a trip to Cuba, in anticipation of its conquest, and the good stealing to be got there.

CONNECTICUT.
 GREENWICH, December 1.—The American Club House at Indian Point has been seized by the deputy sheriff under an execution procured by Fitch, the builder, of Norwalk. It is supposed the movement is simply to protect the property from seizure in New York, by suits against the ring.

FOREIGN.
 LONDON, December 1.—The Prince of Wales passed rather a restless and uneasy night, the fever being slightly increased. The Medical Bulletin, issued from Handing House this morning, announces his condition less favorable than yesterday, and apprehends immediate danger from the change.

MISSISSIPPI is very quiet after the late election. And so we shall be after our municipal contest is over.

THE SHOW lies beautifully on the Nicholson pavement, and the Tribune lies splendidly on the Ku-Klux.

THE EARL of Chesterfield died yesterday from typhus fever after a short illness.

BRUSSELS, November 30.—The opening of a new boulevard in this city today was made the occasion of a renewal of the disturbances of the past week. The people, who had assembled to the number of several thousand, displayed great hostility toward several Government officials who were present, and who had made themselves obnoxious to the populace by their action in regard to ministerial troubles. A detachment of the civic guard was ordered to disperse the crowd, but the soldiers refused to proceed against the people, and openly fraternized with the citizens. Considerable excitement still prevails in the city.

VIENNA, November 30.—Count Androsy, the newly selected Premier, has issued a circular defining the policy to be pursued by the new ministry. The peaceful policy of his predecessor, Von Beust, Count Androsy says, will be closely followed.

MARSKVILLE, November 30.—Mr. Craziens, convicted of being a leader in the late Communist agitation, was executed this morning. The condemned man conducted himself firmly, and met his fate with apparent resignation.

OF "PROFESSORS," one of our exchanges, the Goodman Star, says with truth, that perhaps there is no word in our language more shamefully abused in its application to men than the word "professor." It is applied indiscriminately to every strolling showman, to every veripetate vendor of patent medicines, to every perambulating carrier of corns and bunions, to every honored head of a literary institution and the manager-in-chief of every scientific organization. Every teacher of a little school, who rules with a birchen rod, the destinies of some fifteen or twenty fifty-faced children, is now dubbed a "professor," and the result is, the land swarms with them.

THE CINCINNATI MONOPOLISTS.
 Our neighbor Jefferson street comes to the front this morning to apologize for the Cincinnati capitalists who are making preparations to saddle on this community a water monopoly, coupled with the further purpose of destroying the present gas company, and setting up in its stead an institution possessing all the odious features we were so familiar with in the halcyon days of Thompson Dean and his man Fitch. Our position is plain and simple: We are for protecting Memphis capital and Memphis people against Cincinnati extortion. The works of the present company are ample and sufficient to supply the city; the quality of the gas is superior to that of any other company can introduce; hence there is no more necessary for other gas works than Mrs. Toadies had for a second-hand door plate. Now, if Mrs. Toadies' investment was a good one, so also will be a useless gas works. The Cincinnati capital will be of the same character as that invested by the same parties in shot and shell, to be fired into this city. Both are devices wherewith to extort money. The one kind of iron enabled our enemies to possess our towns and cities, subvert our institutions, and quarter upon us herds of hungry vermin to eat up our substance; the other will compass the same end. Instead of carpet-bag rulers in public places we will have them in private corporations; in any event our tribute must be forthcoming. Our neighbor asserts that the Cincinnati company is in the hands of Memphis people; we challenge the assertion, and ask in all candor and fairness that he print the stock list of that company, and let us see whether he or we be right. If there be a sufficient amount of bona fide Memphis capital—not mere names—in the institution to control it, and it can be so shown to us, we will withdraw our objections. Frankly, we do not believe any such thing exists; otherwise, why has a delay of nearly two years occurred since the injunction was dissolved allowing Donovan and other stockholders to their case.

NEW YORK.
 New York, December 1.—The Grand Duke and suite attended Thanksgiving service at the Greek Church yesterday. All present remained standing throughout the entire services. He visits West Point to-day, where he will be formally received by the military officers of the post and cadets. He will, as usual, be accompanied by the Citizens' Reception Committee and also by a few invited guests.

Numerous French Radical Republicans in this city have issued a call for a mass meeting for the purpose of protesting against the execution of General Rossel, Communist, by their Government.

Mr. Charles O'Connor, who was expelled by the citizens of York county, S. C., to defend persons now in prison in that county under the Ku-Klux law, has declined to act as counsel in their defense.

Ex-Controller Connolly has been allowed the use of Warden Tracer's apartments in the Ludlow street jail, and has been visited by numerous friends since his incarceration.

General Arthur took possession of the Collector's office, and Murphy retired without ceremony. The new Collector re-appointed all the deputies.

LOUISVILLE.
 Louisville, December 1.—Thomas W. Lindsey, distributing clerk at the post office here was arrested by a detective this morning while in the act of stealing letters from the mail, and eleven letters from various parts were found on his person. For some time it has been known to the postoffice authorities that stealing from the mails was going on at this office, several letters of value having been missed. Detectives were placed at work with the above result.

NEW ORLEANS.
 New Orleans, December 1.—The steambot Great Republic arrived yesterday morning at three o'clock. Captain Thorngren, commanding states that when about ten or eleven miles below Baton Rouge, at four o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, a difficulty took place between a man named C. W. Cheney, a colored roustabout, and some deck passengers—the latter threatening to kill Cheney, and the latter to carry their threat into execution when Cheney drew a revolver and fired promiscuously among the crowd, killing one man and wounding two others. One of the wounded is not expected to recover, but the other received only a slight flesh wound. Cheney, after the shooting, surrendered himself to the Captain, who, on arriving at this port, gave him in charge of the police. The origin of the difficulty was in regard to some remarks made by Cheney about a stolen coat.

AMUSEMENTS.
MEMPHIS THEATER.—The Royal Saturnian Japanese Troupe attracts large audiences to the theater every evening. The performance given by these children from the land of the Tycoon and Daimios is of a most interesting and entertaining character. The rig of Yedo, whom Train describes so graphically, perform each evening on the swinging bamboo poles and wire rope, the latter performance being wonderful, the walker traversing, whirling and lying down on a wire rope and using an umbrella as a balance-pole. The legermain tricks are novelties in this line, while the bamboo, ladder, top-whirling and top-spinning tricks are superior to anything exhibited by any other troupe. The everlasting fan is used on all occasions and under all circumstances by these descendants of the Mongol Tartars. The "Japs" will give a grand entertainment this evening, a matinee to-morrow, and will close their engagement in this city to-morrow night.

THE MOVING CONCERTS.—The Eastern musical critics became enraptured with this charming cantatrice, who will sing at the Memphis Theater on next Monday and Tuesday nights. Her recent concert at Steiway Hall, New York, is described by a Sun reporter as follows: "The entrance of Mrs. Charles Moulton upon the professional life of a vocalist, from a social point of view, was an event of sufficiently signal importance to bring together at Steiway Hall on Monday evening a great number of those who make up the most cultivated and refined class of society in this city. It was such an audience of gossamer only on rare occasions called together by some name held in special honor and esteem. No amateur in private life, whether in this city or abroad, has received it, and it is safe to say, such homage as has Mrs. Moulton. Until now she has never brought herself within the rightful sphere of criticism, and has, of course, received from society nothing but praise. And that this has been deserved no one who heard her on Monday evening can doubt. A more charming drawing-room singer in the most capacious listener could not be left to be desired in the matter of vocalization. Ascending and descending the scales were never sung with a more delicate ease and finish than by her. The true Italian method and the Italian voice, as well as the Italian style, she is a most rare singer, and within her limits, well nigh perfect."

Brooks.—The manager of the Jefferson street Opera House manages to fill his house nightly by presenting a fine programme for the amusement of his guests. The performance to-night will consist of comic and sentimental songs, comic dances, lightning vocal changes, clown dances, and sensational dramas, never presented before in this city.

Mrs. Lucy Adams, character and change vocalist, has left Memphis to fulfill an engagement in New Orleans. Miss Adams is very attractive, and in her lightning character changes she gives a pure, graceful and piquant performance, and on that account, wherever she appears, is entitled to large attendance and warm appreciation. Miss Adams has the good fortune to possess an elegant personal and costume splendidly. If we understand the lady's ambition right it will cause her to emulate the success obtained by many of the most celebrated burlesque actresses.

OLYMPIC VARIETIES.—The old Washington street theater, with its brilliant calcium light, flourishes under the popular Manager Lusk, who knows well how to cater to the public taste. The programme for this evening is filled with rare attractions which will not fail to secure a full house. Everybody is invited to attend the Olympic this evening. A new version of the Can-Can will be presented.

DIED.
 GREENE—In this city, yesterday, at the residence of J. C. Moore, Esq., of consumption, Mr. James J. Greene, aged 72 years. The friends of the family are invited to attend his funeral, from St. Peter's Church, this (FRIDAY) afternoon at 2 o'clock.
