ASK the recovered dyspeptics, bilious sufferers, victims of fever and ague, the mercurial diseased patient, how they recovered health, cheerful spirits and good appetites; they will tell you by taking SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World!

Containing those Southern Roots and Herbs which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail. It will cure all Diseases caused by Derangement of the Liver and Bowels.

The SYMPTOMS of Liver Complaint are a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; Pain in the Back, Side or Joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; Sour Stomach; Loss of Appetite; Bowels either too costive and lax; Headaches; Loss of Memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; Debility; Low Spirits, a thick yellow appearance of the Skin and Eyes, a dry Cough often mistaken for Consumption.

Sometimes many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others very few; but the LIVER is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.

The following highly esteemed persons attest to the virtues of Simmons' Liver Regulator: Gen. W. S. Holt, Pres. Ga. S. W. R. R. Co.; Rev. J. R. Peck, Perry, Ga.; Col. E. K. Sperry, Albany, Ga.; Masterman, Esq., Sheriff Bibb Co., Ga.; Hon. Alexander H. Stephens.

"We have tested its virtues, personally, and know that, for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache it is the best medicine the world ever saw. We tried forty other remedies before Simmons' Liver Regulator, but none gave us more than temporary relief; but the Regulator not only relieved, but cured us."—E. TELEGRAPH AND MESSENGER, Macon, Ga.

ENCOURAGING NEWS.

Portiality of the Western Union New York and Jersey by Bryan—The Outlook Generally Cheerful.

Regular Correspondence of THE HERALD.

Washington, September 14, 1896.—It is not an accident that all the big corporations are supporting McKinley and opposing Bryan. The republican platform and candidate stand for that they want—while the democratic conditions, financial and otherwise—while the democratic candidates and platform stand for what they do not want—reform in our financial and industrial system in order that the common people may have as many privileges as those who are interested in trusts and monopolies. The position of the corporations is strikingly illustrated by the Western Union Telegraph Company, which carries all messages sent from republican headquarters free of charge, while they compel the democratic committee to pay for every telegram it sends.

Senator Faulkner, who returned from New York Saturday, brought cheering news. In company with Senator Jones he saw and talked with a number of the most influential democratic leaders while he was there, and he says that the democrats are preparing to put up a fight in New Jersey that will surprise the republicans and that he believes will come very near to carrying both states for Bryan, if it doesn't do it.

Tom Watson is not making any friends among democrats by his headstrong and foolish talk, and many of the populists have expressed their regret that he was nominated. His threats, although they are probably the cause of the failure of the populists leaders in some of the states to make fair terms with the democrats will amount to little or nothing in the end. Speaking of the failure of fusion in some of the states, Senator Faulkner said: "It matters little what the leaders do. The people will vote as they please, regardless of arrangements made for them by the leaders. In both Alabama and Arkansas, the democrats carried the strong populist counties, showing that the rank and file will vote for the Bryan ticket."

In view of the positive assertions of republicans that Wisconsin is sure to go for McKinley, the following statement made by Mr. R. C. Hines, of that state, who is now in Washington, is interesting: "In reality the republicans are very much afraid that McKinley will not win, and they admit privately that Bryan has an immense following. The recent convention of the Republican League of Clubs in Milwaukee was a perfect failure. Preparations had been made for entertaining a tremendous crowd of delegates and visitors. The proper permission has been obtained and he will make his speech from the East front of the Capitol building.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

A Company Not Liable for Delays Caused by a Strike.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 16.—That delay is excusable when caused by strikers intimidating those who would take their places is the conclusion of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in the case of the Empire Transportation Company, appellants, vs. the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, appellee. A shipment of coal could not be unloaded within the time specified in the contract and damages were asked, but the court holds the delay caused by "the strike of the employes of the charterer without grievance or wrongdoing and the organized and successful effort on their part to prevent by threats, intimidation and violence, other laborers who are willing to do so from discharging a vessel," is excusable and the charterer is not liable for damages.

CLEOPATRA'S MUMMY.
 From St. Paul's, London.

Where does Cleopatra's body rest? Scarcely a layman would not answer "Why, in Egypt!"

After her cajoleries, her wiles, her life of intense, if not very exalted, loves, Cleopatra was laid in one of the loveliest tombs that have ever been fashioned by the hand of man. But what a change 2000 years has brought about!

Today an ugly mummy with an emblematic bunch of decayed wheat and a coarse comb tied to its head—a mere roll of tightly swathed dust—lies crumbled in a hideous glass case at the British Museum. It is Cleopatra, the once great queen, a Venus in charm, beauty and love.
