SANGER BROS.

This is our Great Carpet Week.

For sometime we intended to call the attention of the public

To the Astonishing Low Prices in Carpets.

but on account of the tremendous rush in this department we have not been able to prepare elaborate advertisements, but now, however, we announce with pleasure that our

Spring stock Of Carpets and Curtains is almost all received and notwithstanding the advance in prices on the same

Extensive Carpet Strikes

and the shortness of goods on the market, we are fully prepared to maintain the very lowest figures, because our buyers had taken advantage of the low prices, which had ruled the Carpet trade the last three months.

we Have Bought Very Heavily

so we will be enabled for the entire spring trade to continue on exceedingly low prices which we have given during the last few days.

WE GUARANTEE OUR PRICES

We Keep None But Choice Goods.

Our Patterns are the Latest.

Cameron, Castles & Storey,

Wholesale Grocers,

WACO.

WHY IS IT WE CAN DELIVER GOODS TO OUR CUSTOMERS CHEAPER THAN THE MARKET OF GALVESTON OR NEW ORLEANS?

BECAUSE—WHEN GOODS ARE AT "ROCK BOTTOM" PRICES, WE GO INTO THE MARKET WITH CASH, PURCHASE IN LARGE QUANTITIES DIRECT FROM MANUFACTURERS AND PLANTERS, AND WHEN THE ADVANCE COMES, GIVE OUR CUSTOMERS BENEFIT OF SAME.

OUR THREE COMPETING RAILROADS ENABLE US TO OBTAIN AS LOW RATE OF FREIGHTS INTO WACO, AND THREE FOURTHS LESS FREIGHTS TO OUR CUSTOMERS THAN EITHER OF THE ABOVE CITIES.

BY PURCHASING OUR COFFEES IN RIO JANERIO, AND POSSESSING THE LOWEST RATE OF FREIGHTS, ENABLES US TO SELL AT SAME PRICES AS GALVESTON OR NEW ORLEANS.

OUR RECENT HEAVY SALES DEMONSTRATE THE ABOVE FACTS.

Yours Faithfully,

CAMERON, CASTLES & STOREY.

B. HABER'S SPACE!

I will occupy this space in a few days with announcements of new arrivals in

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS,

now in transit. Thanking my friends for their patronage in the past and soliciting its continuance for the future (as I shall be better prepared than ever before to please), I remain very truly yours.

SETTLED SUNDAY!

The Warriors for Wages and the Company to Caucus.

An Intimation as to the Shape of the Proposed Compromise Wedge!

The Passenger Engineers in Texas are Said to be Getting "Skittish!"

The Condition of Affairs at Principal Points Remains Stat Quo!

THE STRIKE.

A Very Important Conference to be Held Sunday.

St. Louis, March 13.—At a private conference of Vice-Presidents Hayes and Hoxie and General Solicitor Brown, of the Gould lines, about strike matters, held here to-day, a telegram was received from Gov. Martin, of Kansas, saying he would be here Sunday with the railway commissioner of Kansas to discuss the situation. Gov. Marmaduke, of Missouri, will also attend, and it is expected the meeting will determine the future attitude of the two states and the railway toward the strikers. Status quo will be maintained till then by the road.

THE ENGINEERS GETTING NERVOUS.

special to the Examiner.

Fort Worth, March 13.—Another complication threatens to add itself to the strike troubles. Engineers of the passenger trains are, it is said, beginning to become distrustful of the condition of the roads, which they assert have become unsafe since the section men quit work.

THE COMPROMISE WEDGE.

St. Louis, March 13.—It is alleged that the strikers at Sedalia have expressed a willingness to resume work and continue till April 1st at our rates if the railway officials will enter into a written agreement, at that time, to restore wages prevailing prior to last September and continue them for one year and also make the agreement apply to the men on the Gould system. It is said this proposition was submitted to Gov. Brown, general solicitor of the company, but the truth cannot be ascertained here. It is reported from Sedalia that Adjutant-General Jamison has no faith in the promises of the strikers, while on the other the state labor commissioner is credited with believing that the men will stand by their word and that the difficulty can be adjusted on the above basis.

"STATUS QUO."

St. Louis, March 13.—The restoration of wages made Wednesday evening to the men working in the Missouri Pacific shops in this city has been extended to all men employed in the large machine and car shops on the Iron mountain road at De Soto, forty miles south of here, and the men are highly commended for their loyalty to the company.

GOV. MARMADUKE'S PROCLAMATION.

St. Louis, Mo., March 13.—Gov. Marmaduke issued a proclamation late last night warning the strikers and all persons associated with them that interfering with the movement of engines and trains and the intimidation of other persons who may be willing and desire to work is unlawful and calling on all county and municipal officers to promptly enforce the laws, and commanding all individuals or combinations of individuals in any way engaged or concerned in interfering with the free traffic of railroads in the intimidation of their employes, to desist at once and without further warning.

AT ATCHISON, KAN.

St. Louis, March 13.—An Atchison, Kan., special to the Post Dispatch says: No material change in the situation here, except the strikers appear more confident, and profess to believe their demands will be complied with. Public sympathy continues to be with them. The attorney of the road expresses the opinion the end is not probable for several days. No committee has yet gone from here to consult officers of the road. It is rumored if there is not a speedy adjustment the engineers will join the strike.

AT KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, March 14.—The status of the railroad strike here is unaltered. The governor's proclamation has made no change in the situation to-day.

NINETEENTH LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

special to the Examiner.

Austin, March 13.—Senator Peacock, for committee on public lands, reported back the bill to donate all the public domain to the free schools with a substitute.

Bills were introduced as follows:

House bill requiring railroads to furnish a sworn statement of full and true value of rolling stock to county assessor.

The bill changing Brazos county to the Galveston branch of the supreme court.

House bill regulating the waiver of service.

The gambling bill was further considered, Houston, of Wheeler, offered an amendment including bucket shops. Pending discussion on the amendment and fill the senate adjourned until 8 o'clock at night.

NIGHT SESSION.

Discussing of the gambling bill was continued. The usual night session scene followed. The senators delivered long windied speeches and bid with vim for the applause of the lobbies. The amendments finally carried and the bill passed to engrossment. On a motion to reconsider and a further motion to table that motion filibustering tactics followed. Calls of the house were made without number. Two senators were snatched from the embraces of Morpheus and brought into the chamber, each being received with applause. Finally at about 11:30 o'clock the senate was summoned as full. The opposition of the bill, eager and groggy, refused to vote and no quorum could be had to vote. A scene of confusion and excitement followed. In the debate that followed during the next hour and a quarter many personalities were indulged in, going to such an extent that apologies were necessary to calm the troubled waters. At 12:30 o'clock enough senators voted to make a quorum and the motion to table the motion of reconsideration carried. The passage the bill as far as the senate is concerned, but the bill goes back to the house for concurrence in the amendments.

The bill as now passed by the senate has the felony clause eliminated, but increases the present penalties by providing that both a fine and imprisonment in the county jail shall be imposed. The fine shall be from $25 to $50; the imprisonment from ten to ninety days.

HOUSE.

Substitute house bill 28, amending sections 56 and others of the school law, was considered.

Pending amendment by Mr. Bishop that not more than one school for white and one for colored children shall be organized in towns of not over 800 inhabitants was adopted.

The bill was engrossed by a vote of 76 ayes to 27 noes.

Substitute house bill 301, relating to banking, requiring reports to the comptroller of the state of resources and liabilities of banking business done in this state, except national banks, was engrossed.

Bills passed:

Senate bill regulating herding of sheep; senate bill for relief of W. S. Booth; house bill, adding "gross failure" to title and duties of office of commissioner of insurance.
