Mrs. Kate Raymond Howe Arrested for Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses.

The EXAMINER copies the following from the New Orleans Times-Democrat of last Saturday. It will be remembered that Mrs. Howe lectured in this city last December. Chief of Aids Bossard and Detective C. F. Rasmus, of Colorado, yesterday morning arrested Mrs. Kate Howe charging her with being a defrauder from justice. Neither of the officers had ever seen Mrs. Howe or had ever received any description of her, but Rasmus did not anticipate any trouble in locating the fugitive, for having read in the newspapers that she was in New Orleans creating a sensation among the veterans of the late war, he was confident that she would be found there. The instant they entered the building they saw a tall woman, who attracted their attention, and inquired if they were the police. She was Mrs. Howe. And so it proved and they arrested her and her husband. Mrs. Howe was at first afraid as a dangerous and suspicious character, but the charges were subsequently withdrawn and Howe was discharged.
