B. HABER.

It is getting time to shove off odds and ends, the Summer season being pretty well advanced, some popular lines of goods have had a good run, on account of which they have been ordered over and over again, these particular lines we are now very anxious to sell, and in order to make them so we made such reductions as will sell them, even though the customer should not have any particular use for them, the smallest cut we are making this week, is 25 per cut. on former prices. Now we will start out on Embroideries.

Embroideries! Embroideries!!

Hamburg Edgings, nice qualities 3 1-2c
Hamburg Edging good width 5c.
Hamburg Edging 4 1-2c.
Hamburg Edging 6 1-2c
Hamburg Edging 7c., and all the way up to 50c per yd., of course we have a cheaper line of Embroideries, but the line named above is of the very best quality and not an undesirable pattern in the lot, they are worth 25 per cent. more than the price we are selling them for.

Swiss and Lawn Embroideries.

We have a large line of these in all widths, ranging from 10c. to 50c per yard, in this line we are showing the biggest drive ever offered in this market.

We are offering a line of Torchon laces, and insertions from 2 to 5c per yard, by which you can judge how cheap goods are selling.

White Goods and Lawns.

We are still rushing the printed linen lawns at 15, 16 1-2, 18, 22 1-2, 25 and 30c per yard, every yard of which is worth nearly double that price.

Our white piques are selling down, they are the greatest bargain ever sold in this market. We are selling them at 8 1-3c per yd.

We have a big lot of India lawns left which we have reduced in prices until there is no bottom left.

Our colored Victoria lawns have been reduced to 16 2-3c per yd.; they won't take hot cakes all this summer at 25c.

This is an Opportunity for Bargains and no ONE Should MISS IT.

INDIANS QUIETING DOWN

Washington, July 13.—The war department is in receipt of dispatches from the Indian Territory which say: "Disaffected Indians are becoming quiet and there is a favorable outlook for the settlement of the Indian trouble."

Secretary Bayard telegraphed from Wilmington today that Mrs. Bayard seemed a little stronger than this morning.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

Washington, July 13.—The Evening Star gives prominence to the following: "The president has called a halt. A little over a week ago the order went out to all departments that all dismissals and appointments to fill places now vacant must stop at once. A week ago a stop was put to all work in the appointment division of the treasury department and the appointment clerk was told that no more commissions were to be made out or papers considered until further orders, and a lot of charges that were contemplated by him were killed in their conception. Commissioner of Pensions Black was sent for personally by the president and was given to understand that the offensive partisanship cry had become too indefinite in its meaning and that no more charges in his official force were to be made until there was a thorough understanding on the subject with the president, and the result was that orders for a number of changes in the pension office were countermanded and everything put at a standstill. The president, it is understood, has laid in understanding with the heads of the post-office and other departments. He declares his policy to be to stand by the civil-service reform declarations in his letter of acceptance, in his letter to Curtis and in his address on the 4th of March. Removal for cause must be held to mean that, and not removal with excuses. The result is that the ax has been stuck in the block for the past week and is still there. How far the thing is to go can be merely surmised, but it is believed that the president is decidedly in earnest and does not intend that his declarations shall be ignored.

Indians and Cowboys Need no Guns.

Chicago, July 13.—Senator J. K. Jones of the sub-committee appointed to investigate the Indian troubles in Dakota has arrived here from Arkansas en route to the scene of the committee's labor. Speaking of the trouble between cattlemen of the Indian Territory and the Cheyenne and Arapahoe tribes, Mr. Jones said he thought a great amount of good would result from the enforcement of laws prohibiting the carrying of revolvers by cow-boys and Indians. There was no necessity he thought for every cattleman and Indian in the country to constitute himself a walking arsenal.

Dread Disaster on a Lake.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 13.—Shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a heavy wind and rain storm passed over Lake Minnetonka. A small steam yacht, the Minnie Cook, with eight persons on board, was capsized and the entire party drowned. The news of the accident spread rapidly and created the widest excitement when it was known that all the victims resided here. The names of the unfortunate party are: Ex-Mayor A. C. Rand and wife, Mary Rand and her two sons, Harvey and Frank Rand; J. K. Cockindal and his wife Kate Cockindal and Geo. McDonald, the engineer. Two bodies have been recovered. The storm is described by eye-witnesses on the log boats as terrific. The waves rolled high, the spray, rain and hail filling the air. The large steamers put into the shore with great difficulty. It was impossible for the small crafts to live in the terrible sea and storm.

SEARCHING FOR THE DEAD.

Wayzata, Minn., July 13.—Divers are at work trying to recover the bodies of those lost in last night's storm. The bodies of Mayo Rand, Frank Rand and Katie Cockendal were recovered in about a hundred feet of water.

HAMPTON AND JACKSON.

The Part the Former had in Saving the Latter at Bull Run.

Charleston, S. C., July 13.—The News and Courier published a long letter from General Wade Hampton correcting errors in the recent articles of Generals Johnson and Imboden touching the first battle of Manassas or Bull Run. General Hampton shows that the Hampton legion, 600 strong, which he commanded, arrested the victorious columns of Sherman and Key, who were driving the confederate forces back, and that the legion so delayed the federal advance as to enable reinforcements to be brought up. The News and Courier gives an elaborate review of the battle, the history of which it claims must now be rewritten. Its conclusions are that Hampton was to Jackson at Manassas what Jackson was to the whole confederate left. Hampton saved Stonewall Jackson and saved the army, and it was the magnificent fighting of the legion against terrible odds that gave Jackson time to bring his troops into position. Had he not had an opportunity to form the Virginians, who afterward stood like a stone wall, the battle would have been irretrievably lost. The opportunity to form those Virginians was given to Jackson by Hampton and his men, and was given by them alone.

Iowa Democrats Favor License.

Dubuque, Ia., July 13.—The Key City Democratic club, composed of leading business and professional men, has adopted a resolution in favor of having the state democrat convention adopt a plank declaring for the repeal of prohibition and the adoption, in its stead, of a license law of $500 with proper bond and restrictions, similar to the Nebraska law. This action is considered as significant as coming from Dubuque where an intense anti-prohibition sentiment prevails.

A $5000 Highbinned Robber.

Kington, Ont., July 13.—Duncan McKenzie of this city has been arrested for alleged complicity in the robbery of five thousand dollars at Harrison, Michigan about a year ago while a circus was at that place. The town treasurer was gagged and bound to a chair at 2 o'clock at night and the sum named was extracted from his safe. McKenzie admits having been at Harrison at the time but denies that he had anything to do with the robbery. The case will be argued as soon as the American sheriff arrives.

Cholera Increasing in Spain.

Madrid, July 13.—There were 1113 new cases of cholera reported in Spain yesterday, and 665 deaths. The cholera has broken out in four places in the province of Leon. Where 42 new cases were reported yesterday and 18 deaths.

The official report shows a total of 30,887 cases in Spain since the inception of the scourge up to last evening and a total of 15,555 deaths.

German Diplomatic Changes.

Berlin, June 13.—There are rumors of some important diplomatic changes. Prince Hohenlohe, the present German ambassador at Paris will, it is said, succeed the late Baron Manteuffel as governor of Alsace-Lorraine and Count Von Munster, ambassador to England, will take the embassy at Paris, while Count Von Hatzfeldt will go to London.

Mexican Editors in New York.

New York, July 13.—The Mexican editors were entertained this morning by the Press club and then visited Mayor Grace at the city hall where greetings were exchanged. A visit was made to Brooklyn bridge and the produce exchange, and afterwards a trip to Coney Island.

New Orleans, July 13.—The World's Exposition plant, buildings and machinery, were sold at auction today for $125,000. They were bid on by Mr. Newman but were probably purchased by the New Exposition Company.

A Dude Dollar Store "Busted."

The Chas. A. Fowl, St. Bernard Dollar store made an assignment this afternoon to Jno. H. Bobbe. The assets are listed at $5,000 the liabilities are not stated. The general depression in business is given as the cause of the failure.

GALVESTON.

Custom-house Heads Lopped Off—A big School of Fish.

Galveston, July 13.—Today the order of the secretary of the treasury went into effect, reducing the force of the collector of customs from thirty-five to twenty-eight men. The reduction includes two day and two night inspectors, the import clerk, and abolishes the sub-port at Houston and Sanberandino. The order has special significance from fact that several years past the number of employes in the collectors department has been thirty-five and retrenchment is considered as evidence of intention to run the machine by diminished numbers.

THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

Mobile Gazette.

London, July 13.—The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon in response to a request for its opinion as to the nature of the changes required in the present English criminal law makes several important suggestions. It advocates:

1. An addition to the criminal act raising the age at which females children may legally consent to sexual conduct from thirteen years the present period, to sixteen years.

2. The extension of the law prohibiting soliciting to both sexes.

3. Denial of any additional power over women to the police that will be aimed at the suppression of crime and not at the suppression of vice that is complete legal liberty for voluntary immorality between adults contracting on equal terms, but vigorous repression of criminality in all cases in which the parties are under age or where the elements of free and intelligent consent are absent.

4. Greatly increased stringency of the laws against prostitution.

The Gazette in an editorial commenting upon the results of its revelations, declares that its "trumpet blast has roused the world." "No word was raised yesterday in the churches against us," continues the paper, "but all the forces of wickedness in high places are arrayed against us. The Hon. W. H. Smith & Sons, possessing the monopoly of the news stands on the railway system of England, have suppressed the sales of The Pall Mall Gazette the Prince of Wales has stopped his paper. The Right Hon. Mr. Bentick is posing in parliament in the name of outraged morality and clamors for our extinction. The Gazette did not undertake this inquiry to unearth the vices of the great but if we are driven to bay, we will become compelled by the action of our assailants to speak out and spare none.

SPURGEON'S WHACK AT VICE.

London, July 13.—Rev. Mr. Spurgeon yesterday preached a powerful sermon on the patrician iniquity of London as exposed by the Pall Mall Gazette during the past week. Mr. Spurgeon took for his text the 14th verse second chapter of the Epistle of Paul to the Romans, which is quoted in defense of the Pall Mall Gazette's work in making its revelations. Paul, so the preacher said, felt it necessary to mention the hideous vices of the heathens and left on record an exposure of the sins of his day which crimsoned the cheek of the modest when they read it, but it had to be written to shame the abominations of the age almost past shame. There was judgment for sin in this world, for both men and nations. Assyria, Babylon, Persia, Rome and Egypt were empires of oppression and cruelty and full of iniquity. When the sin of these people could no longer be tolerated, then they were wiped off the face of the earth, thus of all nations, but no one could tell what blood shedding and suffering must come upon men for their iniquities.

"Why should London," exclaimed the preacher, "be more favored than Rome? What is there about our beautiful race on this or the other side of the Atlantic that we should monopolize God's favor? God will judge men's secret sins—sins too vile to be spoken of and which cause the nation to shudder if dragged, as they ought to be, into the daylight. Deeds of the night, of the closed rooms—done when the finger is put upon the lip and the act committed which must never be mentioned lest the man himself be regarded as an outcast, abhorred even of his fellow sinners; all, all shall be revealed. All that we have, for our own comfort, blinded our eyes to and averted our gaze from things inconvenient to see, but it shall be revealed. We here make a difference between the sect and the public but God does not. Every secret sin is secret only by a living fraction of the imagination. It is public before God. It is necessary for the church to warn men of what will happen if they continue in their sins and not to keep them in a false paradise with the idea that they shall be sent to hell's damnation. It becomes every preacher to cry aloud and spare not one.

THE WIMBLEDON MATCH.

London, July 13.—The rifle match at Wimbledon was opened today in splendid weather and with a full company.

THE GAZETTE'S LEAVEN.

London, July 13.—A mass meeting of women was held in Princess Hall this afternoon to consider ways and means to protect young girls from the horrible pitfalls of London as revealed by the Pall Mall Gazette. Mrs. Booth and other ladies made eloquent addresses. The meeting resolved that the laws on the subject should forthwith be made more efficient, denounced state regulations of vice, demanded the total repeal of the contagious disease act and that the "age of consent" be raised from 13 to 18 years. The meeting also voted to send copies of the records of its proceedings to the house of commons.

A COUNTY CATTLE.

Waterford, July 13.—The anniversary of the battle of Boyne yesterday caused a large increase in the usual Sunday number of drunken men to be seen on the streets last night. Among them were many of the soldiers belonging to a Welsh regiment doing garrison duty here. A number of citizens got into a drunken row with the soldiers during which the latter bayonetted to death one of the former. The commotion attracted crowds of men to the scene and when the civilians realized that one of their number had been killed, they became furious and fell upon the soldiers with such fierceness that the latter were compelled to beat a hasty retreat to their barracks. The mob followed them up, but being threatened with powder and ball if they attempted to force an entrance to the barracks, they contented themselves with smashing the windows of the barracks with rocks. The rage of the populace was so great this morning that it was deemed best to transfer the Welsh regiment to some other place. This was done immediately and as the soldiers marched from the barracks to the railway station, surrounded by policemen, the mob followed hooting and yelling. Several Parnellite members of parliament have telegraphed that they will bring the matter before the government and demand immediate inquiry into the outrage. It is generally believed that the soldiers began the row.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

London, July 13.—In the house of commons, Mr. Burke, under secretary of foreign affairs, stated that nothing had yet been finally arranged by the present government for an arbitration to determine whether the Russian attack on Penjdeh was consistent with Russia's promise previously made to England. Mr. Buchanan, liberal member for Lanarkshire, City, asked whether it was true that the British intended to establish a cantonment near Candahar in Afghanistan. Lord Randolph Churchill replied "The honorable member seems to forget that Afghanistan is an independent state." Sir Michael Hicks Beach, chancellor of the exchequer stated that the government would erect a monument to Gen. Gordon and would propose a credit therefor.

Bentick a conservative member for Whitehaven asked the home department whether the Pall Mall Gazette's action against the London police in connection with that paper's revelations of impurity in the city was true. Sir Richard Asheton Cross, home secretary replied that if the facts were as stated by the Gazette the fullest inquiry would be made and that he considered it his duty to endeavor to get to the bottom of charges.

During the discussion of army supplementary estimates, Mr. G. H. Smith war secretary, touching upon the vote for 25,000 men explained that the government would continue in a state of preparation until the arrangement about to be concluded with Russia was finally settled. There was, he said, no intention on the part of the government to call upon additional men unless occasion arose. The marquis of Hartington ex-war minister referred to the intention of the late government to evacuate the province of Dongola in Soudan and expressed a wish to know whether the present government meant to continue the work of constructing the Nile railway. Mr. Smith replied that the government would not abandon the railway behind the defending force but that it had no intention of increasing the British forces in Egypt.

GENERAL WOLSELEY ARRIVES.

London, July 13.—General Lord Wolseley arrived here this afternoon. The Victoria railway station was crowded with soldiers, officers and civilians in anticipation of his arrival and he was given an enthusiastic reception.

France Recalls Gen. De Courcey

The "Nation" states that the recall of Gen. De Courcey, commander of the French forces in Annam is probable. The government, the Nation declares, is averse to the severe penalties ordered to be imposed on the Annamites by Gen. De Courcey and is also opposed to his policy of continuing the war in Annam for the purpose of punishment, which the French commander insists is necessary in order to intimidate the people from ever again attempting a revolution against the French.

The governor has telegraphed to Gen. De Courcey at Hue directing him to severely punish the Annamite officials who took part in the ambuscade, but to confine his action to the limits of his protectorate.

A Brute Hung in a Churchyard.

Oxford, Miss., July 13.—Yesterday morning about 2 o'clock a copper-colored negro about twenty-five years of age went into the bed-room of two young ladies of high respectability, no other person being in the house, and attempted to outrage the elder one, aged nineteen.

At 4 o'clock this evening about five hundred white and colored citizens went to the jail, took the negro out, carried him to the back yard of a Methodist church and hanged him to a tree, the whole populace witnessing the execution.

COWMEN'S CARES

Big Lease Men Still Determined to Keep Southern Texas Cattle Back.

But the Texans Order Their Men to Drive the Big Herds Through the Pastures.

Whereupon the Cheeky Cherokee Strip Chaps Send a Note of Warning to Lamar.

The Cattle are Moving Northward, However, and Uncle Sam Opens the Trail.

CATTLEMEN'S CONTENT.

Still Determined to Keep Texas Cattle from Crossing the Territory.

Dodge City, Kas., July 13.—The action in the arrests made of the Texas drovers, J. R. Blocker and Oscar Woodley, for attempting to drive Texas cattle over Cherokee and neutral strip leased lands, has been continued to August 11, the parties being required to give bond of one thousand dollars each. The parties have returned to the point where their herds are with a view of starting them at once on their journey northward, as they construe Secretary Lamar's dispatches as fully authorizing them to do so. If they attempt to do this, further trouble may be looked for as local ranchmen will insist upon an inspection of their herds before they are moved.

The following dispatch was sent to Secretary Lamar last night:

Texas Rod, secretary of the interior at Washington:

"The owners of two herds of southern Texas cattle have been arrested under order of the United States district attorney for Kansas for violation of the Animal Industries law, in the bringing of cattle from the infected districts of southern Texas into the Indian Territory, and they are now under bonds. Some 3,000 head of cattle are behind these herds on the trail. The Texas drovers have not construed your telegram of the 11th inst., in replying to Messrs. Towers and Lee, of Kansas City, and in order that their herds may reach the neutral strip, they have instructed their men to leave the established trail through the Indian Territory, and move their cattle across leased and fenced pastures where no trail has ever existed, and which are now fully stocked with highly improved cattle. In order to accomplish this, they must cut the fences of the pastures and trespass upon the leased lands. Trouble is imminent, and we urge upon you to order all cattle stopped until Inspector Armstrong shall have fully investigated and reported.

INTERIOR DEPARTMENT OPINIONS.

Washington, July 13.—The following telegram was received at the interior department from Special Agent Armstrong relative to the opening of the cattle trail through Indian Territory, and the threatened Indian trouble at the Cheyenne and Arapahoe agency:

Ft. Reno, July 13.—The herd which were stopped in the public land strip have been notified to move on and I think trouble will cease, but it would be well to have a special agent of the interior department visit the section. There will be no trouble in the Indian reservation, but only on public land north of the Panhandle where the occupants have no right to be. Cattle were stopped on the strip by United States authority from Kansas. A special agent should be sent to go with the herds over the trail to the state line. I think I had better wait here until these Indians (Cheyennes) are enrolled also to meet General Sheridan, who will be here in a few days. Everything is quiet and the Indians are willing to enroll, and do whatever is required. I anticipate no trouble since they realize that the government is in earnest. They returned nine horses to-day, said to have been stolen and those reported out, will be in to-morrow. I think cattlemen on the public land will claim protection under the animal industry bill.

Washington, July 13.—Inspector Armstrong has succeeded in carrying out his instructions to open up cattle trails through Indian Territory. He telegraphed Secretary Lamar this morning that all differences between the drovers and ranchmen had been settled and the cattle from Texas are now moving northward without obstructions.

ORDERLY STRIKERS.

The Attempt to Run Two Cities But the officers are Ready.

East Saginaw, Mich., July 13.—This city is full of caloric this morning. Eighty-three Pinkerton detectives arrived on an early train, armed with Winchester rifles and two revolvers each, and are now being sworn in. One half of them will go to Saginaw City where one or two mills propose to start up. The mayor has issued a proclamation in which he states he has called upon the state and county authorities for aid and believes that ample arrangement had been perfected to insure the protection of property. A similar proclamation has been issued by the mayor of Saginaw City. It reported three companies of state troops with a gatling gun have been ordered forward and will be here to-day. The strikers threaten to seize the water-works and shut off the water supply, and a force of men armed with rifles has been sent up to protect the works. The strikers are greatly incensed at the steps taken by the authorities and at the presence of armed detectives.

LATER. The waterworks are now guarded by a detachment of company E, Michigan state troops of this city. A large number of special policemen have been sworn in and all gatherings on the streets have been prohibited. It is believed there is now ample force in the two cities to preserve order.

SAGINAW FORTS.

East Saginaw, Mich., July 13.—Forty-six of Pinkerton's men are stationed on this side of the river and thirty-seven in Saginaw City. Seventeen more will arrive to-morrow. Both military companies are under arms.

Representative Barry leader of strikers stated in the police station this morning that unless Pinkerton's men are removed he would not be responsible for good order. Barnard is endeavoring to collect a crew to start up his mill, but while the men are willing to work, they are afraid of strikers using violence against them while going to and from their homes.

MEXICAN MATTERS.

No Territory to Sell—Railway Changes—Subsidy Changes.

City of Mexico, July 13.—It is reported on good authority that the government has relieved the Vera Cruz Harbor company, a French concern, from the operation of the decree suspending subsidies, and the company is going on with its work. Vera Cruz papers express great satisfaction.

Edward W. Jackson of the Vera Cruz Railway company, has been appointed general manager of the Mexican Central road, and it is said he will soon take charge of the Central, when a number of changes in the personnel of the management of that road will be made. Rumors are afloat in financial and railway circles here of the possible consolidation of the Vera Cruz and Central roads.

The government announces that it will not sell an acre of Mexican territory and has confidence in the friendliness of the United States government.

Worked the Wrong Racket.

"Ma and I," she said shyly, "are more like sisters than mother and daughter."

"Yes," he said, with a lingering inflection on the afterguard of his "yes" which rose clear to the ceiling.

"Yes; indeed" said the girl, with a rosy flush on her cheeks making her infinitely more beautiful than ever. "Ma and I are inseparable. We have never been separated a single day since I was a little baby."

"S-no" he said this with an inflection on the second section of "no" that went only half-way to the ceiling and back again.

"Oh dear, no" the girl went on in her artless way, "and ma always said that when I was married she was going to love my husband like her own son, and come and keep house for us."

"Ohch" said William with a circumflex. Then he rose up slowly and firmly, and said that he had a note in bank to take up at 3 o'clock, as it was now 2:30 he would go. And he did go. And he didn't come back again. Not never. And ma said to the girl:

"That's where you missed it in not trusting your mother. Why didn't you tell me that man had been married before? Had I known he was a widower, I would have played the home for old woman racket on him."

The one-wheel, or "bicycle," railroad, as it is called, says Industrial American, appears likely to have an actual trial before long. The nominal inventor claims that he can easily attain 100 or more miles per hour without difficulty, as he will be free from many of the resistances which are encountered on the standard roads. Perhaps the greatest unforeseen difficulty which will be met is that of wind pressure. In perfectly calm weather the resistance will amount to fifty pounds per square foot at that speed. It is perfectly safe to say that with a high wind the resistance alone might easily require 5,000 horse-power; in addition to that needed for hauling the train.

Fine French silks, according to the American Machinist, have been "imported" from Patterson, N. J., for a number of years. Latterly Vienna bent-wood furniture has been imported from Charleston, S. C., and the business has been so brisk that another factory, to make 200 bent-wood chairs a day, is to be erected at once in Columbia, S. C. There are many people who will not buy dress goods or fine furniture of American manufacture, if they know it; hence the deception. When they discover that silks and bent-wood furniture can be made of as good quality in the United States as anywhere in the world it surprises them.

A cement very much used at the present day in China and Japan, is made from rice. It is only necessary to mix rice flour intimately with water and gently simmer the mixture over a clear fire, when it readily forms a delicate and durable cement which answers all the purposes of common paste.
