How to Use Assurance.
 There is just one thing in the latter part of this Nineteenth century that never fails to bring success, and that is assurance. If you desire to make yourself known, don't go to the trouble of doing good work. Just buy a trumpet and blow a blast to shake the stars. The time has gone by for quiet, unpretentious adherence to duty to make any show. The louder you are, the more blatant and vociferous, the sooner you attain the goal of achievement, if it is notoriety you are after. But if you still have a hunger in your soul for the approval of your own conscience and the commendation of that high and holy one who some future day shall bid you enter into the reward laid by for the faithful, and the pure, and the tender hearted, just go on in the quiet way you have chosen and let your trumpet lie unheeded on the shelf.—Chicago Herald.

A white enamel apple blossom with the edge of the petals overlapped with frosted gold and a jeweled center is a new and pretty brooch.
 The bowknot grows more and more coquettish. Surmounting a stickpin with a jewel in one of its fluttering folds it adds the last touch to the toilet.

A MAD POET

rushed into a newspaper office recently, and threatened to "clean out" the establishment, because they printed his verses wrong. Said he: "I wrote, 'To dwell forever in a grove of peace,' and you idiots put it 'a pot of grease.'" The mortified editor presented him with a vial of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, a year's subscription and an apology.

The little "Pellets" positively cure sick and nervous headache, biliousness, costiveness, and all derangements of the stomach, bowels and liver. It's a large contract, but the smallest things in the world do the business—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They're the smallest, but the most effective. They go to work in the right way. They cleanse and renovate the liver, stomach and bowels thoroughly—but they do it mildly and gently. You feel the good they do—but you don't feel them doing it.
 They're the cheapest pill you can buy, because they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You only pay for the good you get.
 That's the peculiar plan all Dr. Pierce's medicines are sold on, through druggists.
