Cheap Lots.

The only cheap lots offered in Waco for the last five years are those now on the market in the Kirkpatrick Addition, East Waco. These lots are being sold for one-half their real value, making a chance to secure a desirable home such as will never occur again.

Cheap Lots.

These lots lie high and dry. They overlook a large portion of the city and have perfect drainage. They lie in the healthiest part of the city, catching the pure breezes from the prairie untainted by passage over any part of the city.

Cheap Lots.

These lots have the finest soil, a rich sandy loam, admirable for gardens, and are underlaid with pure water in inexhaustible quantities at a depth of fifteen and sixteen feet, which can be used for irrigation.

Cheap Lots.

These lots are closer to the center of the city than any other addition, and at the same distance lots are selling for three and five times the price asked for these. There is millions in it for persons of small means. Call on Mrs. or P. G. Kirkpatrick, southwest corner Fifth and Clay street.

In New Quarters.

Messrs. Dockery & Co., the popular insurance agents, formerly of South Fourth street, are now domiciled in their elegant new office, room 8, Provident building, where they have increased facilities in carrying on their extensive insurance business in every branch. They represent the best great fire insurance companies. Their latch string is always on the outside and they will be pleased to see their friends and strangers at their new quarters.

PERSONAL.

Mayor Protem John F. Herbert is out again today after several days indisposition.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kirk are the happy parents of a ten pound girl, born on the 16th.

Miss Linnie Cummings of Beaumont returned home yesterday after a pleasant visit in this city.

Miss Lula Loyd accompanied Miss Cummings to her home in Beaumont yesterday to spend a week.

Mr. T. H. Killingsworth, who has been very ill, is much better today and his rapid recovery is confidently hoped for.

The following is so neatly said by our esteemed morning neighbor that we have copied it verbatim: "The work of the Christian church is looking up very rapidly. They have called an assistant pastor. He came last Sunday morning and is making his home with the regular minister—weighs nine pounds."

What I Know About Hardware and What I Guess About '92.

The year of 1892 promises to be a year of low prices. Cotton, corn, hogs, pig iron and real estate are likely to be lower on an average in 1892 than they were in 1891. While I do not look for any scarcity of loanable funds the dominant and restless state of the labor element, pernicious legislation against capital which borders on confiscation, and the frequency of dishonest failures among merchants and bankers, has scared capital and forced much of it into idleness, hence railroad building and other new enterprises are likely to be held in abeyance. All kinds of labor and commodities will be cheap and trade dull. For your hardware go to

ALL OVER TOWN.

A large audience greeted Hon. John P. St. John at the city hall last night.

The bonds of Mr. and Mrs. Weir charged with theft, were fixed yesterday at $1000 and $500 respectively.

The county court was convened this morning by Special Judge D. H. Hardy, but there being no cases ready adjournment was had until tomorrow morning.

The case of S. T. Norris vs. the Citizens' Railway company was tried yesterday in the county court and a judgment for $800 against the defendant company. Capt. T. A. Blair and L. W. Campbell represented the plaintiff in this suit and as a result of the hard fight made for their client the foregoing judgment was given.

In this issue appears the card of Messrs. Williams & Evans, they having moved from their office in the Jones building to the magnificent Provident and ensconced themselves in one of the handsomest offices in Central Texas. Messrs. Williams & Evans have an appreciative clientele and the reason of it is that they are as prompt in their attention to a $5 case as a $5,000 case. They will be most happy to see their friends at their new quarters.
