WILL BE SOLVED.

The Mystery Surrounding the Murder of Dr. J. H. Barrett and Wife.

ATLANTA, Jan. 26.—The mystery surrounding the murder of the venerable Dr. J. H. Barrett and his wife, near Griffin, several weeks ago, bids fair to be solved at last. The developments of the past few hours recall vividly the terrible Woolfolk tragedy of two years ago—a tragedy which stands without an equal in the annals of crime. Tom Woolfolk was hanged for the murder of his father, mother and seven children. Today Will Nunally, a prominent young man of a prominent family, the grandson of Dr. Barrett and Mrs. Barrett, was arrested for the murder and tonight he was brought to Atlanta for safe keeping. Nunally, at the time of the murder, was living alone with the old folks. From the first he has been connected with the crime in the minds of a number of people, but suspicion had not heretofore been sufficiently strong against him to cause his arrest. Nunally has spent but little time in Creswell, where the murder occurred. Since the burial of his grandfather he has been visiting his mother in Griffin most of the time.

Late Saturday a negro named Sam Kendall was arrested for complicity in the crime. He is a bad character, and was seen near Creswell the night of the murder. He disappeared immediately, and the police have been searching for him since. When apprehended Kendall told a story implicating a negro named Joy Holt, and they claim they were instigated to their crime by Will Nunally, the grandson.

The murder was a horrible one. Nunally made the first report of it to neighbors, telling a story about being away from home that night and returning late to find his grandmother dead, his grandfather dying, both with their heads terribly mashed and mangled in a pool of blood. He found a heavy railroad coupling pin and this was also found by the neighbors when they arrived. It was generally conceded that this heavy pin was the instrument of death, but it developed at the corner's inquest that the blows had been dealt with a sharp instrument, a shovel evidently, that was found later. The shovel had been hidden away. There was talk of Nunally being connected with the crime at first, but nobody could imagine a motive, and this talk died down. The arrest today was therefore a great sensation, and excitement has run high. There was a great deal of talk of lynching the negro Kendall when he was carried there, and when his story implicating Nunally was told, there was a renewal of lynch talk. To be on the safe side the Griffin authorities hurried him to Atlanta. He protests his innocence and has many friends who believe him. Negro Kendall says Nunally paid him and Holt to kill the old folks.

Indian Land Matters.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Jan. 26.—The disbarred Indian lawyers who victimized so many into paying large sums of money to have their claims for citizenship pressed before the Cherokee council are just now being haunted by their unsophisticated dupes. Not one of the thousands who applied were admitted. They came from many states and in some instances prepared to stay. Some statesmen do not seem to understand that the last congress passed a wise law effecting the status of poor lo.

The Oklahoma bill extends the Arkansas laws concerning the partitions of lands over the Indian Territory. A suit for partition is now pending and many will appear by affidavit and ask for partition. The people are hardly ready for a radical change. They may under present laws come one or more at a time into court and ask for their rights and if these first to come are successful in a few years they will all have taken their lands in severalty, avoiding that dangerous and sudden change to statehood.

A Mother's Mistake.

Mothers frequently make a mistake in neglecting the cough of a child. A Fort Wayne, Ind., lady writes: "My little daughter 6 years old had a severe cough but as it was nothing unusual I thought nothing of it, and allowed it to run on for 4 or five weeks, when it became so obstinate she began losing flesh. I called in a physician who treated her three weeks without benefit. A neighbor insisted upon my trying Ballard's Horehound Syrup it relieved her from the first dose and she began gaining flesh rapidly, when we had used two bottles her cough had entirely disappeared. I would not be without it. It does not constipate my children. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is free from opiates. Its the most soothing throat and lung medicine in the world.
