LOUISIANA POLITICS.

McENERY'S PROPOSITION TO UNITE THE DEMOCRACY

Will Probably Be Rejected—Great Anxiety Felt in Washington Over the Political Situation in the Pelican State—Where the Responsibility Will Rest.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 10.—An important move has been made in the Democratic party of this state with a view of reuniting the party which split on the lottery question. The morning papers publish a letter from S. D. McEnery, candidate for governor on the regular or lottery Democratic party, addressed to the chairman of the Democratic executive committee, in which he urges that the two tickets be withdrawn and another nominating convention be held to place a ticket before the people which will command the undivided support of the party. He says: "As the condition of the party is critical and it is absolutely essential that the party be united, I think that at this time we ought to forego any advantages we claim as the regular organization and afford those who left the party an opportunity to reunite with the party."

Accordingly Chairman Crandell of straight or lottery Democratic executive committee addressed a letter to E. B. Kruttschnitt as chairman of the "Foster" or "anti-lottery" Democratic executive committee, making a strong plea in behalf of harmony in the party as follows: In the interest of the integrity and harmony of the Democratic party, and to avoid the possibility of the election of a Republican governor of the state of Louisiana and the consequent loss of Louisiana's electoral vote to the national Democratic party in November, 1892, we offer for consideration the following propositions: First, that the nominees upon the two tickets known as McEnery ticket and Foster ticket be withdrawn. Second, that the two state central committees, known as McEnery state central committee and Foster state central committee, join in a call for a new primary election for delegates to be held in New Orleans not later than March 15.

Mr. Kruttschnitt returned the letter to Mr. Crandell, explaining that he did not hold the office of "chairman of the Foster executive committee," nor did he know of any one holding an office whose incumbent bears the above title. In other words he claims his committee to be the straight Democratic executive committee. He believes the anti-lottery faction or Fosterites will refuse to unite.

Great Anxiety.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Great anxiety is felt among both Democrats and Republicans over the political situation in Louisiana. Governor McEnery's proposition for both wings of the party to unite and place a new ticket in the field with a basis of harmonious action is favorably commented upon by Democrats here and the reply of the Foster people is anxiously awaited. It is felt that this generous action on the part of McEnery will place the responsibility on Foster and his followers should they decline, and defeat of the party follow.

Vessel in Distress.

VALPARAISO, Feb. 10.—Captain Sledge of the British bark, Ball of Mith, which has just arrived reports that Feb. 3 he sighted the bark Lizzie Bell, Captain Edwards, ninety miles northeast of this port flying signals of distress. Bell was bound for Victoria, Van Conver Island and British Columbia with a cargo of powder and war material for the British government. She has been on fire under the cabin since Dec. 19. The clothing of the crew has been burned and chronometers destroyed. Captain Edwards is stricken with paralysis, the mate ill, and the second mate is in charge of the vessel. The Bell has arrived at Coquimbo.

Pensioners Alarmed.

MONTREAL, Feb. 10.—There is considerable anxiety in Canada over the action of Mr. Newbury of Chicago, who introduced into the United States congress a bill providing that no pensions shall be paid any person who is not a citizen of the United States. There are 1300 persons residing in Canada permanently who draw pensions. If the bill becomes a law the pensioners of Canada have to choose between giving up pensions or move their homes.

Made Up Again.

BEAUMONT, Tex., Feb. 10.—In a misunderstanding between A. J. Williams and R. T. Snodgrass, Williams fired two shots at Snodgrass, one shot making a slight flesh wound and the other shot burning the skin on the left side of the body. They have made friends since and settled all the differences.

BADLY SCARED.

Senator Hill Getting Very Nervous Over His Snap-Convention Scheme.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Senator Hill is badly scared over the revolt now in progress throughout the state against his snap-convention scheme. He hurried down to the city from Albany on Saturday night and spent Sunday at the Hotel Normandie. He came down to do his own scouting, and ascertain how the skirmish lines were getting on.

The uprising in this city has made him very nervous; even his friends are surprised at the manner in which he is behaving. If his subordinates here told him the truth he went back to Albany that night burdened with the information that his snap-convention is spreading with wonderful rapidity, and that next Thursday night's mass-meeting at Cooper institute will issue a protest against his schemes that will have a wide effect throughout the country.

Mr. Hill saw very few people Sunday. He dined with General Earle and spent the whole day indoors. He returned to this city and will attend the Tilden dinner in Brooklyn. The subpoena served on him in the Dutchess county case is returnable in Judge Cullen's court in Brooklyn on Feb. 11, the day of the anti-snap-convention mass-meeting. Whether the senator will appear in court or whether he will accept Colonel Bliss' invitation to make a deposition is not yet known. Speaking of the anti-snap-convention movement he said that the people who are interested in it were always opposed to him.

Colonel Robert G. Monroe, who is a member of Governor Flower's staff, and who is prominent in the movement against the February convention, returned from Washington, where he has been on business. While there he had many talks with representatives of the southern and western states, including some of the leading supporters of Mr. Crisp in the recent speakership contest. "I found very general sympathy with the anti-February convention movement in this state," said Colonel Monroe. "There was no talk among those I saw about the signers to the call for the mass-meeting being 'occasional' or 'conditional' Democrats. They recognized upon the roll the names of many men with whom they have been associated in the past campaigns. They said that the Hill boom had subsided and that more consideration was given now to other names. Much surprise was expressed that astute a politician as Mr. Hill had been guilty of such a blunder in misjudging the real sentiment of his own state."

Colonel Monroe was formerly chairman of the executive committee of the National association of Democratic clubs, and while in Washington he had a conference with Congressman Wilson of West Virginia, the present chairman. Mr. Monroe says that club organization will be a valuable adjunct of the party machine.

Mr. Monroe recalled that in 1890 Tammany sent a contesting delegation to the Cincinnati convention and that half of it was seated. Hill's friends do not like the activity which Colonel Monroe is showing in the movement, because he is a member of Governor Flower's staff and they are threatening to make an effort to get the governor to discipline the colonel.

State Capital Notes.

AUSTIN, Feb. 10.—The governor appointed the following pilot commissioners for the port of Sabine Pass: Fred A. Brooks, R. A. McReynolds, John Harris and F. C. Pullmore.

Notice has been received of the death of Judge Cleveland, but no one appointed.

Chartered: The Railway Employees' Printing and Publishing company of Fort Worth, capital stock $10,000. The charter of the Magnolia cemetery company of Houston was amended to provide that only members of the German Methodist church, Houston, were eligible as trustees, and the charter of the San Antonio Cold Storage company was amended to increase the number of directors to five.

Colonel Jenison, agent of the Texas policy holders of the New York Life, sent a special to Commissioner Hollingsworth to the effect that the board and president would go out without pensions.

Asphalt Beds.

ST. JO, Tex., Feb. 10.—The work in the asphalt beds has commenced in earnest. R. F. Sampson, who commenced the work, is now engaged in putting down sidewalks in the town. He puts down from two to five squares per day. The machinery used is very rude and takes a great deal more time to do the work than if the right kind of machinery was used. The work already done has so far been very satisfactory and costs about $7.50 per square. The entire south side of the square is now solidly paved with asphalt and in a few days the whole of the business part of town will be paved with the same stuff. It is now estimated that the crude asphalt can be put on board the cars at from $4 to $5 per ton. Parties from many parts of the country have written for prices on large quantities. Many people have visited and examined the walks put down and pronounce it the pure asphalt and of the very best quality. Old miners say the supply is inexhaustible and that it is easily mined.

Able to Retire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—Wm. L. Good, director in the Wells-Fargo bank, said that Lloyd Levis would retire as president of the bank next August on account of old age. Levis has been president of the bank for twenty-one years, and is worth from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.

Abbott's Ashes.

BOSTON, Feb. 10.—Messrs. Van Hughton and Duffing of New York, executors of the will of Emma Abbott, have taken the ashes of the deceased to Gloucester where they were sealed into a beautiful monument in Oak Grove cemetery erected by Miss Abbott before her death.
