The marriage of Mr. Hartley and Miss Alice Dabney will be celebrated this evening at the residence of the bride's parents, 604 North Tenth street.

The friends of Rev. J. A. McKamy will regret to learn that he has resigned his pastorate of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of this city and will depart March 1st for his new field of labor at Louisville, Ky. Mr. McKamy will leave a host of friends in this city who wish him success in his new location.

There was to have been a meeting of the Directors of the Texas Immigration Association here today but there was not a quorum present and no business was transacted. The only members of the board present were President J. J. Fairbanks of Denison, Judge J. C. Matthews of Lampasas and Capt. John T. Battle of this city. Upon ascertaining that no quorum would be present they adjourned subject to the call of the president.

The barn of Dr. R. W. Park, located back of his residence on South Fifth street, was burned to the ground yesterday afternoon, and with it 60 bushels of corn, 300 bundles of fodder and a large lot of hay, which was all a total loss, there being no insurance upon the barn and contents. It has since been ascertained that little John McEnroe, a boy 8 or 9 years of age, was playing with other children behind the barn and striking a match touched it to the hay through a crack which caused the conflagration.

A News reporter has learned that the republican saloon-keeper referred to in the communication of H. L. Storm to the Republican State Executive committee as being the only one in Waco who refuses the negro the privilege of the social drink, with the white man, at his bar is O. W. Busk, proprietor of the Pacific hotel and Pacific bar. The only kick Mr. Busk has coming is, that he says he is a strong Republican from Sioux Falls, Dakota, and not from Omaha as reported.

Humor of the Marriage Service.

Some funny stories are told about the marriage service. One of them relates how an old man, brought rather unwillingly to the altar, could not be induced to repeat the responses. "My good man," at length exclaimed the clergyman, "I really cannot marry you unless you do as you are told." But the man still remained silent. At this unexpected hitch the bride lost all patience with her future spouse and burst out with: "Go on, you old fool! Say it after him just the same as if you was mookin him."

The same difficulty occurred in another case. The clergyman, after explaining what was necessary and going over the responses several times without the smallest effect, stopped in dismay, whereupon the bridegroom encouraged him with: "Go ahead, pars'n, go ahead! Thou'rt doin bravely."

Upon another occasion it was, strangely enough, the woman who could not be prevailed upon to speak. When the clergyman remonstrated with her she indignantly replied, "Your father married me twice before, and he wasn't axin me any of them imperent questions at all."—Saturday Review.

Liver Complaint--Billiousness.

The chief symptoms of this disease are depression of spirits, foul coated tongue, bad tasting mouth, disagreeable breath, dry skin with blotches and eruptions, sallow complexion and yellow eyes, tired aching shoulders, dull pain in right side, faintness, dizziness and irregular bowels. This complaint in all its forms can be readily cured by taking Dr. Gunn's Improved liver pills as directed, and a lingering spell of sickness will often be warded off by their use. Sold at 25cts a box by W. B. Morrison & Co.
