Cheap Lots.

The only cheap lots offered in Waco for the last five years are those now on the market in the Kirkpatrick Addition, East Waco. These lots are being sold for one-half their real value, making a chance to secure a desirable home such as will never occur again.

Cheap Lots.

These lots lie high and dry. They overlook a large portion of the city and have perfect drainage. They lie in the healthiest part of the city, catching the pure breezes from the prairie untainted by passage over any part of the city.

Cheap Lots.

These lots have the finest soil, a rich sandy loam, admirable for gardens, and are underlaid with pure water in inexhaustible quantities at a depth of fifteen and sixteen feet, which can be used for irrigation.

Cheap Lots.

These lots are closer to the center of the city than any other addition, and at the same distance lots are selling for three and five times the price asked for these. There is millions in it for persons of small means. Call on Mrs. or P. G. Kirkpatrick, southwest corner Eighth and Clay street.

All parties desiring plats of the Kirkpatrick addition can obtain them upon application.

ABOUT THE CENSUS.

INVESTIGATION ORDERED BY THE PRESIDENT.

Superintendent Porter's Friends Very Much Incensed at the Action of Mr. Harrison—Complaint from St. Louis Furniture Board of Trade.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—A Washington dispatch affirms that a dispatch was sent to the interior department asking Secretary Noble to come to the white house immediately upon important business. The secretary responded and was closeted with Mr. Harrison over half an hour. The result of this conference was that Mr. Noble returned to the interior department in haste and summoned into his private room two of his most trusted assistants. The gentlemen selected for this important investigation were A. C. Toner, chief of the appointment division, and George W. Evans, chief of the finance division. They were instructed to lay aside all other work and begin at once a thorough and systematic overhauling of the census bureau.

They were told that the investigation was at the personal request of the president and that Mr. Harrison would be glad to have a report at as early a day as is consistent with a conscientious investigation. Mr. Toner and Mr. Evans, however, were unable to begin their labors until Tuesday morning. They were cautioned to keep their investigation as secret as possible, but the fact necessarily became known to several people. Mr. Porter's friends, who have heard of it, are very much incensed at this action of the president.

When the investigation was ordered Mr. Porter was not in the city and had been away for several weeks. They pronounced it taking unfair advantage of the superintendent, and said that if there was anything the president could not understand before putting the experts to work, he should have asked the superintendent to explain it.

One of the things Secretary Noble is particularly interested in is a complaint from the merchants of St. Louis. It was signed by R. E. Lasher, president of the St. Louis furniture board of trade and was dated Jan. 22.

Mr. Lasher called attention to the vast interests represented by the members of the board of which he was president. He said that Superintendent Porter, when he made his speech to the Commercial club of St. Louis, on Nov. 21, gave in detail the manufacturing statistics upon which the merchants of St. Louis relied and based their calculations and which have since, to their great indignation, been proven to be altogether unreliable and worse than worthless. The letter continues by stating that Chief Special Agent Baines had publicly stated six months ago that his field work was completed, and added upon the authority of Mr. Porter that the manufacturing statistics would be sent out in an official bulletin from the census office within ninety days.

"I want to call your attention," says Mr. Lasher, "to the fact that Superintendent Porter stated that he had plenty of money with which to complete the work. With plenty of money and ample time the merchants of St. Louis feel justified in requesting that you inform them the cause of this apparent neglect and unwarranted delay."

Brutal Assassination.

BIRMINGHAM, Feb. 12.—Deputy United States Marshals Jackson and Baker returned from Cleburne county with two prisoners and tell of a brutal attempt made by a gang of conspirators to murder J. W. Sneadmann, wife and 9-year-old James. Shortly after supper Tuesday night James went to the front door, opened it and looked out. While standing there the reports from two shotguns were heard. The boy fell unconscious to the floor and his mother reeled and fell also. The bullets had taken effect in the boy's abdomen and the mother's breast. The mother recovered consciousness and picked her son up in a dying condition. The mother, at last reports, is expected to live but a few hours and the boy is already dead. It seems the brutes had mistaken the boy for old man Sneadmann, a government witness in a moonshining case, who was absent at the time.

Pensions for Ex-Confederates.

JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 12.—The house has passed a bill appropriating $64,200 a year for pensions. This will give those now on the rolls $50 each. The present appropriation is only $30,000. The bill provides that all indigent ex-Confederate soldiers, sailors, servants and the indigent widows of such shall be entitled to $50 per month, unless the number at this rate exceeds the appropriation, in which event the amount shall be pro-rated between them. It is estimated that the indigent clause will put at least 5000 on the rolls in a few years compared with the 1280 now on. If this turns out true the amount that each will receive will only be about $12. The bill makes the auditor the pension commissioner.

Another Revolution.

VIENNA, Feb. 11.—Rumors are current that another revolution has broken out in Servia. All telegrams from Servia are subject to censorship. The Servia minister in Vienna says that there is no truth in the rumor.

CLIQUE OF BULLION MEN.

How the Government is Systematically Robbed.

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Charles E. McConnell, a banker of Montrose, Colo., in an interview here said: "Prices paid by the government for silver bullion under the present coinage act are controlled by a clique or ring of speculators who raise or depress silver quotations at their own pleasure and for their own profit. I do not make this charge from hearsay or rumor. I do know it to be a fact, and I am personally acquainted with some of the men composing the combination. Some western silver men are in it, but it is made up chiefly of eastern speculators. The mint buys silver twice a month, receiving sealed bids. By some means, known but to themselves, the manipulators of the silver market always know these dates of purchase far in advance of anyone else.

Between the days on which the government buys silver the price is depressed, but when the United States is in the market as a purchaser quotations go up, and the ring takes its profit. Not only is the government mulcted in this way, but the silver producer on a small scale, who, not getting into the ring, is simply robbed. Many members of congress are fully aware of the existence of this silver clique and know all about its manipulations if they do not share in its profits."

Want an Improvement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—A quiet movement is on foot among Harrison's friends to secure an improvement in the quality of delegates elected from the south to the national convention. It is a notorious though uncomfortable fact that many colored delegates in former conventions were merely a purchasable article, selling their votes to the highest bidder after arriving at the convention. It is hoped by the selection of whites to discourage this custom and at the same time get a class of delegates who can be relied on. The administration will also insist that no officeholders go as delegates to the convention.

The Water Was Bad.

TOPEKA, Kas., Feb. 12.—For some time the people of Norton, Kas., have been complaining of the water furnished by the local water company. It finally became so foul no one would use it. Tuesday night the pumps were stopped and the workman entered the standpipe to clean it. To his horror he discovered the badly decomposed remains of a man which evidently had been there for weeks. The coroner decided it must be the body of some unknown laborer passing through the city in search of work who had committed suicide by jumping in the reservoir.

True to Union Principles.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 12.—Hon. E. W. Cormack, a sterling Democrat, resigned the position of editor of the Daily American of this city today and will assume a like position on the Memphis Commercial, made vacant by the resignation of Colonel James Keating. The latter resigned because the management of the paper published two editorials on the question of the recent strike of union printers without his permission and against his views.

Married a Duke.

PARIS, Feb. 12.—The civil marriage of Duke De La Rochefoucauld and Miss Mattie Mitchell, daughter of Senator Mitchell of Oregon, took place at the Marie of the Seventh Arrondissement and the religious ceremony was performed at the church, a short distance from the duke's residence in Rue De Belle, Chasse. Whitelaw Reid and Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Augustus Jay were among the Americans present.

A Fatal Accident.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Feb. 12.—A train on the Louisville and Nashville struck a wagon containing Wm. Johnson and Perry McKnight, residing near Kelly, eight miles north of here, smashing the vehicle and fatally injuring both men. The pole of the wagon broke from its fastenings as it was crossing the track and before it could be removed or the men get out of the way the fast express dashed into it.

The Search Over.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Search for the missing in the hotel ruins is ended. Every portion of the ruins have been searched and chief Desquet says no more bodies are in the ruins. Seventeen bodies have been found, seven of which have been identified. The remaining ten are unknown and unclaimed at the morgue. Proprietor Mears believes there are three more bodies in the ruins.

Slye's Record.

RACINE, Wis., Feb. 12.—Facts have come to light in the past few days tending to implicate Adelbert Slye, now in jail at St. Louis for the Glendale train robbery, with the robbery at Western Union Junction in November. He was supposed to have been in company with Mrs. Hedspeth at the Junction when the robbery was committed.

Farmers for Hill.

ATLANTA, Feb. 12.—A poll of the state agricultural society at Cuthbert composed of the most prominent farmers of Georgia, shows: Hill 69, Cleveland 31, third party 8, refused to answer 9.
