AN IMPORTANT MEETING

Of Pat Cleburne Camp Held Last Night.

A regular meeting of Pat Cleburne Camp was held last night at the city hall.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted, after which several new members were admitted.

A committee was appointed to wait upon ex-Governor Ross at his hotel and extend him an invitation to visit the Camp and address them.

The most important business of the session was upon a circular from Gen. W. L. Cable, inviting this Camp to unite with other camps in the formation of a State Confederate Veterans organization.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Two Critical Aldermen.

Editor Evening News: The Day in its issue Saturday morning, attempting to justify its reporter in publishing the proceedings of the city council some of which didn't occur attracts my attention.

Respectfully, W. D. LACY.

The attendance at Hill's Business College which has steadily increased from year to year since its inception, is more marked for the corresponding period of 1892 than that of any preceding year.

County Attorney Joe W. Taylor has given such universal satisfaction to the people of this county by his able and courteous administration of the office he now holds, that if rumor be true, his constituency are determined if possible to induce him to make the race for re-election.

Hours to Waco.

The following is from the Houston Post:

A committee composed of Messrs. G. A. Quinlan, George A. Jones, J. H. McMillan, James Lawler and G. W. Turnbull were at the Grand Central depot when the Houston and Texas Central train arrived to receive Col. Wiley Jones, a distinguished citizen of Waco.

He was taken in hand at once and shown the beauties of Houston. He seemed so highly pleased that it is probable he will move to the Magnolia City.
