GABERT BROS.

TEXAS PINE.

A Great Exhibition of Our Native
Wood in a New Field.

We desire to announce that we will have an exhibition Wednesday Feb. 24th some of our latest and richest work manufactured from Texas pine. We will show one of the most elaborate bank counters ever placed in the state and in addition an attractive line of centre tables, hall racks, etc., of our own manufacture.
This work is manufactured to order for Col. Parrotts office in the Provident building and cannot be seen at our place later than Wednesday. We extend a special invitation to the ladies to visit our establishment on the above date and promise that our display of Texas made furniture will be worth many times the trouble of a visit. We will take pleasure in showing you through the displays and our establishment.

A beautiful souvenir will be presented to every lady visitor.

An Intellectual Treat.

Mr. W. C. Brann, editor of the Iconoclast, lectured last night, according to previous announcement, at the city hall to a large and appreciative audience upon the subject of The Modern Mokanna. The hall was crowded to overflowing and the lecture was one continued strain of eloquence from the start to the finish, holding his audience spell bound throughout.

It is not saying too much to assert that a Waco audience has never before enjoyed such an intellectual treat as that listened to last night and it has ever since been the subject of favorable comment from all who heard it. His subject tonight will be "Humbugs." Admission free.

Don't be Deceived.

I am still holding down Standard Granulated Sugar 20 pounds for one dollar.

Franco-American Food Co's French Soups, 3 pound cans, 30 cents each.
Star Tobacco 40 cents per pound. Low prices on everything. Call and see

Tra-La-La In a few days a new book and periodical store will be opened up at 401 Franklin street, where lovers of Literature, Music and Art will find all the periodicals foreign and domestic, latest novels, sheet music and all the Tra-La-La's of a popular house. Keep your eye on the place and your memory on the number of O. T. Ridley's new stand.

The remains of H. H. Steed, a young man, 18 years of age, who died at the residence of his father near this city yesterday, were followed to their last resting place this morning at 10 o'clock at Oakwood cemetery by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.

MILLS AND SILVER.

Hill Organs Trying to put the Great Texan in a Hole.

A SCHEME THAT FELL FLAT.

And the Dullness of the 'Stud Will Be Appreciated When the Extra Session Comes to Vote for Senator—The Probable Effect of the Passage of a Free Coinage Act.

Following is a dispatch sent to the St. Louis Republic recently from Washington:

"The battle over the silver question will perhaps be one of the most interesting that has taken place in the congress of the United States in many years. The chances are that the free coinage men will have a majority, but they will have no walk over. There is a very set and determined opposition to them. It is not unlikely now that a majority of the northern Democrats will oppose free coinage, and that there will not be by any means a solid Democratic vote in favor of the measure.

Under ordinary conditions there would be an overwhelming majority in the house in favor of free coinage, but the most conservative and thoughtful sentiment among the Democrats is favorable to postponement of the question until after the presidential election. Some of the Hill organs of Texas, who are bitterly fighting Mr. Mills, declare that his refusal to sign a petition to the speaker asking that a day be set apart for consideration of the silver question, is proof positive that he is opposed to free coinage. Mr. Mills' honorable record of twenty years in congress can not be smirched at this time by the organs of David B. Hill or Barnett Gibbs.

Mr. Mills stands now as he stood for some time past—just as he stood when he made his speech to the Texas legislature at Austin soon after the adjournment of the Fifty first congress. Mr. Mills will contribute nothing towards inserting the silver wedge into the Democratic party for the purpose of splitting it, but if others insert the wedge Mr. Mills will vote as he always did vote when an opportunity offered itself, and as his convictions will direct him, in favor of free coinage.

He believed now, however, as he has believed and as he pointed out in the past, that if the free coinage question is forced now it will disrupt the Democratic party, defeat the next Democratic candidate for the presidency, give a Republican senate and house of representatives in the fifty-third congress, give the south force bills and perpetuate Republican power.

As stated before, Mr. Mills will not give aid or comfort to those attempting to insert this wedge for the purpose of splitting the party, but being an advocate of free coinage, if the question confronts him, he will vote for free coinage. A few days ago one of Mr. Mills' colleagues in the house of representatives sent to Mr.
Mills a petition to the speaker, asking that a day be set for consideration of the free coinage bill.

This undoubtedly was for the purpose of putting Mr. Mills in the hole. Mr.
Mills, however, is not in the habit of going into holes, but of doing what he considers to be right and proper in any contingency. The gentleman who sent the petition to Mr. Mills ought to have known him well enough to be satisfied on this point, but if he was not, then the chances are he will in the future.

But the fight for free coinage, when it comes up in the house, will be a royal one. New England will plump a solid Democratic vote of 14 against the coinage of silver; New York has 23 Democratic members and 21 of them are counted against free coinage; 4 of the 5 democrats in New Jersey will be against free coinage, and 5 of Maryland's 5 representatives will also be against free coinage. Delaware's solitary representative will oppose free coinage, and Pennsylvania will cast her ten democratic votes against the measure. It is believed that not more than three of the Ohio Democrats will vote for free coinage and perhaps seven of the Illinois democrats. The Democratic representatives from Wisconsin will be solidly against free coinage and the three Minnesota men will also be against Mr. Bland.

From this it will be seen that the measure will by no means have a walker-over in the house, though as stated before the chances are that the bill will pass. It is understood that most of the western Republicans will vote for free coinage, and thus the measure will become a sectional rather than a party one."

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.

The Entertainment Given at the Young Men's Christian Association Rooms Last Night.

In response to the announcement that the teachers and young ladies of the Waco Female College would give an entertainment and the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association were filled to overflowing last night. That the audience was highly pleased was attested by the great applause which followed each number on the programme.

After the opening prayer Misses Lloyd and Reynolds opened the performance with a piano duett "Danse Macabre opus 40 of C. Saint Saens." The second number on the programme was changed on account of the illness of one of the performers and Miss Hallie Tarver came to the rescue with the vocal solo "Loves Sorrow, Shelley." The song was followed by a splendid recitation "Aux Italiens" by Miss Willie Dyer. The fourth number "Kemenoi Ostrow opus 10 No.
11 Rubenstein" was rendered by Miss Reynolds in a style that won a hearty round of applause.

The fifth number was that finest bit of modern descriptive writing the chariot race from Ben Hur and was rendered in a style worthy of the piece by Miss Lasseter. The sixth number was also substituted and Miss Etta Burgess sang a sweet little song entitled "You" which went direct to the hearts of the audience. The applause which followed was kept up until she came before the curtain but the audience was not to be appeased or quieted until she sang again which she finally did. The song was a beautiful one and the singer had one of the sweetest voices heard in Waco for a long time. The concluding number was another testimonial to Miss Lloyds skill as a musician. The piece rendered was "Marchen (Legend) opus 162 No. 4 Roff." After the conclusion of the programme the crowd went into a "social session" and spent the time very pleasantly in games and conversation until nearly midnight.

Justice Courts.

Lewis Reid, charged with assault with intent to murder Jeff McCuen, was brought before Justice Gallagher this morning and waived examination.
His bond was fixed at $400.

Ella Givens waived examination this morning upon the charge of assault with intent to murder and was admitted to bail in the sum of $300.

Abe Novich and Jane Bell were fined $5 and costs each for assault.

The case of W. M. Kellett vs. J.
W. Lawrence, a suit on claimants bond is on trial today before Justice Jack Harrison.

MAYOR'S COURT.

In the mayor's court this morning Albert Patterson was acquitted on the charge of standing a hack on the street, Zeke Williams of soliciting custom on the depot platform and John Morris of fighting.

Tom Russell and "Mexico" were fined $5 each for intoxication.

The sidewalk on Clay street demands the immediate attention of the street commissioner. It is obstructed from one end to the other with piles of dirt left there by the contractor who put down the curbing and should be at once removed.

ALL OVER TOWN.

The political pot is getting warm and within a few weeks will begin to boil.

The finance committee will meet next Thursday afternoon to consider the bond question.

Dookery & Co. paid this morning the amount of insurance due by their company to Mike Palmo on the late fire.

A suit was filed in the county court this morning by W. M. Kellett against Charles Dunning for $250 on promissory note.

ladies have taken stock in the City Savings Bank. Get a few shares, and keep in the procession.

The entertainment given last night at the Young Mens Christian Association rooms by the teachers of the Waco Female College, was well attended and highly enjoyed.

The assertion that anyone thinks that the sale of the city bonds five weeks ago at 91 cents would have been more advantageous than their sale now at 95 cents is a canard.

The Waco Liquor dealers held an important meeting at their new hall yesterday evening. Officers for the ensuing year were elected, resulting in the re-election of O. W. Buck as president.

Mrs. Ed. White the popular proprietress of the Fifth street restaurant has sold out her establishment and will leave in a few days for an extended trip throughout the northern and eastern states.

The many friends and supporters of County Attorney J. W. Taylor will be sorry to learn that he has determined not to become a candidate for re-election to the office he now holds. Joe has made a good officer and McLenan county can ill afford to dispense with his valuable service. He will retire with the best wishes and confidence of all in favor of a worthy young man who, with his support, will prove a formidable contestant in the coming race for county attorney.

Mr. Don Rust, representing the Dallas Screen Company, has been in Waco several days and has procured office room at the corner of Fourth and Franklin with the Provident Drug company. Mr. Rust's firm handles a patent screen and one that has a great deal of merit, and he will, doubtless, do a good business. He is ready now to take orders and will have something to say himself in the columns of THE NEWS about the screen business in a few days.

To the Lovers of Art in Photography.

Having moved to my new gallery, over 701 and 703, Austin street, (the old Hinchman Building), I am now better prepared than ever to give the people of Waco the finest Photos in the state. The beautiful "aristo" (so highly endorsed by the leading gal-eries,) in all its beauty, at my studio.
I will have an exhibition for a few days, an elegant oil portrait of Mrs.
Geo. Clark, by Mons. De Gissac, which has been framed in a very handsome "Florentine" frame, making a portrait, well worth a visit, to all, and more especially to the ladies.

I will be glad to welcome my old, and many new customers. Don't forget my new address, over 701 and 703, Austin Ave.

Respectfully,
DEANE, Photographer.

New Coinage.

Startling Facts.

The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks, and the following suggests the best remedy: Alphonso Hempfing, of Butler, Pa., swears that when his son was speechless from St. Vitus dance Dr. Miles' great Restorative Nervine cured him. Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Valparaiso, and J. D. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained 20 pounds from taking it. Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Vistula, Ind., was cured of 40 to 50 convulsions a day, and much headache, dizziness, backache and nervous prostration by one bottle. Trial bottles, and fine book of marvelous cures, free at H. C. Risher & Co., who recommends and guarantees this unequaled remedy.

Following Suit.

On and after March 1, 1892, I will
