

Pears' Soap

The skin ought to be clear; there is nothing strange in a beautiful face.

If we wash with proper soap, the skin will be open and clear, unless the health is bad. A good skin is better than a doctor.

The soap to use is Pears'; no alkali in it. It is perhaps the only soap in the world with no alkali in it.

All sorts of stores sell it, especially druggists; all sorts of people use it.

"But right is right, though it is not always popular, and I stand by it whether it retrieves me to private life or lifts me to higher honors."—Roger Q. Mills.

"I am for free commerce with all nations."—Thomas Jefferson.

"When our constitution says that all persons shall have the right to appeal to the courts for protection of person and property, it means something substantial. It does not mean this right shall be granted as a special favor, or limited by any conditions. It is an absolute right, to be exercised by the citizens at pleasure, and free from punishment if it develops that he is mistaken in judgment."—George Clark at Weatherford.

TAMMANY AND ITS CANDIDATE.

Tammany stands within its dominion and tenders to the Democracy a candidate for president. It boasts of possessing the only true Democracy, but takes care to add that if the Democratic party doesn't accept the Tammany candidate he cannot be elected. It means that Tammany will not support him.

"One who knows how the Wigwam fought Tilden "Says the St. Louis Republic" [until the time came when he was powerless] and Hancock [whom it cruelly betrayed] and Cleveland (who beat both it and Blaine in 1884, but who was knifed in 1888 in the interests of Hugh J. Grant and David B. Hill)—one who remembers 1879 when John Kelly, Tammany's dead saint (we will canonize the rest of them if they will only die,) having been unable to control Governor Lucius Robinson in the matter of patronage, bolted the convention that renominated that gentleman, got himself nominated, for governor against his party's regular candidate, polled some 80,000 Tammany votes, thus electing the Republican candidate, Mr. Cornell—one who is familiar with this awful record of cold-blooded, calculating treachery cannot be made to admire the "sterling Democracy" of Tammany Hall. Its self assertion can deceive no well-informed man. Knowing the facts, he cannot be beguiled by the loudest and most pious professions of orthodoxy. And it is this gang which, with the able assistance of the New York Sun, has slaughtered or tried to slaughter more Democrats than it has helped to elect; which loudly boasts of its party loyalty; and yet in the same breath it threatens with its wrath any candidate who does not wear its Hessian uniform."

The Democracy had just as well begin the fight without reference to Tammany. Nominate a good clean man from the west and let New York support him or not just as she pleases. Her cause is problematical anyhow. Both the Republican and Democratic machine (Tammany) in that state are so treacherous neither party can afford to depend on them. If we have no western man of sufficient strength try Cleveland again. Cleveland is the only man in the East who has the confidence of the South and West and the only thing in his way is the fear that he cannot carry his own state. The Rhode Island Democrats are practically solid for Cleveland. The Massachusetts Democrats are practically solid for Cleveland. Palmer says Cleveland can carry Illinois and these three with six votes from Michigan would elect without New York. If the Democrats are determined to put a free silver plank in the platform they had better nominate Cleveland because he is the only man on earth who would have the ghost of a show to win on a free silver platform.

Finley's speech at Tyler will probably be printed in circular form "for men only." It is entirely too tough to be printed in a paper that goes into the family circle.

Every man in Waco should go to the Clark meeting Friday night.

For governor; George Clark. Platform: Texas God bless her.

Governor Hogg's platform: ME.

SAUNTERINGS.

The portly figure of R. M. Johnson, who was for many years managing editor of the Houston Post was discovered in the hotel rotunda last night. Johnson is one of the best newspaper workers in Texas and did more to bring the Houston Post from obscurity than any man connected with that paper. I worked with Johnson many years ago in Austin, and there learned that he could discover a news item at longer range than any man I ever met. He always had a string of scoops dangling from his belt.

Mr. Cheek, of the Galveston Evening Tribune, was in the city yesterday to ascertain if Waco would have a candidate for the honor of christening the new warship "Texas." Some of the friends of Miss Nettie Rotan promptly nominated her for that honor and she received 1,000 votes on the spot. Upon being informed of what was contemplated Miss Rotan demurred against the use of her name, but after much persuasion from some of her most intimate friends finally consented with reluctance to enter the contest. Waco is too patriotic to allow her to be defeated. The result of the vote and the names of all the candidates will be found in the local columns of THE NEWS every day.

I was shown a cut of the Texas World's Fair building to be constructed at Chicago. These are supposed to be the accepted plans. Possibly I am not a competent judge of such matters, but to me there is less beauty in the design, than any thing I have seen in several moons. It is supposed to represent in appearance the Alamo at San Antonio, which it does to a certain extent, but that does not render it beautiful nor attractive. Unless the visitors to the World's Fair are told the history of the Alamo they would pass the building without a glance. Other states will have buildings constructed with a view to attracting as much attention as possible. If Texas proposes to spend $100,000 on a building she should have something very attractive.
