CAPTAIN PRATT MAKES REMARKS ABOUT

Indian Appropriations and the Lobbying of Catholics at Washington and Members of the House Are Trying to Get Even With Him.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—In the house the Catholic church and the charge that it maintains a lobby at Washington to manipulate appropriations in behalf of Indian sectarian schools was the subject of a three hours' acrimonious discussion.
The Indian appropriation bill was the measure under consideration, and the immediate cause of the religious discussion was the section making an appropriation for the Carlisle Indian school.
It was stated in the house that Captain Pratt of the United States army, superintendent of that school, speaking of an attack made in the house

Against an Appropriation for the Indian school said, "They were made through the Catholic church, which pays congressmen to attack national schools because they are detrimental to their parochial schools, which are given three times the amount by the government the other denominations receive.

Congressman Mansur of Missouri, Stockdale of Mississippi and Pendleton of Virginia, who were understood by implication to be the congressmen referred to, made a lively attack on Capt.
Pratt, and demanded a penalty for the utterances that the $1000 appropriation which he annually receives as superintendent of the Carlisle Indian school be stricken from the Indian appropriation bill.

The house was powerless to express its displeasure in any more forcible way than this, as Captain Pratt being an officer in United States army, and as captain is beyond the reach and regulation of congress. The superintendent of the Indian school had many valient defenders in the house, however, and it was more his reiterated declaration by telegraph than the original newspaper statement that finally led the house to adopt an amendment cutting off his salary as superintendent. Several of his congressional friends who doubted whether he had made the statement attributed to him telegraphed him to know the exact declaration. The answer wired back and subsequently read in the house was about as bad as

The Original Statement.
"My remarks," telegraphed Captain Pratt, "were that Catholics get more than double as much of the Indian school appropriations as all other denominations combined; that they maintain a powerful lobby in Washington and manipulate politics to accomplish their purpose. These were the general statements having no bearing whatever on individual members of congress, much less to Mansur in whose general views I concur."

This was quite satisfactory to Mansur, but it was not very consoling to anybody else and its reading had the effect of causing the house promptly to adopt the proposed amendment. The committee then rose and reported the bill to the house.

The previous question having been ordered, Mr. Pickler of South Dakota demanded a separate vote on the amendment providing that when vacancies occur hereafter in Indian agencies they shall be filled by army officers detailed for duty by the president. The bill then passed.

Mr. McMillin from the committee on ways and means reported the free wood bill, which was referred to the committee on the whole, together with the views of the minority, presented by Mr.
Burrows. Mr. McMillin said he would call the bill up next Tuesday.

Messrs. Bryan of Nebraska and Turner of Georgia respectively from the same committee, reported bills for the free entry of binding twine and cotton bagging and ties. Referred to the committee of the whole and leave was granted to Mr. Payne of New York and Mr. Dalzell of Pennsylvania to present the views of the minority on those measures.

RHODE ISLAND DEMOCRATS

Divided on David B. Hill and Grover Cleveland.

PROVIDENCE, March 2.—There has been a warm campaign in this state among the Democratic factions in preparation for the convention which occurs March 23. It has been Cleveland for president and David S. Baker for governor on one side, and Hill for president and W. C. Wardwell for governor on the other. In the convention are 216 delegates. If those 154 have already been chosen. The straight Cleveland men claim 119 of this total, or ten more than a majority. Six delegates were outspoken for Hill, and the other twenty-nine delegates while ostensibly for Cleveland are classed as doubtful. This majority is understood to favor a pledged delegation for Cleveland. The opposition to Cleveland claim they are merely working to get an unpledged delegation to Chicago. There is some prospect that a candidate for United States senator will be named at the convention. Dr.
L. F. C. Garvin and president Andrews of the Brown university, are mentioned.

USED THEM IN HIS BLOW-GUN.

Doctor—"Well, my fine little fellow, you have got quite well again. I was sure the pills I left for you would cure you. How did you take them, in water or in cake?"
Boy—"Oh, I used them in my blow-gun."

The little fellow put the nasty, great, gripping, old-fashioned pills to good use.
At most, all his internal economy needed was a dose of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, easy to take, and are gently aperient, or actively cathartic, according to size of dose. As a laxative, only one tiny Pellet is required.

The "Pellets" cure Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

The "Pellets" are purely vegetable, and operate without disturbance to the system, diet, or occupation.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the cheapest pills sold by druggists, because they are guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or their price (25 cents a vial) is refunded. Can you ask more?

This is Pretty Good.

Mr. John C. Goodwin, carpenter of Danville, Ill., writes: "About two weeks ago a heavy saw log fell upon my foot very badly crushing it, so that I was unable to walk at all. I sent for a bottle of Ballard's Snow Linament and kept my foot well saturated by it. It is now two weeks since this happened, and my foot is nearly well and I am at work. Had I not used Snow Linament I should have been
