FOR COUNTY CLERK.
 We are authorized to announce Jno F. Marshall as a candidate for the office of county clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Special invitation is extended to the ladies to come to the Clark rally tonight. The gallery will be reserved for them and it is hoped many of them will be there.

The sample pavement on the corner of Fourth and Austin is being taken up and rook and gravel being put down. That has been an ugly place in the streets.

THE SITUATION.

Hill Has Killed Himself in the Party.

LOOKING TO THE WEST FOR A

Candidate Who can Win but if an Available Man Cannot be Found to Knock Cleveland out He is the Man.

NEW YORK, March 4.—A prominent Kentucky Democrat writes the World in part as follows:

"Hill's silver speech and snap-judgment manoeuvres have doubled popular distrust of the man, of his methods, of his real popularity and ability to carry New York, and his connection with Brice, Gorman and Dana has identified him with Democrats who are regarded as the political agents employed by plutocracy to obstruct and darken the pathway of Democracy.

A solid uncontested Hill delegation from New York will now only confirm and incense the anti-Hill sentiment, which will enter the Democratic convention like an avalanche. The effect of Hill's course and The World's ringing protests has been so emphatic that I can hardly believe a man of Hill's cunning could have anticipated a different result. I suspect that Hill's only hope was to prevent Cleveland's nomination, and I feel sure that this is all Hill's New York delegation can accomplish by assuring New York's electoral vote to some candidate from another state.

As to candidates from other states, if Judge Thurman were as vigorous as Gen. Palmer or there were some other Western man of equally well-known character and ability, he would be nominated without a question. The want of a western man of generally recognized availability accounts for the clinging to Cleveland when he has lost New York once and apparently is bound to lose it again if nominated. His strength in the West rests partly on popular admiration for his courageous honesty and frankness, but more on doubt that any new man named in the West can make a better race.

In spite of his silver view grand old Gen. Palmer would be supported with enthusiasm and with much hope of his carrying Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Iowa, if it were not feared that the party would shrink from nominating a man of seventy-three.

Boies is rising finely in public esteem, but he is brand new, and the understanding that he voted for Blaine in 1884 is against a ready concentration on him.

Carlise was born in Kentucky and lives in Kentucky.

Neither Gray, of Indiana, nor Campbell, of Ohio, is thought of as a competitor for Harrison. Looking farther east, Pattison would stand in the front rank of availables, if there were any ground for a rational hope of his carrying Pennsylvania. Gorman's ability is recognized, but his Democracy is distrusted and his state is a safe one. There is nothing against Abbott, of New Jersey, but the West is not looking that way. Politicians of the Joe Riekey type may talk of Flower, but the masses think of him only as a rich New Yorker, willing and able to pay liberally for positions above his capacity. Fuller's mustache and supreme court position rule him out.

Some Democrats think they can beat Harrison with a yellow dog, but a

A WHITECAP SCHEME.

Doctor Charged with Seduction Holds His Own.

ST. CHARLES, Mo., March 4.—The attempted white capping of Dr. Diger Sunday evening at St. Peters, a village ten miles west of here, in which a warning was posted on his door to leave town in three hours, is said to have arisen from the seduction of a girl named Schwendermann. When he read the warning Dr. Diger at once took to task the parties whom he supposed posted the notice, and defied the armed mob which gathered. Weapons were pointed and it looked for awhile like blood would be spilled, but fortunately better counsel prevailed. Dr. Diger says the real animus of the threats is personal spite from men whose enmity he has incurred and that they have taken advantage of the charge of seduction to attack him.
 The charge of seduction he characterizes as an attempt at blackmail.

At one time the Schwendermann girl acted as housekeeper for a young man of the village and the two lived alone in the same house for several months. Afterwards the girl visited Dr. Diger at his office when he prescribed for her.
 The girl's relatives claimed that during one of these visits the doctor accomplished her ruin.

MURDERED AT TEXARKANA.

Deputy Sheriff Nettles Shot by a Mill Man.

TEXARKANA, Ark., March 4.—At Ingersoll, a small town on the Cotton Belt railroad fourteen miles west of here, Deputy Sheriff William L. Nettles was shot and instantly killed by a mill man named J. T. Mozier.

It seems that Mozier, who lives a few miles out of town, had gone to Ingersoll and during the day partook very freely of alcoholic stimulants until he became crazy drunk and began to fire a shotgun rather promiscuously on the streets.

There being no city government no policeman was on hand to arrest him and Officer Nettles was sent for.
 When the latter arrived he walked up to Mosier and said: "Mr. Mozier, I must arrest you; please hand me your gun." Instead of doing so Mozier said: "I will give you its contents," and suiting the action to the words, took a step backward, raised the shotgun to a level and fired a heavy charge of buckshot through the chest and lungs of Nettles. The murderer then reloaded his gun and disappeared before the citizens of the town had time to recover from the shock.

Sheriff Cannon of this place has gone to the scene of the tragedy and will spare no efforts to arrest and bring Mozier to justice.
