THE FAIR SLAYER

OF MEMPHIS AN EXTRAORDINARILY SANE PERSON

If She Is Not Crazy—Speaks of Her Victim with the Tenderest Affection, Expressing Profound Sorrow at Having Lost Her Love.

MEMPHIS, March 5.—If Alice Mitchell is not crazy she is a most extraordinary sane person. From the time of her arrest to the release of Lillie Johnson, her co-defendant and room-mate at the jail, she was very quiet, seeming to care absolutely nothing about the killing of Freda Ward or the probable consequences to herself. She was not especially affectionate toward Lillie, though perfectly friendly, but when Lillie was admitted to bail and was on the eve of leaving the jail for her home, Alice became violently agitated by the thought of the loss she was about to sustain. She frantically embraced Lillie and covered her face with kisses, and even extended similar caresses to the father of her companion, who was there to take his daughter away. But after Lillie's departure she speedily regained her composure and now appears to be as well content alone as she was before. At times she speaks of her victim with the tenderest affection, expressing her profoundest sorrow at having lost her love, but never a word of regret for having ruthlessly slaughtered her. She has cut out of the newspapers all the pictures of Freda and frequently kisses and talks to them as if they were the original. In a different mood she does some art work herself, having a considerable talent for drawing. Among her productions are sketches of the scenes in the criminal courtroom during her three appearances there as a prisoner at the bar, including portraits of the judge, the attorney-general and her own counsel.

HANGED TO A TREE

On the Main Road by a Mob of Fifty Armed Men.

DEXTER, Mo., March 5.—Four fully disguised and heavily armed men went to the jail at Bloomfield and knocked at Sheriff Barham's door, who opened it, asking: "Who's there?" He was covered by guns and ordered to give up the keys to Murderer Amos Miller's cell. He argued and pleaded with the men, but under threats of instant death he told the men where the keys were; then, at the front of a revolver, went upstairs and opened the cell. Miller was taken out, a rope was thrown over his head and he was hurried out of town three-quarters of a mile south and hanged to a tree on the main road.

Only one man besides Sheriff Barham saw the party in Bloomfield, and he says fully fifty men were in the mob. Their victim was carried out without a sound, and it was unknown until the sheriff sent out word of what had happened. The sheriff states that he was completely taken by surprise, as he was expecting guards to come to the jail to watch the prisoner.

The murderer was left hanging until 9 o'clock next morning, when the coroner cut his body down, held an inquest and delivered the body to Miller's friends.

This is the last chapter in the Dexter tragedy. Officials are investigating, and if the members of the mob are apprehended it will go hard with them. All is quiet now.

Victims of Their Own Greed.

ST. LOUIS, March 5.—Fire in the store of Marcus and Abraham Cohen, on Chouteau avenue, was followed by an explosion, blowing out the front of the store. The police and firemen found Marcus horribly burned and removed him to a hospital, where he died. Abraham was found charred beyond recognition on the floor of the store after the fire was quenched. Mrs. Marcus Cohen and three children were removed from rooms above uninjured. Inquiry shows the men had removed most of the stock, then turned on the gas and opened a gasoline can. Before leaving, however, one inadvertently, it is thought, lighted a match. The explosion followed and the men were hoisted with their own petard and died victims of their own criminality. The insurance for which the men lost their lives was $7500.

Will Fight Either of Them.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The following telegram was addressed to the editor of a morning paper here:

ST. PAUL, March 5.—John L. Sullivan authorizes me to state that he will fight either Charles Mitchell or Slavin at the Olympic club, New Orleans, for a purse of $25,000, and an outside bet of $10,000 or much more. He can and will best them, the fight to take place the last week in August or the first week in next September. DUNCAN B. HARRISON.

Sandbagged.

PARSONS, Kas., March 5.—Charles Wright of Beagle, Kas., was sandbagged on the M., K. & T. railroad platform in this city and robbed of $300. His left arm fell on the railroad track and was run over by a train backing up, necessitating its amputation. The robbers made their escape.

A Fall of Eleven Stories.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Bergan, a young carpenter, employed on the new Ashland block, corner of Randolph and Clark streets, fell from the eleventh story to the ground floor and was not killed or even made senseless. His left leg was broken in two places above the knee, and three ribs on the left side were fractured and he received minor injuries. He struck some of the elevator wires in his fall, breaking the momentum. He was quite cheerful while his injuries were being attended to and will recover in all probability.

Still Under Arrest.

EAGLE PASS, March 5.—Conductor O'Brien and Engineer Glover and the brakeman and fireman of the passenger train which struck and killed the Mexican woman at Venadito Wednesday evening are still under arrest at that place and the case is undergoing investigation. From accounts received from parties who were on the train no blame could be attached to any one for the unfortunate accident and it is thought they will all be released as soon as the circumstances are brought before the judges.

A Child's Suicide.

FREEPORT, Pa., March 5.—Charles Kepple, aged 11 years, son of Peter Kepple, committed suicide near here by hanging himself in his father's barn. The boy had done something for which his father reproved and threatened to whip him. The boy left the house angry, and when one of the family went to the barn the lifeless body was found dangling at the end of a rope tied to a joist.

To Be Reopened.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 5.—When the Boyd-Thayer case comes off in the supreme court on the demanding order of the United States supreme court, an answer will be filed by ex-Governor Thayer's attorney and the result will be virtually another contest for the gubernatorial seat on the old grounds.

Snow in Italy.

ROME, March 5.—Violent snowstorms are raging in Trieste. In the latter city snow is nearly two feet high and roads are blocked in consequence.

Colonel Porter Dead.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 5.—Merriam & Son received a telegram from a son of ex-President Porter of Yale stating that the latter had died.

Mills Much Improved.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Representative Mills of Texas is greatly improved. He is able to sit up and is attending to correspondence.

Gone

—all the painful disorders and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the female sex. They go, with the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Periodical pains, weak back, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, all "female complaints" are cured by it. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless—a powerful general, as well as uterine, tonic and nerve, imparting vigor and strength to the whole system. It costs you nothing if it fails to give satisfaction. It's guaranteed to do so, in every case, or the money is refunded. It can be guaranteed—for it does it. No other medicine for women is sold on such terms.

That's the way its makers prove their faith in it. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; a legitimate medicine, not a beverage. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system.

Do You Know It?

A common cough is the most dangerous thing in the world to neglect; a slight hacking cough is also very dangerous, as it always leads to Bronchitis and Consumption. Don't neglect them. In selecting a remedy for Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis, be sure and get one that is not full of Opium and one that will not produce Constipation. Ballard's Horehound Syrup does not constipate, remember this. It is perfectly harmless for children, and it's the most soothing and healing Throat and Lung medicine in the world. It cures Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Sore Lungs, tickling in the throat and greatly strengthens the Lungs after Pneumonia. So by H.
