An Explanation.

The patrons of THE NEWS have had cause to complain of its delivery for the past week and we desire to submit this statement in explanation of the matter: For nearly a week the machinery has been torn down in moving it to another building and yesterday afternoon just as we were ready to go to press, the engine broke and consequently delayed the issue very much. We hope our friends will exercise a little toleration for a day or two longer when we promise to deliver it to them earlier than ever before.

ALL OVER TOWN.

St. Patrick's day, in the evening.

Prof. M. T. Edgerton and Mr. J.
 H. Maxon, the Waco delegates to the State Epworth League, at Dallas, left last night for that city.

The newly organized Geyser City band will go to West next Friday and give a concert together with the Lone Star band of that place.

But two cases occupied the attention of the mayor's court this morning. Arthur and James Scott were fined $5 each for intoxication.

The regular meeting which should have been held last Monday night was postponed till 4:30 this afternoon, on account of the ice question about which so much has been said.

The Waco Cotton Exchange will meet this evening at the office of E.
 P. Woodward, but their deliberations are strictly secret and hence no news can be given to the public.

DAVID B. HILL.

Several Thousand People Greet Him at Meridian.

MERIDIAN, Miss., March 16.—Several thousand people assembled in Meridian when the train bearing Senator Hill and party rolled into the city. He was received by the music of the bands and a salute of musketry from the Mississippi Southern, a military organization of Meridian. Senator Hill was introduced by Captain W. H. Hardy, chairman of the citizens' committee, as follows:

"Friends and fellow citizens: I have the pleasure of introducing to you the great Democratic leader who never leads but to victory and who never won a victory but for the people. He is pre-eminently the great exponent of the old Democratic doctrine that all political power is inherent in the people. Hence there is in his political creed no place for force bills, no countenance for rule of plutocracy, but that the will of the people is the supreme law that should guide and govern official conduct of all men in public situations. [Cheers.]

Today all eyes are turned to him and the great and wise leader, under whose banner the Democratic hosts of this country shall march to victory next November, and not only that but when that great victory shall be won, it will be a permanent one to continue year after year and term after term, after this government shall be restored to that glorious career begun under our fathers, and so go onward and upward till it reaches that great destiny which in the providence of God awaits the brave, vir-tuous and free, Mississippi's guest, the Hon. David B. Hill." [Cheers.] Senator Hill spoke briefly and forcibly on national political issues and was loudly cheered. He denounced the force bill and billion dollar congress, and said the people would pronounce against the Republican party in the coming election.
 [Cheers.]

A Rapist Captured.

SEDALIA, Mo., March 16.—Detective Kinney has returned from Houston, Tex., and in reference to the man held there for the Taylor outrage, said: "The negro now in custody at Houston answers the description of the rapist more minutely than any capture made yet. I am strongly inclined to believe we now have the right man.
 His name is Wash McClelland.
 He says he was arrested on the charge of burglary, having robbed a clothing store the 29th. The insolent negro's cutting speech and the details of his appearance make me think he is the man Davis. When the officers went to take his picture he resisted desperately and said he would die first, and we got no picture."

Killed Three Men.

TIFFIN, O., March 16.—Walter Snyder, confidential clerk in Naylor & Co.'s hardware store, shot his two employes, Edward J. Naylor and Burton Crobaugh, and T. W. Downey, a fellow clerk, and then shot himself. He was undoubtedly insane. Snyder was worth $30,000 in real estate. Last week the firm took two of its clerks into partnership, leaving Snyder out, which preyed on his mind so that he called Crobaugh and Naylor to look at an express package he had received, and while examining it he shot them. Downey rushed to the rescue and received three bullets in his body.
 The streets are thronged in front of the store where the bloody work was done.
 All men save Snyder are married and have families.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced; usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak ner-
