A New Establishment.

Messrs. Lack & Greenberg, two of the most skillful tailors in the city, have opened up at 414 1/2 Austin street where they will be glad to see their friends and take their orders for fine spring suits. They do fine work, give perfect fits and are able to please the most fastidious. Give them an order and they will be sure to please you.

Resigned.

Capt. M. B. Davis, who has for a long time past rendered such valuable service as city editor of The Day, has resigned that position and is superseded by Mr. W. G. Seaver, late of the Fort Worth Gazette. In this severance our neighbor across the way has lost a diligent and capable member of its staff, and while its new acquisition will be heartily welcomed and his productions—doubtless—correct, instructive and edifying, yet the readers of the morning paper will miss the terseness and peculiarly fascinating style of the only and original M. B. Davis, and regret the necessity for his retirement from that paper. Mr. Davis will retain his position as correspondent of the Galveston-Dallas News, St. Louis Globe-Democrat and other outside papers and will continue his inveterate search for a "scoop."

You are cordially invited to attend the Fifteenth anniversary of McLennan Lodge I. O. O. F. tomorrow night. Nice programme. Free.

There will be an important meeting of The Elks' lodge at the club rooms tomorrow night. The regular annual election of officers will take place.

There will be a mass meeting in the Fifth ward tonight. It is Planned for alderman only but the other candidates will, no doubt, be present in full force.

Fifty-five young lady students of Baylor university took advantage of the generous offer of Mr. Tom Padgett and took a plunge at the natatorium Saturday morning. The pool was given to them exclusively.

The artesian well at College Heights was turned on all day yesterday and the street cars of the Hobson line were crowded with passengers going out, anxious to see the magnificent flow and with others, delighted with what they had seen, coming back.

Lee Price, the negro who was fined at the last term of the county court $2,000 for threats to take life, and who was also placed under a peace bond, was brought into town Saturday and turned over to Sheriff Dan Ford, by Mr. O. Darwin who was surety on the peace bond, and upon whose farm he was working out his heavy fine.

County Court.

The case of S. T. Norris vs. The Citizens Railway company is on trial today in the county court. This is a suit for $900 damages for injuries claimed to have been received by plaintiff while alighting from defendant's car. The defendant company answers that the plaintiff was hurt through his own culpable negligence in not waiting for the car to stop before alighting, and hence is not entitled to recover.

The plaintiff is represented by Capt. T. A. Blair and Mr. L. W. Campbell and the defendant by Col. John L. Dyer.

THE HOTEL ROYAL SOLD.

Messrs. Whittinghill & Phillips Sell out to Mr. G. H. Bussee.

Late Saturday afternoon Messrs. Whittinghill & Phillips proprietors of the Hotel Royal sold that popular hostelry to Mr. G. H. Bussee of Monterey, Mexico. The transfer will be made on April 19. The retiring proprietors have been in Waco only a few months but in that time have made a large circle of friends who will join THE NEWS in hoping that they will embark in some other enterprise and remain in Waco.

Mr. Bussee the new proprietor is a hotel man of long experience and will no doubt keep the Royal up to its high standard of excellence.

Serious Difficulty.

Two notorious colored women, Ella Rice and Mit McGowan, had a difficulty Saturday night at a dance in Sand Town in which Mit was seriously slashed with a razor. Ella skipped out and has not yet been heard from. The woman who was out in the fracas is said to be seriously if not dangerously hurt.

Died.
