MACCABEES.

The Grand Supreme Officers of the World Coming.

Hen. D. P. Markey, Supreme Commander, and Maj. N. S. Boynton, Supreme Record Keeper, Knights of the Maccabees of the World, are, at present, making a tour of the state of Texas, and will be in Waco next Friday the first day of April. Waco Artesian Tent, No. 6, the local branch of the order, is preparing to give these distinguished visitors an entertainment and reception at the city hall, Friday night. A musical and literary programme is being prepared to that end, to be followed by an informal reception, and all the good people of Waco, who are interested in fraternal organizations, are invited to be present.

Supreme Commander Markey is an ex-senator of Michigan, and Maj. Boynton is an ex-speaker of the Michigan house of representatives, and both are fluent speakers. The latter is the founder of the Knights of the Maccabees, and also one of the organizers of the National Fraternal Congress, and is probably the most noted and influential man in fraternal circles in the world. He is also author of the only book of rules of order governing secret societies.

The Knights of the Maccabees have insurance benefits, which is an important and modern feature unknown to the Maccabees of the Bible, those mighty warriors of old, yet in other respects the modern order is founded on that of old, an historical account of which may be found in the Apochrypha.

The programme for Friday evening will be printed as soon as the committee of arrangements have it completed.

HOUSE REJECTS SENATE AMENDMENT ON TARIFF REFORM.

Tariff and Silver Discussed in the Senate and That Body Refused to Accept the House Resolution—Bill Introduced Establishing Twenty-one Judicial Districts.

AUSTIN, March 25.—The house refused to reconsider the vote on Robison's bill regulating the issuance of teachers' certificates.

Martin's (of Somervell) resolution instructing Texas congressmen to vote for silver, and amended by senate so as to make tariff reform paramount, the house by a vote of 52 to 38 refused to concur in the senate amendment.

By Mr. Vestal—A resolution inviting Senator Chilton to address the legislature. Adopted.

The text-book bill was taken up. Cochran of Dallas offered to amend by striking out section 16 and inserting the following: "The fact that the contents of this bill clearly implies that the people of the several school districts of this state are incapable of self-government and incompetent to regulate their local affairs, or to protect themselves from themselves, creates a public necessity that the protecting care of a centralized and paternalistic government be speedily established, and the further fact that the passage of this bill will greatly facilitate the accomplishment of the end sought, justifies the suspension of the constitutional rule which requires bills to be read on three several days in each house, and the same is so suspended."

The text-book bill discussion will occupy the attention of the house two or more days.

Mr. Batts of Bastrop presented a telegram from Superintendent Palmer of Dallas county saying that the people of Dallas county were for the bill. Personal recrimination was then indulged in between Batts and Cochran.

Senate.

AUSTIN, March 25.—Mr. Burney presented a memorial from the San Antonio board of trade protesting against the passage of the alien land law.

Mr. Garwood introduced a bill establishing twenty-one judicial districts.

Two hours' discussion was had on tariff and silver and by a vote of 19 to 12 the senate refused to accept the house resolution.

Mr. McKinney's house resolutions providing for the location of appellate courts by ballot reported adversely and a conference committee was called for.

The Alien Land Law.

AUSTIN, March 25.—The committee to which was referred the different alien land law bills have amended Gossett's bill so as to allow them to hold 640 acres instead of 200 and with several minor amendments have reported favorably with the recommendation that it be passed.

One important amendment is a provision that in case of trustee's sale by an alien mortgage holder the debtor shall have one year in which to redeem.

A DENTIST'S MONKEYING.

It Secures for Him His Rich Brother-in-Law's Cordial Emity.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Samuel B. Althouse, the richest man in the village of Far Rockaway, L. I., and the largest land owner, was arrested and taken before Justice Seaman, who released him on $500 bail, on a charge of petit larceny. Mr. Althouse's arrest was made at the instigation of Dr. S. S. Guy, a dentist, living in Far Rockaway. Mr. Althouse and Dr. Guy are brothers-in-law. They married sisters, the Misses Mott, whose father became suddenly wealthy by the rapid increase in the value of real estate on the Long Island seashore.

The trouble between Dr. Guy and Mr. Althouse grows out of a photograph on tin, four for 25 cents, taken some years ago. The picture stood on the handsome oak mantel in Dr. Guy's drawing-room. It was of an apparently handsome man and woman, and when visitors asked for information Dr. Guy would say, "that is Mrs. Althouse and her old beau, Mr. Bronson." Mr. Althouse did not like this. He requested Dr. Guy to put the picture of Mrs. Althouse and Mr. Bronson in a more private place or destroy it altogether, but the dentist refused to listen to such a procedure. Mrs. Guy removed the tin-type once, and Dr. Guy made such a fuss about it that she had to return it. These things convinced Mr. Althouse that Dr. Guy kept the photograph in view to taunt him. He did not like this kind of "guying."

A few days ago Dr. and Mrs. Guy went away for a short vacation. The picture was left in its place, on an easel on the mantel. When the Guys got back home the picture was gone and the easel broken. For some reason the picture had been glued fast to the easel. Dr. Guy was furious. He learned that a little boy had entered the house and carried off the picture. He found the boy, and he said that Mr. Althouse sent him into the doctor's house to steal the picture.

The issue was now a straight one between the brothers-in-law. Dr. Guy says he demanded a return of the pic-

LOUISVILLE HANGING.

A Negro Murderer Swings into Eternity Believing that he is Passing to a Land of Perpetual Bliss.

LOUISVILLE, March 25.—From the same gallows from which Thener and Patterson were hanged Henry Smith was swung into eternity this morning for murder. The crime which brought Smith to the scaffold was committed in the afternoon of January 18, 1891. Without provocation he shot down his employer, Louis Speight. After lingering five days Speight died. The scene of the crime was at the Speight saloon and grocery at the eight mile house, on the Brownsboro road.

Smith did not close his eyes during the night. At 6 o'clock, just after service by Rev. Taylor, Smith was handcuffed and his arms pinioned. Immediately afterward the start was made for the scaffold. When he mounted the scaffold, Smith, whose courage had never left him, stepped to the front and made a short speech. He said he had nothing to say but, welcomed death. He was satisfied that he would pass into that world where there was nothing but happiness. He closed with a fervent amen. He then stepped on the trap. As the noose was put around his neck Smith laughed and said: "Be careful." He was smiling all the while. At 6:20 the black cap was put on and noose adjusted. At 6:22 the trap fell and the body dropped perfectly still, but after a few seconds it began jerking in convulsions. At 6:24 Smith's hands began twitching, this lasted for a moment on two and then the body became limp. At 6:38 Doctor Gavin pronounced him dead.

AN INVALIDS FRIGHT.

Burglars Enter a House and Bind and Gag Two Ladies. One an Invalid.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 25.—Mary Taylor daughter of James Taylor was awakened early this morning by a noise in her room and found three masked men armed with revolvers and knives searching the bureau drawers she screamed and one robber made a lunge at her with a knife, severely wounding her in the left arm. Her screams awakened her sister and the robbers then bound and gagged the ladies but the noise attracted other members of the household and neighbors and the robbers were forced to retreat. Mr. Taylor, who is nearly 100 years old, recently sold his property, receiving $25,000 cash and it is supposed the thieves were after the money. Mary Taylor has been an invalid for several years, and the shock and fright together with the wound received in the arm is feared will result in her death. Her condition today is very precarious.

Heartily Welcomed Home.

Mr. Tom Wilsford, an account of whose approaching marriage was published in THE NEWS a few days ago, returned on the midnight train last night from Vernon, Texas, with his beautiful bride. They were met at the depot by a number of friends, with a band of music, which, as the newly wedded pair stepped from the train, played a lively air, while the hands of the lion of the occasion and those of the blushing bride by his side, were grasped in hearty welcome home and lavish congratulations uttered. The party then entered the carriages in waiting and were driven to No. 626, North Eighth street, their future home, where an elegant repast was spread, and all ate, drank and were merry.

THE NEWS joins the many friends of the young couple in hearty congratulations and wishes them a long, happy and prosperous life.

A PRISONER'S REVOLT.

Quelled Without Delay—No Sufficient Cause.

Some of the negro prisoners in the county jail rose in revolt against returning to their cells after their exercise in the run-around Wednesday. Their condition is in no wise different from that of the other colored prisoners not concerned in the rising and that of the whites. The mutiny was quelled early, two police officers reinforced the jailers. It made an exciting episode but did not amount to much.

Good Bonds for Sale.

The following appears in the Kansas City Times of recent date: "Maj. A. Hinchman of the city of Waco, Texas, states that his city has $130,000 worth of street improvement bonds for sale. These bonds draw 5 per cent interest, payable semi-annually, and will make a good investment as Waco owes less than any other city in Texas according to the assessed valuation. Parties desiring these bonds can get full information by addressing Joney Jones, city secretary, Waco, Texas.

County Court.

In the case of Cheneworth vs Black, which was concluded late yesterday afternoon in the county court, a verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $200 damages.

A foree of men are at work this week cleaning the machinery of the Cameron Roller Mills. As is well known the machinery of a big flouring mill is very costly, and is easily ruined by a little rust. For this reason all good mill men have the works thoroughly cleaned, whether running or not.

Mr. Cameron has now under contract eight big elevators to be located at as many different points in the Northwestern part of the state. In this way he will be able to control a supply of grain which will keep his big mills at Fort Worth and Waco running full time the year through.

THEY ARE CRAZY FOR CLARK.

In the Panhandle—A Letter from an old Wacoite.

HULVER, Hall county, Texas, }
 March 21, 1892. }

Editor News.

If you will permit me, I will give some of my Waco friends and others, through the columns of your paper a brief description of this part of Texas. The great Panhandle is large enough for several states itself, yet is but a small portion of Texas. This part of it is a pleasant country to live in and land is cheap. There is plenty of homestead land here, but it is very rough. There is school land in abundance of excellent quality, besides patented land of finest grade at from $1 to $5 per acre. Fruit and vegetables grow well here, and wheat, oats, corn, in fact everything suited to this climate flourishes.

Game is abundant. Deer, antelope, wild turkeys, prairie chickens are all plentiful. There is one thing we haven't got, and I am glad of it. It is negroes. This is strictly a white man's country. I have seen but one negro since I came here and he was in town. We are not inviting any of them into this country. We want good white neighbors, but no black ones. I have no fuss to make with the colored "man and brother," but I believe the white people and the negroes should live separately.

Upon my return from work last night I was made happy by finding a copy of THE NEWS on my table. My joy was intensified when I opened it and found in box car letters the words "Turn Texas Loose" and I soon found myself yelling "Hurrah for George Clark, turn her loose." This whole country is enthusiastic for Clark and we are crazy to have him visit us. We want to hear him speak and give him assurance that when the time comes we will vote solidly to "turn Texas loose."

The Gabert Bros.

It is worth while for any one who wears clothes to refrain from purchasing until he has taken a good look at the fine stock of the Gabert Bros., 116 South Fourth street. They are the leading tailors with the largest and finest stock of goods ever brought to Waco. They carry all the new and nobby styles of the spring of '92 with such diversity that no one can fail in finding goods to suit his own particular fancy. When it comes to cutting and fitting the Gabert Brothers are artists in every sense of the word with the most skillful workmen that can be procured. They give perfect fits and somehow their clothes have a look about them that only the work of artists can produce. Give them a call and look over their big fine stock before ordering a suit and you will have no reason to regret any order you may favor them with.

Died.

At the residence of his parents, two miles from Waco, on the Dallas road, Mr. Hugh Steed in the 13th year of his age. Interment at Oakwood tomorrow at 11 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances of the family invited. The deceased is a brother of E. H. Steed, who died about a month ago at the same place. The family are exceedingly unfortunate and in their sad bereavement they have the sympathy of a host of friends.

Entertainment Postponed.

Owing to the weather and so many entertainments, the ladies of the Woman's Exchange have decided to postpone the entertainment to be given by the Histrionics till next week, probably Friday April 1st. Due notice will be given.

According to the tabulated report of the vote of McLennan county, cast four years ago, the Democratic majority was only about $1000. The vote in the city at the same time was as follows: First ward Democratic majority, 200; Second ward, 291; Third ward, 142; Fourth ward, 40; Fifth ward, 6, making an aggregate of 679.
