Touching Pianos and Organs.
 I claim to be a cheap house, but unlike some of my competitors, I do sell goods that are not first-class. Still I have more first-class goods in my house than any house in Waco, and I do not have to wire anyone to know the lowest price. I can sell a piano like every other first-class house and keep all kinds, both cheap, medium and first class. But unlike some other houses I do not sell a cheap instrument as first-class, because I am my own boss, and do not have to do as I am told about these things. Neither have I as delicate a musical ear as some, still I sell more pianos and organs, better ones and for less money than any house in Waco notwithstanding the fact that I am not the oldest house in the state and have sold sewing machines and do trade for mules, horses and cattle and take them at good prices and sell goods at cash prices and will meet any competitors. Come and see me.
 Yours truly,
 J. B. PAYNE.

Tom Padgett bought the entire stock of buggies and carriages at the S. A. Owens & Son, United States Marshal's sale at almost nothing. A large number of them have been sold but he has still a few on hand which he offers still at remarkably low prices. It is a chance for a person of small means to buy a nice buggy and enable his wife to put on style over her less fortunate neighbors.

Master Connell Dowlen, son of F. E. Dowlen, was shot in the face Saturday by another boy with a "nigger shooter," the missile being a buck shot. The shot barely missed the eye and made a very painful wound. Such reckless use of this dangerous toy should be punished. There is a city ordinance covering such cases.

STATE CONVENTION.
 Of the Young Men's Christian Association.

DALLAS, Tex., April 16.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon the last business session of the convention was called to order by the president, and was opened by a fifteen minute devotional exercise conducted by I. C. Shattuck of Waco. The reports were then all given in, after which W. M. Lewis of Waco read two invitations for the next convention, one from Corsicana, the other a very pressing one from Galveston. They were referred to the state executive committee, who will decide. Rev. R. R. Lloyd, of Geneva, Ill., gave for the next hour a most instructive bible reading on "Sanctification." After the bible reading the convention divided up into four department conferences held at the association rooms and at the residences of the citizens of Dallas. These conferences were:

1. For state committeemen and association directors, presided over by J. B. Palmer of Galveston.
2. For delegates from small towns, presided over by W. M. Lewis, of Waco.
3. One for college delegates, presided over by F. S. Brookman, of Atlanta, Ga.
4. For delegates interested in the gymnasium and boys' work, presided over by F. E. A. Smith, of Denison.

The conferences were very instructive and has been one of the helpful features of the convention. Before the convention adjourned a strong resolution was passed, requesting the management of the World's fair to keep the gates closed on Sunday and also that the sale of intoxicating drinks be prohibited within the gates.
 Sunday has come and with it a great effort on the part of delegates for the advancement of Christ's cause among young men. The pulpits of the different churches have all been thrown open to delegates, and it is proving a grand day. Wilbur Bourland and Willy Matthews have been assigned work in the boys' meeting. W. M. Lewis spoke at the Cumberland Church in the evening and at the Tabernacle Church at night. The men's meeting was largely attended, and was conducted by Frank L. Smith, of New York. I. C. Shattuck spoke, also Harry Goldber and John Held at the different churches. The last and best of all was the farewell service at the First Baptist Church at 9 o'clock, conducted by J. B. Palmer, of Galveston. Those are always meetings that are productive of much good feeling.
 A great many delegates will leave early in the morning for home, but all secretaries and those especially interested in the work will stay for the secretaries' conference tomorrow.

An Exciting Game Yesterday Between Waco and Fort Worth.
 Fully one thousand people went out to Padgett's Park yesterday to witness one of the best amateur games ever played on the Waco grounds.
 A great many were disappointed, however, in Fort Worth, and taken altogether, Fort Worth put up a poor game.
 Our Waco Lone Stars played up to the standard and held the Fort Worth boys down to three base hits.
 Up to the first half of the sixth inning only two of Fort Worth's men had reached first base.
 King's pitching was too much for the boys and they went to the bat and took their medicine like little men.
 Fort Worth's catcher, McAllister, played a beautiful game, and had he had the right kind of support from his team they would doubtless have won the game.
 The audience became quite enthusiastic at times and waving of hats and cheering was in order throughout the entire game.

The most prominent feature of the game was the home run knocked by Thomas in the second inning, bringing Hughston in from first, thus scoring two runs. Had it been a still day and no wind blowing the ball would have doubtless been lost.
 Fort Worth's pitcher was weak and his balls were batted promiscuously. Several times Waco got two-base hits and nearly every man that went to the bat got a single base. McAllister was put in the box in the fifth inning and did some excellent work.
 The score up to the eighth inning was 16 to 0, but from an error Fort Worth scored one run.
 In the sixth inning Fort Worth got a man to third base and Pencher knocked a grounder to Spencer; Spencer threw the ball in home and out off the run, (and it was this play that excited the official scorer and caused him to swallow his chewing gum.)

The Fort Worth boys are no match for Waco which fact was acknowledged by several of their players. The Waco boys are fast gaining a reputation as amateurs and in two more years will be competent to fill Waco's place in the Texas League.
 The following is a list of the players:
FORT WORTH.
 Johnson, o. f.; Steinfeld, s. s.; Jarvis, p.; Saunders, 2 b.; Burgan, 3 b.; Toockleberry, 1 b.; McAllister, c.; Peacher, 2 f.; Moore, 1. f.
WACO.
 Shaffer, 3 b.; Spencer, s. s.; Richards, 1. b.; Darrab, 2 b.; Hughston, 1. f.; Thomas, c.; King, p.; Stallard, r. f.; Blanchart, c. f.; Lunstord, sub.
 The Fort Worth boys returned home last night minus their catcher McAllister who will sign with Waco, and no doubt he will be a valuable acquisition to the Waco nine.
 Next Sunday Waco will play the famous Colt's, the first nine of Ft. Worth.

It was a mistake about the Van Zandt Bros., being the battery for Fort Worth yesterday. The Van Zandt Bros belong to Fort Worth's first nine and they went to Dallas and played the first nine of that city yesterday.

Outrageous Conduct.
 For some time past a number of boys and young men have been acting so bad during services at the Tenth Street Methodist church as to necessitate the regular attendance of an officer to prevent them from disturbing religious worship. Last night three young men acted so outrageously that Deputy City Marshal Clay and Policeman Hobson attempted to arrest them but succeeded in getting only one, the other two making good their escape by flight. Upon promises of future good behavior the other one was finally allowed to go free and it is thought they will hereafter make themselves scarce about the chapel. The officers have their names and know where to find them if they repeat last night's conduct. It is said that the conduct of two certain young ladies is about as reprehensible as that of the young men and the officers have their names also upon their note books, but it is to be hoped last night's experience will be a lesson to them and that they will hereafter conduct themselves in a more becoming manner.
