AFTER MANY YEARS

An Official Order of General F. H. Robertson is Returned to Him.

While at Dallas attending the ex-Confederate Reunion Gen. Felix H. Robertson was handed a small scrap of paper, folded in a triangular shape. It proved to be an order in September, 1861, and read as follows: H — 15' BRIGADE PENSACOLA, FLA } September, 1861. }

Orders:

Parade Quick. Countersign Queen. By order of Maj. Gen. Bragg. [Signed] G. G. GARNER, A. A. A. Gen'l.

Official.

F. H. ROBERTSON, A. A. A. Gen'l. The order was about four inches square and was folded in a triangular shape, and sealed with a wafer. It was addressed to "Major Bowdree, Miss. Batt."

It is an interesting souvenir of the war, and has, no doubt, passed through some interesting scenes in its thirty one years of existence.

On opening the order the wafer with which it was sealed tore out the name of the brigade leaving only the letter "H" of the name. General Robertson has presented the souvenir to his son, Felix Robertson, Jr., who is showing it to his many friends to whom such things are a curiosity.

YOU SHOULD NOT BE WITHOUT IT.

Every family is liable to have a hereditary taint of consumption in it. It may date back three or even four generations. This fact makes it necessary always to have on hand a remedy with which to combat this formidable disease. A cough when taken at first can readily be cured before it gets a serious hold on the lungs. Ballard's Horehound Syrup when taken in its early stages will cure consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of the throat, lungs and chest, such as consumption, inflammation of the lungs, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough, croup etc. It is pleasant to take, perfectly safe and can always be depended on. Sold by H. C. Risher & Co.

A NEW OPERA HOUSE.

Plans on Foot for a New Place of Amusement for Waco.

In the personal column today will be found a notice of the arrival in the city of Mr. Greenwall, of Fort Worth. He is a member of that famous firm of Greenwall's theatrical managers who control over sixty opera houses and theatres in the south. About a year ago he was in the city and organized a company to build a handsome opera house here but for some reason the plan was not carried out at the time, and finally fell through. Since then quite a number of Waco's moneyed men have been in correspondence with Mr. Greenwall, and his visit to Waco today is the result. He and his local associates have under consideration several splendid sites. A location may be chosen today.

Mr. Greenwall said that he was certain from the letters received that Waco did want a theatre and that he was certain the city could and would support a good one.

Two doctors of an Eastern town, To learning much inclined, Were called to see a gentleman, Whose health was undermined. The first one used his stethoscope Upon his patient meek. "I find," quoth he, "one lung is gone! You cannot live a week." To this the other wise M. D. Vehemently objected. "I see," quoth he, "as all may see, Your kidneys are affected." These wise men argued loud and long, Yet the patient owes recovery (Not to these doctors, but to Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery).

There are some patent medicines that are more marvelous than a dozen doctors' prescriptions, but they're not those that profess to cure everything. Everybody, now and then, feels "run-down," "played out." They've the will, but no power to generate vitality. They're not sick enough to call a doctor, but just too sick to well. That's where the right kind of a patent medicine comes in, and does for a dollar what the doctor wouldn't do for less than five or ten.

We put in our claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

We claim it to be an unequalled remedy to purify the blood and invigorate the whole system. It's the cheapest blood-purifier, sold through druggists, no matter how many doses are ordered for a dollar.

Why? Because it's sold on a peculiar plan, and you only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more?

Will Not Turn Loose.

The Royal barber shop is still strictly in it so far as the most expert artists, the sharpest razors and the best cosmetics are concerned, and the fact that no Texan, whether for Clark or Hogg, will ever be turned loose after taking a seat in one of the comfortable chairs of this establishment till he is tenderly and closely shaven, to his entire satisfaction, can be vouchered for by its many patrons.
