Wrapped in a Poisonous Veil!

In the mists that we see rising in the shores of sluggish streams, in low lands soaked by freshets or on marshy muddy flats on the outskirts of populous cities, lurk disease and death. Immeshed in this poisonous veil of mist are isolated business structures, manufacturing villages and humble tenements. For those who either from motives of business interest or dire necessity are daily constrained to breathe this venomous atmosphere, there is no immunity save in an efficient medicinal safeguard. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters fully fills the need, protecting whole communities from the insidious attacks of malaria, a disease which in its more malignant forms is scarcely less to be dreaded in the individual than typhus. Every type of it is thoroughly eradicated by the Bitters. This peerless medicine also remedies dyspepsia, constipation, liver and kidney trouble, rheumatism and nervousness. 'Tis a restorative, too, of appetite, sleep and flesh.

Died.

Mr. J. F. King the venerable father of Capt. W. B. King did last night at 10:30 at the residence of his son No. 1009 Austin Avenue. Mr. King has been very ill for some time and bore his suffering in silence and with much fortitude. The funeral will take place tomorrow May 4 at 10 a. m. Elder F. N. Calvin officiating. Interment at Oakwood.

The show window of J. C. Stephenson was very tastefully and appropriately dressed for decoration day. In the center was a tall shaft of spotless white representing the ground was sodded with grass, with pot flowers and grovel walks. The shaft was enclosed with a chain from four corner posts. On the shaft was printed:

"Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day,
Tears and love for the blue,
Loye and tears for the gray."

GOOD MEASURE.

Yes, good measure, pressed down and running over.

Some of these little proprietors of sarsaparilla put up in half-pint bottles are envious of the increasing popularity of Dr. John Bull's Sarsaparilla, put up as it is in large quart bottles, and intimate that theirs is more concentrated. This is as false as deceit can be. A teaspoonful of Bull's Sarsaparilla contains more concentrated medicinal virtue than a tablespoonful of any other sarsaparilla made. A bottle of Dr. John Bull's Sarsaparilla contains six times the curative virtue of a bottle of any other blood purifier made. No exception is made. Now an invalid wants his money's worth. He wants good measure. Therefore, unless misled through ignorance, when his system needs a blood purifier, when his system needs a tonic, when his system is breaking down from blood impurity or some wasting disease, he will demand of his druggist a bottle of Bull's Sarsaparilla, and on no occasion be persuaded to take anything that may be offered in its stead as being "just as good." There is no other remedy so good as Bull's Sarsaparilla for such diseases as scrofula, syphilitic affections, salt-rheum, itch, eczema, pimples, sores, rheumatism, lame back, swollen joints, aching muscles, nervous weakness, nervous debility, loss of appetite, loss of flesh, loss of strength, sleeplessness, premature old age, etc.

A GOOD

Dr. T. B. Woodruff, Jeffersonville, Ind., writes: "For ten years I had been an invalid. I became a chronic medicine taker. There is not a blood remedy or a tonic advertised that I did not try. From none of them did I derive any permanent good. I became discouraged. My system was full of blood impurities. My skin was covered in places with brown patches and little sores. My muscles had lost their strength. I was very weak. My appetite and digestion were miserable. I kept growing worse and worse until I began to use Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla. I then began to rally at once, and grew stronger and stronger. I have now used probably 30 bottles, and my improvement in looks and feeling is so great I seem like another person. I am now well and strong, and give the whole credit of my recovery to Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla."

Your children will be more healthy, happy and pretty, if you occasionally give them Dr. John Bull's Worm Destroyer. Try them. Price 25 cents.

When you have chills and fever, if you want a sure cure and one that does not taste bad, take Smith's Tonic Syrup. It will please you better than quinine or any other chill medicine.

OFF FOR CAMERON.

Two Train Loads of Judge Clark's Supporters Go With Him.

A JOLLY, ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD.

Thirty Coach Loads of People Crowd Into Fifteen Coaches--They are Anxious to See Clark Demolish Hogg

For weeks every one of the many thousand supporters of Judge Clark in Waco and vicinity has been scheming to get business in such a shape so as to be enabled to get a days vacation on today and go to Cameron and see our little giant wipe the earth with "his Porcine Greatness." Over 1500 succeeded in getting off. This morning the regular train which left at 7 o'clock had several extra coaches and there was no room to spare. Every seat was filled, the aisles were full, and there was a perfect pack and jam on the platforms and steps.

It had been rumored that the Hogg men would be present in a mass and capture the train and turn it into a Hogg excursion. The first part of the rumor proved to be true for there were masses at both this and the regular excursion train. A reporter of THE NEWS went through the train and out of 400 men wearing badges he counted only sixteen Hogg badges. It was certainly the largest gathering of the advocates of the reigning Incubus ever seen in Waco. The regular train pulled out a few minutes late with streamers flying and hundreds of voices yelling at the highest pitch, "Rah for Clark," "Turn Texas Loose" and other campaign cries. Capt. F. E. Rogers was in charge of the train.

THE EXCURSION TRAIN.

A few minutes after the regular train pulled out from the depot the "Clark Special" backed down and the immense and enthusiastic throng speedily filled the cars. A very efficient badge committee saw that every one wore a badge, and they all wore the red badges too.

THE HOGG CROWD.

On this train as on the regular train the Hogg crowd was assembled in full force. It was no case similar to the conundrums which puzzled Lord Dundreary, "birds of a feather flock together." If there was but one feather it is certain that but one bird could have it so how could one bird flock by himself. The reporter went through the whole train and found only one man, Hon. F. P. Cravens, who wore a Hogg badge. He was doing as much for his candidate as possible, however, which in that crowd was necessarily small.

THE EVENING NEWS FANS.

A short time before the train started THE NEWS sent several men to the train loaded down with fans. That they were appreciated was attested by the cheers of "Hurrah for THE NEWS," which came from each car as fast as the fans were distributed. Each fan bore the inscription in black "The campaign is hot but you can keep cool and keep posted on politics, society, religion, finance and the current events of the day by reading THE WACO EVENING NEWS." Below this printed in red was the campaign cry "Turn Texas Loose."

THE MOTTOES.

On the sides of each car was a long streamer bearing a campaign motto or cry. The following is the list of those that were on the excursion train.

- "Turn Texas Loose."
- "Geo. Clark for Governor."
- "For Clark and Prosperity."
- "For Clark and Elective Commission."
- "School Money for the People and not for the Railroads."

NOTES.

Our future Governor George Clark and a party of friends occupied one of the rear coaches in the "Clark special."

A prophet may not be honored in his own country but Waco's candidate is certainly honored at his home.

There were seats in the "Clark special" for about 600 people, but that number is hardly more than half the number on the train. There were hundreds who went to the depot with the intention of going who backed out when they saw how the cars were crowded.

Attached to the rear end of the last coach in the train was a huge Texas flag several yards long which was thrown to the breeze as soon as the train began to move. It displayed the motto, "Turn Texas Loose."

The full Geyser City band was along to make music for the crowd.

There were several colored citizens along who all wore the red badge.

Col. Parrott, Capt. Waties, J. R. Mobley, Fred Kingsbury and others who have worked so hard to make the excursion a success showed their joy very plainly this morning when they saw the immense throng.

A Correction.

In our report of the proceedings of the county Democratic executive committee yesterday an error occurs which does Messrs. C. A. Westbrook and E. T. Cox an injustice. The reporter not understanding the situation thoroughly, made Mr. Westbrook say that Mr. E. T. Cox and other third partyites at Lorena had entered into a compact to defeat Clark at the primaries at that box and then to vote against the ticket if Clark is nominated. Mr. Cox is fighting the scheme to go into the Democratic primaries and urges all the third party men to keep out and act independently. The action of some of the Ocala men at Lorena is without his sanction. Indeed he aided in exposing the scheme and is entitled to credit for it. Mr. Cox is making an open fight against the Democratic party and does not want to appear in any other light.

ANOTHER SUMMER RESORT.

Plans on Foot For a Picnic Ground at Lovers Leap.

Several gentlemen in the city are agitating a plan for the construction of a light draft steamboat to run on the Brazos to Lovers Leap on the Bosque. The plan is to secure several hundred acres at Lovers Leap and to turn it into a general picnic ground. A channel can be secured in the Brazos at a comparatively little outlay and it is thought that there will be no trouble in getting water enough to float a boat large enough to carry sixty or seventy-five people. The Hobson Line of electric cars already run within a half mile of Lovers Leap and an extension could be built at comparatively little cost. The plan on the whole is a feasible one and no doubt will meet with popular favor. Waco will shortly be provided with an abundance of pleasure resorts. The Citizens Street Railway Company will soon have its west end pavilion done. The Hobson line is making a beautiful park on College Heights and we have Proctor Springs and Padgett Park already. The more the merrier for the people want to get out into the woods in hot weather.

Dies From His Wounds.

New York, May 3.—Policeman Adam Kane, stabbed Monday night on Grand street by Thomas Kelly, died at St. Vincent's hospital yesterday. His brother Harry Kane, was stabbed by Kelly at the same time and lies at the hospital in a doing condition.

Mr. T. K. Bates, a recent acquisition to the city, will open the Oak Hall, in the building on the plaza formerly occupied by the First National bank. The whole building has been overhauled and is now one of the prettiest in the city. The furniture is solid oak and is undoubtedly the finest in the city, if not the state. Oak Hall will be open for business tomorrow evening.
