To the Lovers of Art in Photography.

Having moved to my new gallery, over 701 and 703, Austin street, (the old Hinchman Building), I am now better prepared than ever to give the people of Waco the finest Photos in the state. The beautiful "aristo" (so highly endorsed by the leading galleries) in all its beauty, at my studio I will have on exhibition for a few days, an elegant oil portrait of Mrs. Geo. Clark, by Mons. De Gissac, which has been framed in a very handsome "Florentine" frame, making a portrait, well worth a visit, to all, and more especially to the ladies.

I will be glad to welcome my old, and many new customers. Don't forget my new address, over 701 and 703, Austin Ave.

Respectfully,
DEANE, Photographer

ALL OVER TOWN

Mr. Walter Jones, the handsome attendant at the Capital Sample rooms, celebrated his twenty-fourth birthday yesterday. He attended the races in the afternoon and visited his "best girl" in the evening.

The Waco Wheel Club will meet tomorrow night at the City hall. The constitution and revised by-laws of the club will be ready for adoption at this meeting and a full attendance is desired.

The opening of the great bridge over the Mississippi river at Memphis will take place May 11 to 14, and arrangements are being made to have a large crowd in attendance. Tickets will be sold from all points at one fare for the round trip.

The new Central Fire station is nearly completed and will be ready for the firemen next week. The alarm bell has been elevated to the tower but has not yet been swung. When complete it will be one of the best engine houses in the state.

The engineer of the West End station has lost from his engine a nickel plated cup or ring from the hub of one of the wheels. The finder will receive his thanks if it is returned to him. It was lost on the night of April 25.

A dioptic exhibition will be given next week at the Park Theatre, for the benefit of the Rio Grande drought sufferers. This is a worthy movement and its projectors should have the encouragement and help of every charitably disposed resident of Waco.

THE NEWS has received from the publisher, C. H. Edwards, of Dallas, copies of the "Saengerfest March" and "Willkommen Sangers." These pieces were played at the Saengerfest recently held in Dallas. The March is dedicated to Lawrence M. Koepf, president of the Nineteenth Saengerfest.

One of the principal items of business which will come before the Episcopal diocesan council which meets here on May 19 will be the election of an assistant bishop. Bishop Gregg, whose health is very poor, will go to the mountains of North Carolina to spend the summer and try to recuperate.

Waco has many fine saloons. In the building formerly occupied by the First National bank, corner Bankers' Alley and the square, Mr. T. R. Bates has placed the most elegant bar fixtures regardless of cost. Oak Hall will be the center of attraction on Saturday night, May 7th. Mr. Bates calls your attention to his advertisement on the last page of this paper. It will certainly pay you to call and see with what taste and elegance he has fitted up this building. He will keep only the finest goods. His gentlemanly assistants, Mr. Macduff Lukins and Mr. Bill H. Brown, will do all in their power to make it pleasant for you. Go and see them Saturday night.

LORENA'S DAY.

Judge Clark Greeted by a Immense Crowd.

THREE HUNDRED FROM WACO

Go Down on a Special Train—The Little Giant Introduced by Dr. Moore—The Administration Gets Another Roasting—Judge Clark Nominates a Little Man for President—A Great Day for Texas.

The special train left Waco this morning at 9:40 for Lorena laden with over 300 people enthusiastic for the "little giant." It took only twenty minutes to make the run to the splendid little city of Lorena. Arrived there they were met by a tremendous yell for Clark and a determined crowd of men who had gathered there to do honor to the candidate of their choice. The Waco delegation was enthusiastically received and escorted to the picnic grounds where the good ladies were enjoying the gentle breezes wafted through the foliage of the trees.

The committee of arrangements were lavished with the many accommodations necessary for the success of a gathering of the kind enjoyed at Lorena today. THE NEWS will give their names that all may know who engineered the Lorena barbecue which is a grand success.

H. J. Hudson, H. M. Williams, C. A. Westbrook, J. P. Williams and H. C. Shaefer.

At 11:30 Dr. Thomas Moore of Waco the old war horse of Democracy arose and made an introductory speech setting forth the issues now agitating the people of Texas. He explained the absurdity of the universal cry against monopolies, stating that nearly everything we used was made by monopolies. Railroad corporations had not always done their duty but they were necessary to develop the state and while we must control them and make them do their duty we must not drive them away. He made an earnest appeal to the old Democrats who were his companions when they were forced to march through columns of bayonets to the polis. When he introduced Judge Clark loud cheers rent the air and the little ones of whom there were many were frightened almost into spasms.

Judge Clark was so hoarse that he could be heard by only a few but he had the undivided attention of everybody and preached some mighty sound Democratic doctrine and it was appreciated. He told of how the governor was trying to concentrate all the power of government in the hands of the governor and his appointees at Austin.

In his defense of the principle that the people should have the right to elect their servants he noted a recent example when there was a vacancy in the United States senate and the gov-

The New Plan.

The new plan of selling homes on the monthly installment plan, seems to meet a long felt want, at any rate it takes but a few minutes to convince a man who wants to buy that he is standing in his own "light," when he continues to pay house rent when it can be avoided. This plan that I have inaugurated gives the man of small means a chance. It don't require a big bank account to get a home. Last week I sold to three different parties homes in the city. One of them a two room house at $10.00 per month. Another a two room house at $12.50 per month, and the third a nice three room house for $17.50 per month. These are fair samples of what I am going to offer this week.

These places are all in a respectable neighborhood, close to the public schools and near the street cars, and not too far from the post office and center of business for them to be available. Come and see me, the longer you wait, the more you lose.

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails.
