A DEFENSE OF HOGG.

Mr. Kennedy, of the Marlin Democrat on the Cameron "Time" Incident.

To The News: MARLIN, Texas, May 17.—In your issue of May 14 you say, in answering a correspondent at Axtell, among other things, that "Bart Moore and J. R. Mobley heard the governor raise the question of time ten minutes before time." Granting that these gentlemen are correct, is it not a fact that Governor Hogg arose when Judge Clark stated that he (Hogg) had called time on him and that he would have to close, and said in substance: "Judge Clark, go on; I told you you could have all the time you wanted." The writer was in five feet of the speakers' stand, directly in front, and heard the words plainly. There is a difference of opinion about this matter of time. According to my watch Judge Clark's time was up when the question was raised. There were others (Clark men) by me who said the Judge's time was not up. I, for one, was perfectly willing for Judge Clark to have all the time he wanted and so stated to the gentlemen by me. It pleased me very much to hear Judge Clark then, for he was cutting his own throat so to speak and I saw no reason for any Hogg man to interpose. I will ask you and also Messrs. Moore and Mobley if it is not also a fact that when time was called on Judge Clark by the committee, during his opening speech, if Gov. Hogg didn't tell Judge Clark to go on? Judge Clark himself, or any other truthful man will not deny this, neither will they deny that Gov. Hogg said substantially what is quoted above.

These two acts show that Gov. Hogg is not the unfair man THE NEWS tries to prove him. Such contemptible methods as THE NEWS and other Clark organs employ to besmirch the character of Gov. Hogg and to hold him up in ridicule will only prove as boomerangs. This attempt to make political capital out of the Cameron episode is about at par with that disreputable and consummate falsehood about the confederate record, the pitcher racket, the low price of cotton lie, which was dropped like a hot brick, and numerous other silly charges against Hogg. Two years ago Judge Clark denounced the people as fools. THE NEWS and other supporters are running the Clark campaign, upon this supposition, judging by the foolish subtleties you resort to. But you are mistaken. The people have just a little more sense than you give them credit of having.

When the convention meets at Houston I expect to see old McLennan, whose common people are as intelligent and patriotic as the sun shines on, notwithstanding the efforts of THE NEWS to show them up otherwise, cast her vote as a unit, along with her little sister Falls, for our present and next governor, James Stephen Hogg, the patriot and statesman who said and whose platform is "The people will rule Texas," which is more expressive than all Judge Clark has uttered since he inflated his boom at Weatherford and a thousand times more logical than the platform promulgated by that Waco conference called together to repair the damage the "little giant" discovered when his boom collapsed. Hogg's friends don't have to get together to find out where he stands on anything. They know. Yours Truly, JAMES M. KENNEDY.

AN OBJECTION AND A SUGGESTION

Move the Central Station's Fire Alarm Bell to the City Hall.

The only objection that can possibly be urged against the new Central Fire station is the location of the alarm bell. It has been placed in the tower, so called, and enclosed with a solid wall. Yesterday afternoon late an alarm was turned on and the bell was barely audible on Franklin street, only two blocks distant. It is a fact patent to all that where the city's defense from fire depends on a volunteer department it is imperative necessary that the alarm be loud enough to be heard over a greater part of the city. As the bell is now located it is impossible for over half of the department to hear an alarm when it is turned on.

A suggestion has been made that this unfortunate defect be remedied by hanging the bell in the tower of the city hall. There it would be nearly if not quite a hundred feet from the ground and its tones could be heard all over the city. There is plenty of room for striking machinery and batteries, while the gong and indicator could remain where they now are, in the engine house.

It is a fact that none can deny that the bell is entirely inadequate in its present condition to the duty required of it. Why not move it to the city hall where it can be heard by all?

A MAD DELEGATE.

Charges The News With Stocking the Convention.

Evening News: Ross, May 17.—After stocking the convention with Clark men and selecting his Honor, Judge Alexander to preside over it knowing, at the same time of the tyranny with which he ruled and manner in which he by the power vested him backed by the calamity howles suppressed free speech THE NEWS does not see any cause for the dissatisfaction of Hogg men. THE NEWS claims the average Hogg politician has no equal for gaul on earth Judge Alexander together with the whole gang of calamity howlers; and Clark mug wumps together with the editor of THE WACO NEWS has an overabundance of that product which they will find their stock run down and completely exhausted on the 9th day of July when the Hogg men of McLennan county give the lie to the Waco resolution. Now publish this and let them make another howl I don't give a d—. I have a few gentlemen spotted who are candidates for office in the county who shall feel the effect of last Saturday. BUMERANG. A DELEGATE.

Waco Juvenile Cavalry.

All boys under the age of sixteen years will be admitted to the company, providing they are of good moral character and are mounted, until June 1st. No one will be enlisted after that until September. All that is required of any one that joins is obedience. Lesson will be given by the drill master, M. B. Davis.

Each recruit will buy his own uniform, which costs $9.25, sabre and belt $5. Measure taken on application.

The boys will go horse back to the State Encampment at Austin. This will not be at the expense of the boys. Regular drills on Saturday from 3 o'clock till sundown.

Those who wish to enlist report to Robt S. Ross, at the court house, or M. B. Davis at THE NEWS office, or myself in charge of company on regular drill days.

SARSAPARILLA.

Isn't one Sarsaparilla as good as another? No! No!! No!!!

Don't think it. Don't for a moment think it. If you want Bull's Sarsaparilla, demand it and take no other. It contains ingredients that are not found in any other sarsaparilla. These very ingredients that make it different from other sarsaparillas are the most important. In fact, essential to its curative virtue. Omit them and Bull's Sarsaparilla would be as inert as the many inferior preparations of sarsaparilla found in many drug stores. Bull's Sarsaparilla contains no important ingredient. Each ingredient used is chosen for its beneficial effect upon the human system. Combined, they exert a harmonizing influence upon every function of the body, improving digestion, strengthening the liver and kidneys, cleansing the blood of poisonous matter, soothing the nervous system, enlivening the mental faculties, and in a word, by infusing new strength and life, completely rejuvenates every part and makes one feel altogether like a new person.

Dr. JOHN BULL'S

Elmer Hodson, Alvaretto, Tex., writes: "My strength and health had been failing me for several years. My blood was in a very impoverished condition and very impure. My limbs felt lame, rickety and rheumatic, and I could not walk without tottering. I felt myself growing prematurely old, and my face began to look pinched and shrivelled. I suffered considerably, was restless at night, very nervous, and growing very melancholy. My eyes were sore and I had catarrh. I tried many tonics, and bitters and blood purifiers, but failed to get better. I finally bought six bottles of Bull's Sarsaparilla, and before I had used it all I felt like another man. My strength and health improved, pimples and sores disappeared from my person, aches and stiff joints left me, and I consider myself a well person."

There is no other remedy so pleasant to take and so sure in its effect as Dr. Bull's Worm Destroyer. Price 25 cents.

There is one chill remedy whose effect is a certainty. It has been tested in many thousands of cases and never known to fail. It is called Smith's Tonic Syrup. Take no other.

Real Estate Bell You will find it to your interest to consult the old reliable real estamen, Sassaman BELL & SASSAMAN, No. 411, Fran in Street.

Worn-out, "run-down," feeble women, need Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It builds them up. It's a powerful, restorative tonic, or strength-giver—free from alcohol and injurious drugs. The entire system is renewed and invigorated. It improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, gives refreshing sleep, and restores flesh and strength. As a soothing nerve, it allays and subdues hysteria, spasms, and all the nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease. It's the only guaranteed medicine for women. It does what is promised—or it asks nothing. It gives satisfaction, in every case, or the money paid for it is refunded.

That's the way its makers prove their faith in it. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; a legitimate medicine, not a beverage. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system.
