A Mother's Mistake.
 Mothers frequently make a mistake in neglecting the cough of a child. A Fort Wayne, Ind., lady writes: My little daughter 6-years old had a severe cough but as it was nothing unusual I thought nothing of it, and allowed it to run on for 4 or 5 weeks, when it became so obstinate she began losing flesh. I called in a physician who treated her three weeks without benefit. A neighbor insisted upon my trying Ballard's Horehound Syrup; it relieved her from the first dose and she began gaining flesh rapidly, when we had used two bottles her cough had entirely disappeared. I would not be without it. It does not constipate my children. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is free from Opiates. It's the most soothing throat and lung medicine in the world. Price 50c. and $1.00. Sold

Wonder Worker.
 Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is today enjoying good health.
 If you have any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at W.

I AM JEEMS STEPHEN.

The Greatest Living Man.—A Speech as Read Between the Lines.—

THE NEWS is in receipt of the following report of a speech by Gov.
 Hogg not as actually spoken but as read between the lines:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I need no introduction to you for I am Jeems Stephen Hogg, the heir apparent to the Gubernatorial crown of Texas. I am the man who was once your attorney general and I raised more Hades and done less good than any man that ever preceded me. I am today the greatest living man in all the world since the sad death of Alexander the Great. I have been told that in manner of speech and general get off I resemble Sam Houston and that is why I opened up my canvass on San Jacinto day—do you catch on—do you understand? By gatlings, give me a gourd. I want to drink a little red blud. I want also to take a sip of nitric acid and spew it out on the heads of my unloyal subjects, such as Jim Crow Senators, unwise and mouthy law makers of the Garwood stripe, who persist in telling the truth on me, and those foolish sons of toil who according to my idea are too enlarged for their pants.

What do you think fellow citizens of a motley lot of wool hat skunks asking Jeems S. Hogg to appoint one of their number R. R. Commissioner?
 I want them to understand that I can only use the Alliance people once every two years and that is for voting purposes. Do you understand?
 People don't understand me for they say that I said at one place where lands were bought from R. R.'s and the title not good, I could make the purchasers disgorge, and at another place I would validate the titles. My dear boys, a damn fool never changes his mind, but a smart man like me changes it whenever he thinks it gets votes, by Gatlings. I am a good deal like Sam Jones because he always tells his audience that if his talk gets too hot to get up and git, but they don't git. That is why I always make that circus talk and the fellows are afraid to leave. Ain't I smart?
 I tell you I believe if I lived in New York instead of Smith county, I would be called upon to accept the Democratic nomination for the presidency.
 John, the high priest of Palestine told me on the quiet that I was the brainiest and grandest statesman since the days of Jefferson, but that don't give me the big head, I hear it so often. Can the people of Texas put me aside? I am the man that told Gossett what kind of an alien land bill to get up. I admit that it did not suit exactly, but I made em take until Horace made his round for senator I busted many a man by delaying the calling of an extra session, but that's all right and I never would have called it if George Clark, Harry Tracy, Sledge, McDonald, Garwood and others had kept still. They are a lot of toughs. They don't like me. I can't use them. I am a patriot, a true Democrat and every utterance I make is honest and from the bottom of my heart. Fellow citizens, were I to tell you or make one dishonest statement before God I would want to fall dead on this spot (a voice get off the spot Jeems, Charley Bonner has you cornered).
 If you elect me Governor I promise you times will be harder than they are now, for with my big right hand I will procure the eastern border of your state, and with my No. 12 bachelor brogans on the state line I shall stamp out of recognition all corporations desiring to enter the state, and with that same big right hand I shall murder at the line any alien bringing cheap money to Texas. I want the bankers who are putting up and managing my campaign to lend all the money in Texas and for the same good purpose I shall place old John Reagan at the northern border; he will need no instructions. He is the daddy of the interstate commerce law —on the west I shall place McLean—we don't get much from that source, but on the coast I will place Foster, the man who fixed the cow men. I shall make all these men do their duty or loose their head. I shall organize a regiment of state police and at its head will place Tom Brown. I shall make him "zar" or chief of police—the grand old commoner Tom likes taffy, and by gatlings I have got him stuck. I am smart. Somebody that is scarce on brains can have a few of my Hog brains; I am a Hogg.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

A Pleasant Affair Under the Auspices of the E. T. Club Last Night

The Ever Thursday Club, a social organization of young ladies in the northern part of the city, is responsible for a very successful surprise party at Mr. Canuteson's residence last night. Contrary to the usual rule in such cases, it was a genuine surprise.
 One couple had announced their intention of calling and had arrived when the balance of the party, which had gathered at Mrs. Conger's residence, came in a body. The surprise was complete, but Miss Canuteson and her two charming guests, the Misses Clara and Ragla Oleson, of San Antonio, soon rallied and made the evening one long to be remembered by all present. The club composed, as it is, entirely of young ladies, knew that such a crowd would be sure to find any hostess unprepared in the matter of refreshments had arranged for another little surprise in that direction. At the proper time they sent to a next door neighbor and brought over an immense quantity of delicious cream, cakes and other delicacies prepared by the dainty hands of the members of the club and sent there to await the proper time.

The evening was passed in music, games and conversations. The Misses Oleson are expert musicians and favored the party with several splendid instrumental solos and duettes.

On the whole the entertainment was one that reflects great credit on Misses Canuteson and Oleson as hostess and entertainers.

Pears' Soap

Whoever wants soft hands, smooth hands, white hands, or a clear complexion, he and she can have both; that is, if the skin is naturally transparent; unless occupation prevents.

The color you want to avoid comes probably neither of nature or work, but of habit.

Either you do not wash effectually, or you wash too effectually; you do not get the skin open and clean, or you hurt it.

Remedy.—Use Pears'
 Soap, no matter how much; but a little is enough if you use it often.

All sorts of stores sell it, especially druggists; all sorts of people use it.

The Only Practical Stereotype Outfit. Its Superior Advantages.

It is simple, practical, cheap, costing, according to size, only from $75 to $150. It can be put anywhere, occupying only the room of an ordinary case stand. Through its various patented labor-saving devices it is thoroughly endorsed by practical printers, giving all kinds of results in casting and blocking, viz: Thin flat plates, patent block plates, type high wooden core blocked or all metal arched. Also, it gives the advantage of casting and blocking at the same operation, exact type high, exact widths and exact lengths on and around the late patented hollow sectional ironcore method, the easiest, the cheapest, quickest and best blocking in the world. Absolutely without labor. The outfit dispenses with dangerous, costly and complicated machinery, and with its Hot Water Flashed Casting Box and Mould-Dryer, it is utterly impossible to injure type, and the very finest results known to plate makers, stereotyping or the art of printing is obtained. Send for descriptive circular full particulars and hundreds of volunteered testimonials from all parts of this and other countries. M. J.

For Sale—A Rare Bargain.

I have a complete set of abstract books of the deed records of the city of Waco and its suburbs, consisting of thirteen large volumes, with ample room to keep the records for twenty years brought down to date. These books I wish to sell and will let them go at a bargain for cash, or I will trade them for real estate in the city of Waco. Not being able to get a suitable man to make out abstracts and keep the books, and being unable to give the necessary time to the books myself, is my reason for wanting to sell. If desired I can furnish desk room and vault room for the books in my office for the purchaser. This is a splendid opportunity for a man to start up a good business. The right kind of a man can get a bargain, not only in these abstract books, but in city real estate. My list of bargains cannot be equaled. Call and see me.
