FOR REPUBLICAN DELEGATE FROM STATE AT LARGE

HON. JAMES B. GRIGSBY, Pres. American Mutual Benefit Association, Houston, Texas

In response to the insistent and repeated demands of so many republican electors in different parts of Texas, who are urging him to enter the race as one of the four (4) delegates from the state-at-large to the Republican National Convention, which meets in Chicago, Ill., Tuesday, June 8, 1920, Hon. J. B. Grigsby of Houston after mature, deliberate and prayerful consideration has decided to accede to their wishes with the view of serving his race and party and hereby announces his candidacy subject to the actions of the republican voters of Texas in their precinct, congressional and state conventions.

HIS PLATFORM:
 Republicanism versus "illy-white-ism."
 Americanism versus internationalism.
 Law and order against mob law and riot.
 Justice and equality rather than injustices and inequalities.
 Strict and rigid adherence to the constitution, its amendments and the fundamental principles of our republican form of government.
 He favors and shall labor indefatigably and untriflingly for a new republican leadership in Texas that will not defile nor desecrate the ancient landmarks and traditions of republicanism, but one which will be truly and thoroughly representative of the republican constituency of Texas.

He favors making America safe for Americans and the Texas republican party safe for all genuine, loyal, true and tried republican electors, irrespective of color, creed or class.
 He is for principles above personal gain; measures above men; policies above pelf; party fidelity and loyalty above mean and niggardly selfishness; Americanism above imperialism; political participation rather than political elimination.
 He opposes those men who would render and maintain the republican machine of Texas a federal patronage broker and gladly supports the candidacy of Col. E. H. R. Green of Kaufman County and Hon. Ed McCarthy of Galveston as the two white delegates from the state-at-large to the national convention.
 He favors and shall work for an aggressive, progressive republicanism standing firm on the tenets and traditions of the "Grand Old Party," but sensing the imperative needs and demands of the times and resolutely and courageously applying itself to the problems of reconstruction, readjustment and readjustment.
 He opposes proscription, either legislative or customary, in our body politic. He favors and shall fight hard to forever maintain the republican organization of the party of THE PEOPLE. He favors the republicans putting out a straight ticket, with all candidates honest-to-goodness republican electors, as well as waging a fight for congressmen in the 9th, 10th, 14th and 15th congressional districts, nominating able men for said positions.
 He favors two white and two Colored delegates to the National Republican Convention from the state-at-large and calls upon all genuine republicans to give him their endorsement and support.
