Samuel Huston College Choral Club. The club had an extra good rehearsal Saturday night at the residence of Miss Montzella Richie. Two new Jubilees were introduced. The club is to re-appear Friday night in an all musical concert at the white high school on Diamond Hill. Monday night was spent with Miss Bertina Smith in a short rehearsal. Just before being called in for practice Monday night a few of our Company were playing "Wolfe O the River." All went well until they tried to play "Wolf in the River."—Miss Robie McCoy was thrown by a hydrant and was knocked unconscious for a few minutes. However, in a short time was ready for practice.

MOUNT PISGAH NEWS

Sunday was another day spent in kingdom building at Mt. Pisgah and was well pleased. At the usual hour Supt. Davis was on the scene and with a full corps of teachers things went well; the financial rover ran high and when the smoke had all cleared away the Adults, as usual, went out in lead. Collection for the day $23.65. Sunday marked the opening of the great revival and at the 11 o'clock hour Pastor Prince ascended to the pulpit and with a message of love from the throne of grace he filled our hearts to an overflowing degree of happiness and joy. He used for his subject, "The Power of God's Word and with the Holy Spirit present he sent the message home to the hearts of all his hearers and there was a great meeting, and when the doors of the church was open seven came forward and asked for membership by Christian experience, with a large number of sinners asking for prayer. At 3 p. m. pastor and a large number of his members went to take a part in the sixth anniversary of Dr. G. W. Dav of the Pilgrim Valley Baptist church. Rev. Prince preached the sermon and it was a master piece and it was a sermon to the occasion, using for his subject, "Don't Muzzle the Ox that Tread out the Wheat." He proved himself the preacher of the hour.

At the usual hour, President Newman hold a special session and the B. Y. P. U. forces are taking the front rank with all other auxiliaries of the church, aside from this fact the Union is doing things and that counts in this life. With the spiritual fervor running high after the close of the Union service a spiritual prayer service was held and many prayers of faith went up to a throne of grace, and again the pastor ascended to the pulpit and spoke as if it were the last time he would ever preach, and the Holy Spirit was present and we had another shout from the pulpit to the door. When the doors of the church were opened it came forward and asked for membership, making a total for the day 18. The revival will begin proper tonight with Dr. E. L. Lockett, doing the preaching and a band of workers at his side to push forward the work of the kingdom building here in the city as never before in the history of the church.

All are invited out to hear this God sent preacher during these nights of service. Come one, come all and hear him. Collection for the day from all sources $241.35.

Morning Chapel of M. E. Church, Corner Third and Camp Streets.

Rev. H. E. Spencer, D. D., Pastor. Morning Chapel was at her best all day Sunday. The beautiful day drew many to the Sunday school at 9:30. Supt. Langston is still smiling over the combined new faces Sunday morning. Rev. Spencer was at his best and preached a powerful sermon in the morning service. Two distinguished visitors from San Antonio and Louisiana were in the morning service. The pastor and choir moved over to Gibson's Memorial Sunday evening to visit the P. E. in readiness for the 2nd.

quarter. The Ladies Secret Service Club, with Vice-president, Mrs. A. A. in the chair was in full blast promptly at 5 o'clock Sunday evening. At 3 o'clock the club will launch the play ground movement. The big cut-glass contest closed Sunday evening in the Epworth League. A full house saw the handsome 24 piece set given to the winner, Mrs. A. B. Standifer. Mrs. Standifer was very much surprised, but ready for another contest. Pres. Emory C. Smith will launch a big silver ware contest in the near future. The leaguers are going over the top each Sunday. The report shows $49.85 raised for Education. Visit the Epworth League and see what is going on.

JUNIOR CHOIR

The Mt. Gilead Junior Choir held its regular practice on Tuesday night. A very good attendance. The practice was given over to Mr. Sing's Singing school, as the choir had been, by special request, asked to sing a song during the morning service which all knew.

The morning service was entered into with spirit. All members looked and acted as if they were filled with the Holy Ghost. The evening service was very interesting. After a short sing song we listened to a very helpful talk on "Health." All were greatly entertained Wednesday evening April 14, by Mrs. O. H. Wormely and the late Mrs. Samuel Nelson at the residence of Mrs. Wormley 1065 Humbolt street with a whist party a beautiful ice course was served, after which encouraging remarks were made in behalf of the club by Mrs. E. A. Texada; response by Mr. S. J. Johns. We were very much pleased to be honored with the presence of Prof. Phil R. Register but sorry he was too late to join us in the ice course as we are all sure he is very fond of such refreshments—sincerely hoping he will be on time here after.

THE AUXILIARY CLUB

The Ladies Auxiliary Club, to the brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters were recently entertained Wednesday evening April 14, by Mrs. O. H. Wormely and the late Mrs. Samuel Nelson at the residence of Mrs. Wormley 1065 Humbolt street with a whist party a beautiful ice course was served, after which encouraging remarks were made in behalf of the club by Mrs. E. A. Texada; response by Mr. S. J. Johns. We were very much pleased to be honored with the presence of Prof. Phil R. Register but sorry he was too late to join us in the ice course as we are all sure he is very fond of such refreshments—sincerely hoping he will be on time here after.

The Ladies Auxiliary club met on ten Thursday evening April 15, at Gilton Hall, with President, Mrs. E. A. Texada in chair. The body enjoyed the hour with Bible quotations and poems from different ones. Mrs. Tally was a little late but she more than made up for lost time by reading a wonderful paper, which was enjoyed by all, after which a party of six went down into the Cafeteria and enjoyed a lovely ice course. We want to ask each lady of the auxiliary to be a live wire worker and let's make it a real success.

DINING CAR EMPLOYEES LOCAL BANQUET

The Dining Car Employees Local gave their first banquet of the season Thursday night April 15th with a house to house to house to overflowing capacity. The weather seemingly was ordered specially for the occasion, with the sweet scented flowers, together with the many various kinds of perfumes which of course, went to make the complete toilette of me Lady's Boudoir made the hall itself perfect to be held. Yes Pop Lane you should have been there to hear most of all our acting president of the hour give a short talk in behalf of our Local in person of Little "Music Boy" known best by that name to some people but to us as every day Jack Hall. Say Pop, he put it over the top, and boy, you should have been there to have toried to in a gentle mannerly way met some of those ladies, and what came with them, and more especially those from out of town, who were here? Oh fellows! I couldn't begin to remember who all they were but I will tell you a few of them from Dallas. There was Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Jordan, Mrs. Pountain, Mrs. Moore and her sister; Yes she had a name, but I forgot it, trying to remember all of them. Oh! yes, Mrs. Sadie Barnes from Santeone, was there, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pepton, from Texarkana, Ark., who was there from home? Why, boys, every body; no body left home but the light and it was out—let's see; I'll see who I can remember just some of them because I have many other things to tell you pop, until I cant dwell at length on who was there and who wasn't. Yes, you know Pete Langston, Asburah the tailor. Now don't expect me to miss by not being here. Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Nash Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Bogan and Little Bogan and wife Leah, Oh! yes, Head Walter Hardee Jackson and his Quarter Master Group, (waiters quite natural had been there, being the president of the Progressive Waiters Association of the State of Texas, he thought it good taste to be up which we was powerful glad to have him see how nice we had learnt to act out in public and only being a little more than three months old, and Pop, let me say right here you know we have nigh on to eighty-three "Hash House" in our local, (meaning) waiters of course) and Mr. and Mrs. James Crenshaw sharpshooting Mr. and Mrs. Silas Cooper. Yes, Johnnie Williams and his, See was quite tremendously heard.

Now I can't take any more time to tell you who was there as my time is short now. Pop, Old Boy, we had one among if not the best Orchestra that could be had. Shot way, by all in their swallow tail coats and see more skirts and that fellow Sam Whitten can surely blow that pipe horn, what you call it? Saxophone, well it's something. What? Did we don't mention, why that's the most interesting thing you said since we been talking, who made it? I don't know exactly but it seems to me Jack Hall, Stewart Jordan, Alonzo Bogan and that Crenshaw boy was the chief witness in manufacturing, cooking, distilling, billing on mixing it what ever you want to call it. But man, it was so good until a fellow would forget as long as he could keep the scent on him that he was living in a day, that Mr. Prohibition is a powerful man. How did it smell? Why not the smell, the pale that went a joby way and sum is the word. They called it "Smile" Special Punch" and it had a kick not strong right now but by the free you know you had something more than water.

Well Pop, I must go and see Red Boy, maybe he'll tell me to jar the ground, So long, I hope to see you up stairs Monday, P. G. Good bye.

St. James Baptist Church Corner Second and Hardin Streets.

Sunday school opened at 9:30, Supt. W. M. Taylor presiding. The morning class was in session, though the attendance was above the ordinary, all of the classes had a well prepared lesson and turned in fine reports and good collection, reviewed by Mr. Walter Johnson, after which the pastor made a short talk and commented on the good points made by the review, the good advice from the pastor to the Sunday school was gladly received. Total present 164, total collection $18.58. 11 o'clock service, Dr. Winn in charge, opened by prayer meeting. Songs by both choirs, after giving his subject he began preaching. I would like to have all the sinners in the house to stand up you may be seated. I see it's quite a few here—how I don't see how you can remain there, will you come and be saved or will you stay and die in sin, playing same of any kind is a sin. Sisters if you play cards its betting. Now if don't make any difference how you play, for what you call it, you may say its a social game but its betting. Now some of you come out here to hear me preach about Paul and Silas, but I'm not going to do that, I'm going to preach about you and to you, not the person beside of you but you. Though I haven't called any body's name, so don't go off and say I called it. I just chatted in the brush pile and ran out. I guess its all right for me to throw in the brush heap if I want to and if I don't hit you, don't you run out; but if I do don't say you wasn't in there. This soul stirring sermon caused 13 to join the church. The revival did so much good for the city while running the two weeks. Many souls were saved. At 5:30 o'clock 23 were baptized. At 5:30 E. Y. P. U. rendered a program. Dr. A. L. Taylor, president. Night services at 7:30 p. m., Rev. Sutor from Mineral Wells preached; the house was crowded from front to back, was taken, balcony full and the vestibule packed. White visitors were present. The sermon was grand, 10 joined making a total 23 for the day; total collection $210.16. DR. J. H. WINN, D. D., Pastor. PHIL R. REGISTER, Reporter.

Masonic Grand Master makes annual visit under the auspices of Live Busy Bee Lodge N. 433, H. J. Mitchell, W. M.; B. J. Montgomery, Secy.

At 8:30 p. m. lodge opened in public form, H. J. Mitchell presiding. After calling the lodge to order the Grand Master, H. D. Winn, was introduced by J. C. Bogan, who made a noble and brilliant address on Masonry and its principles; he also paid high tribute to the Masonic Band, which was such a surprise to him, and that the band was in a class to itself. Brotherly devotion led by Grand Master H. D. Winn netted $50.00; 1919 has been the greatest in Masonic History.

The Masonic Band rendered several favorite selections, after which officers of said band thanked each and every Brother Mason for their liberal contribution. Now for the standing of the different lodges the Grand Master sent out notices to each lodge asking them to bring in the following statement: Present membership and cash on hand, the response—Rainbow Lodge No. 445, members 21, cash on hand $89.00; Chas. Lewis W. M., Alex. White, secretary; Grand Temple No. 75, members 45, cash on hand $180.00, J. T. Langston, W. M., E. A. Smith Secretary; Rexall No. 423, members 27, cash on hand $48.00, Rev. R. S.
