

FORT WORTH.

DALLAS DISTRICT NOTES.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 7, 1921.
No man can read with profit that which he cannot learn to read with pleasure. If I do not find in a book something which I am looking for, or am ready to receive, then the book is not for me, however much it may be for another man.

Visit the news stand at Temple Drug Store.
Miss A. M. Norwood, 1304 W. 7th street entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Norwood and Mrs. R. B. Bowie of Longview, Texas, with a dinner party, Tuesday evening, March 29th. The house was tastefully decorated with spring flowers while the long table in the dining room held a cut glass vase filled with American Beauty roses. All enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Mrs. Ollie McIntyre, 1103 E. 1st street has as her guest, Mrs. Rena Mosley of Athens, Texas, Mrs. Rena Miller and Miss Marie Fuller of Dallas, Texas.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hayes, 919 E. Rosedale avenue, a 11 pound girl. Mother and baby are doing fine at this writing.

Mr. R. B. Dehmann, foreman of the Harnett, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Paris, Texas, is in the city again at the Harnett's office.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Jennings, 1174 White, left the city recently to visit relatives in Austin, Texas.

Mr. S. B. Carlton, one of Fort Worth's young citizens, after a brief illness, departed this life Sunday, March 28th. He leaves many relatives and friends to mourn his loss. Mr. Carlton was a member of the Masonic Lodge and many life insurances.

Rev. Fenny is in the city, shaking hands with his many friends.
Mrs. C. L. Langston, formerly of this city, but now of Wichita Falls, passed through the city and stopped with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bessie Logan, 1214 Josephine street.

Mr. Lott, father of Mrs. J. Armstrong, Arizona Avenue, died Sunday night after several days illness. Mr. Armstrong and other relatives have the sympathy of their many friends.

The corner-stone laying at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, corner Rosedale and Evans avenue, of which Rev. M. K. Curry is pastor, was quite a pleasant affair. About a thousand or more witnessed the laying of the corner-stone by the Masonic Lodge. Over $2,000.00 were realized from the occasion, was Hon. Wm. McDonald, Rev. A. R. Griggs, Denton, Texas, Rev. A. L. Boone and others, besides a few candidates (white) for the coming election. All enjoyed a good time.

Mrs. Annie Brooks of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting her sister and niece, Mrs. Ida Lusk and Mrs. Parthena Lewis, Laella street.

If its news we want it at Temple Drug Store. We handle the leading Negro news papers.

The many friends of Deacon Johnson of Mt. Gilead Baptist Church, will be glad to know that he is back in the city and much improved in health.

Mrs. J. W. Tildon, Jr., and her charming little daughter, Westene, visited relatives and friends in Sherman, Texas, and reports a pleasant trip.

Mrs. R. B. Norwood, R. B. Bowie and Master Charlie Norwood of Longview, Texas, are visiting Mr. R. B. Norwood, 1104 Galveston avenue.

In science, read, by preference the newest works; in literature the oldest. The classic literature is always modern. New books revive and redecorate old ideas; old books suggest and invigorate new ideas. So visit with the literature, magazines and journals found on news stand at Temple Drug Store. Read! Read! Read!

Mrs. Eva Wells-Smith of San Antonio is visiting friends in the city.

The lecture on health by Dr. J. W. Tildon, Sr., Sunday morning at Mt. Gilead Baptist Church was quite helpful. If many of our race would take the advice given out by this great Doctor, the people of Fort Worth would have less sickness, better homes; and in fact, a clean city. It was indeed an inspiring lecture.

Write, phone or bring us your news. We keep almost of the times—Temple Drug Store.

Mrs. C. D. Jeffrey entertained a few of her friends, Monday evening, March 28, at her home, in honor of her birthday. A number of friends called during the afternoon and enjoyed the repast.

Reading serves for delight, for ornament, for ability. The crafty condemn it; the simple admire it; and the wise use it. Read all the literature found on news stand at Temple Drug Store.

Our visit to Lewisville was pleasant and profitable. Held the Quarterly Conference in Bethel A. M. E. Church at 4:30 p. m. Saturday. The officers from Hickory and Bethel assembled with full reports for each department of the churches of the circuit. The pastor, Rev. J. D. Edkins, did not materialize, but each of the 31 disciplinary questions were answered in full. We had hoped in vain to see the pastor Sunday in the quarterly meeting, but for some unknown cause did not show up. We had a great meeting; preached at noon; one convert added to the church, Mr. E. Johnson.

Rev. J. S. M. Alexander, pastor and members of Lane Chapel A. M. E. Church, worshipped with us in the noon and afternoon services, and at night we all went up to Lane Chapel and therein for the first time Bro. Jenkins was presiding elder of the C. M. E. and A. M. E. Church. After preaching, lifted the collection and presented it to the pastor, Rev. Alexander, for his noble spirit of Christian union. The leading lights in the A. M. E. Church are Brothers W. H. Redman, J. L. Houston, P. H. McKenzie, Elihu Johnson, Mrs. M. E. Redman, S. A. McKenzie, Laura Williams, George Hamilton, A. D. Nichols.

Our next quarterly conference will be at Hickory. The church at Lewisville is in a most sad condition—no children for a Sunday school—no future for African Methodism as it now appears. The only Sunday School is that of the Union School with three denominations intermingled. And in a few years the same will be true of the public school. In a few years it will run out for the want of pupils. Mrs. Saunders of Oak Cliff is the erudite teacher and is doing much for the whole community. Lewisville is the home of the progressive teachers, Mrs. Vivian Mitchell and Miss Vera Nichols. Bro. Anthony Henry is a very sick man, suffering under the third stroke of paralysis.

A Double-Header.
While we were in Lewisville, closing out our first round of quarterly conferences we had arranged to open the second round at Smith Chapel, Oak Cliff, with the help of the Brethren at 11 a. m. Sunday. The helper selected did not go to Smith Chapel but the great pastor, Rev. G. L. Coleman, lost no time but as a loyal God in the midst of his sorrow, he would not allow the flag of honor to trail in the dust, and without a word of complaint officiated as pastor and presiding elder and the people heard him gladly and did their duty. At 3 p. m. Union Service, Rev. J. W. B. Joshua and A. J. Williams, were present and assisted much in the service.

At night, Rev. H. Baker of Fort Worth preached and the people said that it was a glorious sermon. Monday night we were on deck and held a most inspiring quarterly conference with the help of a full corps of highly interesting officers who were present with good reports. The most inspiring event was the report from the Junior Church. Each department had good and full reports with the cash accompanying each report. Miss Nobelia Stevenson read the report which brought about so much applause. Rev. G. L. Coleman is indeed a great pastor and a most beautiful modern colonial edifice is now rising as a monument to his sterling worth. Rev. Coleman with 76 members are building for a membership of a half a thousand. This beautiful building, $4,600.00, will soon be ready for entrance and that will be indeed a great day in Oak Cliff.

Next Sunday we will be at Bethel A. M. E. Church, Leonard and Chickory Church will have the three o'clock service, Dallas, Texas. The fund-hours' service. All are to witness the Junior Quarterly Conference. We have watched with unabating interest "The great whirlwind," his push and clean sweep financial rally of Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church, Fort Worth, Texas. Dr. H. S. Sims is bringing things to pass; excelling all pastors in Texas raising money, paying church debts; pay off Allen Chapel and then another church. We have in mind, the portfolio you desire my Reverend Sir. Watch the big rally—the greatest of Texas.
