Merkel, Jan. 5.—Sunday school as usual at all churches. As Sunday was New Year, there was a joint Sunday School at Mt. Olive Baptist church conducted by Rev. L. T. Turner. Supt., it was high time all day and at night. Rev. E. W. Wiley delivered an excellent sermon, subject, "Watch." We have all resolved to do more for the Lord in the future, let us all turn out to Sunday school more. All young men and women are cordially invited to attend B. Y. P. U. every Sunday evening at 4 p. m., at Mt. Campbell. Brother James Whipps, president is back on the scene, been absent for some time, but from now on will endeavor to ever be at our post of duty with the Express, each Saturday. Let us all start right this year by taking, paying for and reading the Dallas Express, the foremost Negro Journal of the Southwest. We must co-operate in every tangible way in West Texas, help build up our own enterprises. Each citizen should read the Express, I have been reading it since childhood and find no other to surpass it for information as to the things of interest of the Negro race, this is what should interest us more than any other thing in existence. Let's start the new year right and read this paper more and at all time. Have your change ready every Saturday evening as the reporter passes, rain or shine, cold, or hot.

"Never a Christmas morning,
Never the old year end,
But some one thinks of some one,
Old days, old times, old friends.
