A Long Term.
Athens, September 19.—The case against A. W. Hines, for murder of John Lawrence, last spring, was given to the jury last night at 10 o'clock.
After fifteen hours they returned a verdict of murder in the second degree fixing the punishment at thirty-five years in the penitentiary.

A Fatal Collision.
Galesburg, Ill., Sept. 19.—In a collision between two freight trains here last night Engineer Charles Chase was killed. The locomotive and two cars were wrecked. The wreck caught fire and two ramps roasted to death.

A Bridge Burned.
Longview, Tex., Sept. 19.—Big bridge across Big Sandy river was found on fire last night at 1:30 by the local coming east. About thirty feet of the structure had been consumed when discovered. Traffic was stopped until 9 a. m. to-day, when trains passed over a temporary structure. The fire was likely caused by sparks from passing engines early in the night.

Harrison and Morton Flag.
Palestine, Tex., Sept. 19.—The Republicans raised their Harrison and Morton flag last night on a splendid pole 104 feet high with a streamer and electric light at the top. The flag, is a beautiful one in color and design.
The proposition is to make the pole and flag a present to the Democrats if Cleveland and Thurman defeat Harrison and Morton. The flag ceremonies were followed by an address on the subject of the tariff by the Hon. Webster Flannagan, delivered at the opera house, which was heard by a large audience of Republicans and Democrats.

Bean Will Cash.
Bonham, Sept 19.—The point brought out in the Bean case to-day was that Tom Bean was not living under an assumed name, as claimed by J. W. Saunders, of Mississippi, the alleged brother of the dead millionaire.
The depositions of Matthew Fletcher, David Genly, W. H. Lee, T. P. Stewart and others of Palmyra, Mo., were introduced, establishing the identity of Col. Moore Bean and his three sons, John, Thomas C. and Oscar, from 1836 to 1839 when they left Palmyra and went to Fayetteville, Ark.

Affidavits from Ark., proved the existence of the Bean family there. The record of the oath of allegiance of Col.
Moore Bean to the Republic of Texas was introduced. This evidence was all on the part of H. P. Howard, of San Antonio, to whom letters of administration have been issued, and Mrs. Sarah A. Dare, of Washington D. C. The attorneys of J. W. Saunders will not begin the introduction of their testimony before to-morrow evening.
The case will occupy several days and is attracting a great deal of attention.

Republican State Convention.
Fort Worth, September 19.—The republican delegation to the state convention who arrived to-night are very few, probably fifty in all. Dr. Arch Cochran, of Dallas, and A. J. Rosenthal are the prominent men here tonight. Cuney, of Galveston, the colored leader, and DeGress, of Austin, will be here to-morrow. The convention will not meet until noon and will not get to work until late in the day.
The great question will be on the state ticket, there being two factions—one favoring and one opposing nominations. Wright Cuney leads the antiticket delegates, while DeGress is the acknowledged head of the pro-ticket men. The convention will be a very quiet affair from present indications.

A Colony up in the Clouds.
Life at the Lick observatory, over 4000 feet above the ocean level, on a lofty summit, with other mountain crests only for neighbors, is an interesting study. Here is probably the highest colony in California. The astronomers and necessary employes of the observatory form a little world of their own, and few of them care often to go outside of it. The stage that comes once a day brings news from the world outside, and visitors, curious to see the wonders of the mountain, A contract with a San Jose expressman secures all needed freight once a month, some times oftener. A butcher with supplies comes up the twenty-eight miles of tortuous mountain road once a week. Cows and chickens are adjuncts to the commissary department. Quail, rabbits and deer are plentiful in surrounding canyons, and some of the sportsmen-astronomers occasionally bring them down.

The summer air is soft, and so rarefied as to exhilarate and make great exertion seem light. All the astronomers came from cities yet none complain or sigh for attractions beyond those revealed by the marvelous telescope.

A Matrimonial Catechism.
He was very practical, and in order to have everything fair and square before hand he said:
"You know, darling, I promised my mother that my wife should be a good housekeeper and a domestic woman.
Can you cook?"
"I can," she said, swallowing a great big lump in her throat.
"Can you make good bread? That is the fundamental principle of all housekeeping."
"Yes; I went into a bakery and learned how to make all kinds of bread.
She added under her breath "maybe."
"And can you do your own dressmaking? I am comparatively a poor man, love, and dressmakers' bills would soon bankrupt me."
"Yes," she said frankly, "I can make everything I wear, especially pattern bonnets."
"You are a jewel," he cried with enthusiasm; "come to my arms—" "Wait a minute—there's no hurry," she said coldly. "It's my turn to ask a few questions. Can you saw wood and carry in coal?"
"Why, my love, I should hire that work done."
"Can you make your coats, vests, trousers and other wearing apparel?"
"But that isn't to the purpose."
"Can you build a house, dig ditches, weave carpets and—"
"I am not a professional."
"Neither am I. It has taken the most of my life to acquire the education and accomplishments that attached you to me. But as soon as I have learned all the professions you speak of I will send you my card. Au revoir," and she swept away.

And the disconsolate young man went to the nearest drug store and bought a two-for-a-quarter cigar, with which he speedily solaced himself.—

No Man's Land.
Lamar, Col., Sept 19.—The people of Richfield, Kas., and Boston, Springfield, Vilas, Minneapolis and Carris, in this state, are taking steps to organize 200 troops to go into the neutral strip and take stolen horses and other property and capture the thieves.
Their principal object will be to get the outlaws, who are said to be fortified in Squad Canon. Persons who have seen the place says that it is a natural fortress and almost inaccessible; that it will be hard to dislodge the men who have taken refuge there.
