"Sick Him Tige."

THE STORY OF A GALLANT TROUBADOUR.

The other night, as a friend of ours was going home at a late hour, he heard in the distance sweet strains of music, or at first supposed to be music, but which proved to be principally "strains" and other dismal sounds that seemed to come from a dismal rickety with anguish, and a stomach over-loaded with green fruit.

"I have to-laved the-he Zulha-Za-hong, Fo-hor th-y life was all so-hong! Wa-wa-bas all a che-beerful smi-hils, Wa-wa-bas shu-unahine all the wh-hile."

Here the young man paused to spit and fill up again with wine, and then struck into the chorus: "Oh, Zu-hula, mol-der-ling Zu-hula, Si-hilient-hy sil-ver so-hong! Oh, Zu-hula, da-bur-ling, Zu-hula, De-har de-paried Zulha, Zong-ong-oh."

The singer here took a rest of a few minutes, looked anxiously down the street to see that no policeman was in sight, then throwing a peculiar plaintive sound in his voice, he sang: "When the mo-bison is shi-hing o'er the la-lake, oh, the-heh I'll thi-ink of the-he-he! Oh, the-heh, the-heh I'll thi-ink of the-he-he-ee-ee."

Here the front door was suddenly opened, and a sepulchral voice said: "Sick him-tige!" and out bounded a dog about the size of a flour barrel, and with a good set of natural teeth. The singer turned a back summersault out of the gate, and with the dog nipping at his coat-tail at every jump, disappeared down toward the heart of the city.

Our friend had walked several blocks from where the scene occurred, when he met the dog returning with a wild expression in his eye and a pair of suspenders and a portion of a coat-tail in his mouth.

A Gambler Balked by a Child.

A man nearly fifty years old, named Alexander Deming, living on Labrosse street, and owning a vacant lot in the sixth ward, worth $1,500, got on a spree a week ago and fell into the hands of two rascals, who deserve at least a ducking.

One of them is a young man named Kidder, a machinist, and the other a stranger in the city, but a friend of Kidder. When Deming started out he had about $50 with him, and his intention was to purchase a cow of a man on Woodford Avenue.

When Deming had nothing more to put up, he gave his own note of hand for $20 and lost that. This was Saturday noon. One of the men got a blank deed, filled it out with a description of Deming's real estate, and then filled him up with liquor, lent him one hundred dollars and offered to play him for his property, they to run the chances of the wife signing.

WHOLESALE

AND

RETAIL GROCERS,

And dealers in all kinds of

WESTERN PRODUCE,

PLANTATION SUPPLIES

AND BAR STORES.

Dallas, - - - Texas.

We take this occasion to thank our friends for their liberal patronage extended to us while at Corsicana, and beg to remind them and the people generally, that we are now opening at Dallas one of the largest and most complete Stocks of Groceries ever brought to the interior of Texas.

Purchasing as we do, direct from Importers and Manufacturers exclusively, for cash on the spot, and by our own labor almost freeing ourselves from store expenses, and being no way involved in the unavoidable losses incidental to Big Credit Stores, it must be perfectly clear to the comprehension of every one that we can afford to sell our goods at small profits.

We would respectfully solicit the public when visiting our market to call and examine our Stock and prices for themselves. All articles guaranteed as represented, or money refunded.

Our House is situated on South side of Elm Street, N. E. of Public Square. Respectfully, GARLINGTON, MARSALIS & CO. Jan. 4, 1873-1874.

H. C. HOSKINS & CO., WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS, DALLAS, TEXAS.

Have opened the Largest and Most Varied Stock of DRUGS, MEDICINES, Patent Medicines, Paints, Oils, Toilet Articles, Lamps, LAMP-FIXTURES, GLASSWARE STATIONARY, ETC.,

Ever brought to this portion of Texas, and are determined to sell at the lowest prices. We ask those buying to call again to compare ours with New Orleans and Galveston prices. Calculate freight, drayage, wharfage, leakage, breakage, insurance and other expenses, together with the great loss of time in ordering from a distance, and we think they will find we offer superior inducements to give us their patronage.

ESTABLISHED IN 1837. J. C. MILLER, Late of and Successor to Cassidy & Miller, 107 Poydras Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

TENT AWNING & FLAG MANUFACTORY. SAIL MAKER COTTON DUCK AGENT. Manufacturer of Tents, Awnings, Tarpsauls, Waggon Covers, etc., etc.

Wholesale dealer in Manila and tarred Rope. I would call special attention to the celebrated Cordage manufactured by the Plymouth Cordage Company, Plymouth, Mass. As I purchase the Cordage for cash at the very lowest price and receive it direct from the factory, I can offer great inducements to dealers, railroads, etc. I manufacture and keep constantly on hand a large assortment of Tents, suitable for railroad contractors and others, which we guarantee to be better made and at prices as low as can be had in New York, St. Louis, or any northern or western city.

TO LEASE. 20x50 FEET OF GROUND, on Austin Street, adjoining the new Odd Fellows Hall. For further particulars, apply to Pres't L. O. F. Association, Dallas, January 11, 1873-1874.

IT Leads to Happiness!
